International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink,George W. Noblit,2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

Megahey,2005-06-09 When Peterhouse School opened in 1955 the British Empire in Africa was still intact and the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland had just come into being It was a boarding school founded on the British model but with the intention that it would adapt all that is best in the Public School tradition to African conditions The story of Peterhouse is not only about work and sport music and drama chapel and syllabus changes It is set in the context of educational development and political changes in a Southern Africa country The school became a pioneering multi racial institution in white Rhodesia shared the sufferings of the country during the bush war expanded greatly in the new Zimbabwe survived the contradictions of a black Marxist government and has kept its firm commitment to being a Church School Despite the uncertainties and challenges of the new century this is a story of faith and vision imwe imba - the other room Munashe Wadzanai, Anne Schlechters, Thomas F. Andersson, 2022-11-02 Munashe is a bright adolescent girl living in Zimbabwe She feels a pressure to leave Zimbabwe and to follow most of her peers to a university or to work in the West However she is not convinced that this is what she really wants Via Thomas an experienced European scientist and manager initiating a technical Start up Hub at her boarding school Munashe comes in contact with Anne Imwe imba the other room is a novel covering the last 2 high school years of Munashe and Anne in letters between the young women as well as from Thomas to Simon his now retired personal and business coach Through the letters Anne and Simon discover unknown and fascinating aspects of the southern African society Especially since Thomas includes stories from Nelson Munashe s grandfather and small holder farmer Based on the stories and hearing about Munashe s activities in more technical projects Anne develops a critical attitude towards both the current Western school system and the effectiveness of traditional Western development or aid projects On the other side Munashe learns that Europe is not the land of milk and honey for everybody Munashe and Anne assisted by Thomas review the so called development work activities in emerging markets and propose a promising approach to economically uplift more rural areas In part 2 the Start up Hub activities are proven to be sustainable and Munashe asks where do we want to go A design is made for a more ideal global society and the issues faced implementing their ideas are discussed The letters in this novel cover a wide spectrum of topics personal struggles and contemplations educational and business practices science and art geopolitics and historical backgrounds change management as well as social developments Each letter is written in an accessible language and underlined with references to allow the reader to explore more Most of all imwe imba wants to create awareness Awareness for the wonderful real life in Africa Awareness that Africa is prosperity Awareness that our younger generation is perfectly able to initiate change That a single person can initiate change That complaining or being upset about various unacceptable global happenings or actions is not enough That a further polarisation and blaming the others doesn t help That we have to do things That we should not fear change but embrace the changes that are needed to come to the necessary improvements Covid-19 and the Dialectics of Global Pandemics in Africa Munyaradzi Mawere, Bernard Chazovachii, 2021-10-01 The prevalence of global pandemics has been timeless and universal In 1918 the Spanish Flue grounded Spain and her neighbours In 1997 2014 and 2020 the Ebola virus wreaked havoc in West Africa in the same manner that polio had ravaged the globe Since 2019 the Coronavirus has forced most economies onto a downward spiral Despite concerted global attempts at observing World Health Organization guidelines the Coronavirus has been changing peoples lives forcing most economies onto their knees endangering lives and livelihoods making a mockery of global medicine and causing the widespread despair and helplessness that has come to be known as the new normal Unlike the other pandemics the mayhem complexities and dialectics caused by Covid 19 have been matchless requiring a systematic study and necessitating a volume like this one The volume s 16 well researched chapters argue that despite Covid 19 s enormous lessons and predictions about even greater future pandemics humanity can ill afford to relent in its determination to conquer the pandemic in the same way that human resolve has defeated past pandemic As such the volume provides hope and direction to the global community on how best to deal with Covid 19 and pandemics of similar or even higher magnitude in the future
