Zimsec Shona Paper November 2014

Ivan Marowa, Ushehwedu Kufakurinani

Zimsec Shona Papernovember 2014:

Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Francis Machingura, 2022-12-06 Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe highlights the complex interplay between religion and sexuality in Zimbabwe. It shows how religion both facilitates and complicates the expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe. Approaching religion from a broader perspective, this volume reviews the impact of African Indigenous Religions and Christianity in its varied forms on the construction and expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe. These contributors examine the role of indigenous beliefs as well as interpretations of sacred texts in the understanding of sexuality in Zimbabwe. They also address themes relating to sexual diversity and sexual and gender based violence. Overall, this book sheds light on the ongoing relevance and strategic role of religion to contemporary discourses on human sexuality. The Routledge Handbook of African Theology Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2020-05-25 Theology has a rich tradition across the African continent and has taken myriad directions since Christianity first arrived on its shores. This handbook charts both historical developments and contemporary issues in the formation and application of theologies across the member countries of the African Union. Written by a panel of expert international contributors, chapters firstly cover the various methodologies needed to carry out such a survey. Various theological movements and themes are then discussed as well as biblical and doctrinal issues pertinent to African theology. Subjects addressed include Orality and theology, Indigenous religions and theology, Patristics, Pentecostalism, Liberation theology, Black theology, Social justice, Sexuality and theology, Environmental theology, Christology, Eschatology, The Hebrew Bible and the New Testament. The Routledge Handbook of African Theology is an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the theological landscape of Africa. As such, it will be a hugely useful volume to any scholar interested in African religious dynamics as well as academics of Theology or Biblical Studies in an African context. Language Matters in Contemporary Zimbabwe Collen Sabao, Esther Mavengano, 2024-06-17 Speaking to a broader global preoccupation with the state of languages and language development, this book considers issues surrounding the diverse languages, linguistic communities and cultures of Zimbabwe. Reflecting on Shona, Xitsonga, Sotho, Xhosa, Tjwao, Nambya, IsiNdebele, Nyanja, Tshivenda, English and Braille, the book uncovers both the internal and external factors that impact language structures, language use and language ideologies across the country. The book considers how colonial legacies and contemporary language domination and minoritisation have led to language endangerment. It considers the fate of communities whose languages are marginalised and in the process poses questions on what can and should be done to preserve Zimbabwean languages. The authors' offerings range across subjects as diverse as music, linguistic innovation, education, human rights, literature, language politics and language policy in order to build a rich and nuanced picture of language matters in the country. Coming at a critical moment of increasing mobility, migration, cultural plurality and globalisation, this book will be an important resource for researchers across African literature, linguistics, communication policy and politics. Abundant Life and Basic Needs Nyoni, Bednicho, 2019 Western neglecting traditional religion is an important factor for the failure of many developmental strategies towards Africa Therefore religion s of the indigenous peoples must be given the necessary attention The book presents the example of the Shona religion playing a critical role in the life of the Zimbabweans If incorporated it will contribute to the better success of development initiatives back cover Great Zimbabwe Shadreck Chirikure,2020-11-29 Conditioned by local ways of knowing and doing Great Zimbabwe develops a new interpretation of the famous World Heritage site of Great Zimbabwe It combines archaeological knowledge including recent material from the author s excavations with native concepts and philosophies Working from a large data set has made it possible for the first time to develop an archaeology of Great Zimbabwe that is informed by finds and observations from the entire site and wider landscape In so doing the book strongly contributes towards decolonising African and world archaeology Written in an accessible manner the book is aimed at undergraduate students graduate students and practicing archaeologists both in Africa and across the globe The book will also make contributions to the broader field such as African Studies African History and World Archaeology through its emphasis on developing synergies between local ways of knowing and the archaeology

Pentecostalism and Human Rights in Contemporary Zimbabwe Francis Machingura,Lovemore Togarasei,2018-06-11 This volume offers updated accounts of Pentecostalism in Zimbabwe and explores most of the dominant themes in contemporary Pentecostalism including leadership competition gender youth and prosperity In addition some chapters investigate emerging themes in studies on Pentecostalism such as disability Contributors to this volume situate Zimbabwean Pentecostalism within the larger continuum of global Pentecostalism and reflect on Pentecostal biblical interpretation the interface between Pentecostalism and African Traditional Religions the use of titles in Zimbabwean Pentecostalism and Pentecostalism s engagement with HIV AIDS The book will appeal to scholars in religious studies and theology religious education disability studies social sciences history political science development studies gender cultural studies and anthropology as well as general readers

Civil Society and the Party-state in Zimbabwe Zenzo Moyo,2024-08-21 The book utilises Gramsci s concepts of hegemony counter hegemony organic intellectuals and integral state to interrogate how modes of engagement between the state and civil society have contributed to a polarised polity in Zimbabwe and in turn how this has impacted democratisation processes This was achieved by analysing intra civil society interactions and state civil society relations which established deep polarised relationships that can be traced back to the liberation struggle It also interrogates ideologies that drive these polarised relations and how together with material benefits from donors and the party state these relations impact ordinary people s modes of existence One of the arguments that emerge from the book is that political polarisation in Zimbabwe has now morphed into an established political culture that has played a huge role in the retardation of democratic struggles It uses ideas of entangled modernities and travelling theory to cast doubt on the belief that civil society is the missing key in the democratisation of developing countries

Re-thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub-Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Edward Shizha,Ngoni

Makuvaza,2017-04-17 What have postcolonial Sub Saharan African countries achieved in their education policies and programmes How far have they contributed to successful attainment of the targeted 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDGs on education What were the constraints and barriers for developing an education system that appeals to the needs of the sub region Re thinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century Post Millennium Development Goals is an attempt to demonstrate that Sub Saharan Africa has the potential and capability to provide solutions to challenges facing its desire and ability to provide sustainable education to its people To that end the contributors are academics with an African vision attempting to come up with African home grown perspectives to fill the gap created by the lapse of the MDGs as the guiding vision and framework for educational provision in Africa and beyond The book seeks to articulate and address African issues from an informed as well as objective African perspective The book is also intended to provide insights to scholars who are interested in studying and understanding the nature of postcolonial education in the Sub Saharan African region Given the objectives and themes of this book it is intended for academic scholars undergraduate and graduate students human rights scholars curriculum developers college and university academics teachers education policy makers international organisations and local and international non governmental organisations that are interested in African education policies and programmes Rethinking Postcolonial Education in Sub Saharan Africa in the 21st Century provides contemporary reflections from multiple perspectives and re positions the issue of education at the forefront of the debates on African development Lamine Diallo Associate Professor Wilfrid Laurier University Canada The book is a welcome addition to discourses and analyses on education in sub Saharan Africa with reference to a postcolonial critique and the Millennium Development Goals framework on education in Africa Michael Tonderai Kariwo PhD Instructor and Research Fellow University of Alberta Canada

When Business Harms Human Rights Karen Erica Bravo,Jena Martin,Tara L. Van

Ho,2020-04-20 When Business Harms Human Rights uses reported narrations to discuss and analyze the experiences of individuals and communities from around the world and examines the impact that business activities has had on their lives The volume is situated within the broader subject area of business and human rights and uses various methodologies to share the perspectives of affected individuals and communities The narratives collected here follow rights holders in their attempts to secure remedies and examine the impact of the emerging legal regime of business and human rights

Remembering

Colonialism in Zimbabwe Ivan Marowa,Ushehwedu Kufakurinani,2023-12-14 This book examines the various ways in which colonialism in Zimbabwe is remembered looking both at how people analyse perceive and interpret the past and how they rewrite that past elevating some players and their historical agency Inspired by the ongoing movement on decoloniality this book examines the ways in which generations of today question and challenge colonialism s legacies and their role in Zimbabwe s collective memories and history The book analyses the memorialising of both Mugabe and Mnangagwa in their speeches and during the political transition before going on to trace the continuing impact of colonialism across areas as diverse as dress code place naming agriculture religion gender and in marginalised communities such as the BaKalanga Drawing on the expertise of Zimbabwean scholars this book will appeal to researchers of decolonisation and of African history and memory Membering the Rhodesian Linguistic Agenda in Zimbabwe Isaac Mhute,2023-07-28 Membering the Rhodesian Linguistic Agenda in Zimbabwe reports on a study carried out in Zimbabwe to ascertain the degree and effect of honouring the colonial linguistic agenda The book employs an interpretivist philosophy and qualitative research approach that relies on participatory observations interviewing purposively sampled informants and focus group discussions involving snowball sampled graduates It was inspired by the Critical Language Policy Theory that considers language choice a critical determinant factor in how communities are administered politically economically socioculturally and educationally It establishes that whereas linguistic imperialism meant to serve as the lifeblood of the Southern Rhodesian colonial machine the former coloniser ensured coloniality in Zimbabwe by presenting the English language as a sacred media in political economic sociocultural and educational settings forever The study establishes that the only way Zimbabwe and other such post colonies could find redemption is by eradicating the sacredness of former colonisers languages by adding value to all their languages and the indigenous knowledge systems associated with them It also demonstrates that the bigger the delay the more is irretrievably lost together with custodians of the languages This book will be informative for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in linguistics communication sociology anthropology and history It may also serve well as a resource to government researchers politicians and other policymakers The Death Penalty from an African Perspective Fainos Mangena,Jonathan O. Chimakonam,2018-01-15 This book is about an African philosophical examination of the death penalty debate In a 21st century world where the notion of human right is primed this book considers the question of the death penalty in two sub Saharan African countries namely Zimbabwe and Nigeria notorious for their poor human right records This edited collection comprises of 11 essays from Zimbabwean and Nigerian philosophers As opinions continue to divide over the retention or abolition of the death penalty these African philosophers attempt to localise this debate by raising the following questions What is the meaning of life in the African place Is it proper to take the human life under any guise at all Who has the right to take the human life Can the death penalty be jutified on the bases of African cultures Why should it be abolished Why should it be retained Indeed this book is the first of its kind to engage the tumultuous issue of capital punishment in the postcolonial Africa and from the African philosophical point of view Research Handbook on Leadership in Healthcare Naomi Chambers,2023-09-06 This timely Research Handbook provides a comprehensive and transdisciplinary overview of current research in the field of health leadership Emphasising diverse perspectives and under explored issues it calls for a sustainable future embracing social justice technological innovation and artificial intelligence patient centredness of care and the fair treatment of workers This title contains one or more Open Access chapters

Handbook of Research on Social, Cultural, and Educational Considerations of Indigenous Knowledge in Developing Countries Ngulube, Patrick, 2016-09-29 Knowledge systems are an essential aspect to the preservation of a community's culture. In developing countries, this community-based knowledge has significant influence on such things as decision making and problem solving. The Handbook of Research on Social Cultural and Educational Considerations of Indigenous Knowledge in Developing Countries is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on the importance of knowledge and value systems at the community level and ways indigenous people utilize this information. Highlighting impacts on culture and education in developing nations, this book is ideally designed for researchers, academicians, policy makers, students, and professionals interested in contemporary debates on indigenous knowledge systems. African Indigenous Knowledge and the Sciences

Gloria Emeagwali, Edward Shizha, 2016-07-08 This book is an intellectual journey into epistemology, pedagogy, physics, architecture, medicine, and metallurgy. The focus is on various dimensions of African Indigenous Knowledge (AIK) with an emphasis on the sciences, an area that has been neglected in AIK discourse. The authors provide diverse views and perspectives on African indigenous scientific and technological knowledge that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics, scholars, students, development agents, and policy makers in both governmental and non-governmental organizations and enable critical and alternative analyses and possibilities for understanding science and technology in an African historical and contemporary context. Violence, Peace and Everyday Modes of Justice and Healing in Post-Colonial Africa

Ngonidzashe Marongwe, Fideli Thomas, 2019-02-06 Violence in its various proportions, genres, and manifestations has had an enduring historical legacy the world over. However, works speaking to approaches aimed at mitigating violence characteristic of Africa are very limited. As some scholars have noted, Africans have experienced cycles of violence since the pre-colonial epoch such that overt violence has become banalised on the African continent. This has had the effect of generating complex results, legacies, and perennial emotional wounds that call for healing, reconciliation, justice, and positive peace. Yet in the absence of systematic and critical approaches to the study of violence on the continent, discourses on violence would hardly challenge the global matrices of violence that threaten peace and development in Africa. This volume is a contribution in the direction of such urgently needed systematic and critical approaches. It interrogates from different angles and with inspiration from a multidisciplinary perspective the contentious production and resilience of violence in Africa. It calls for a paradigm shift, an alternative approach that forges and merges African customary dispute resolution and Western systems of dispute resolution towards a framework of positive peace, holistic restoration, sustainable development, and equity. The book is a welcome contribution to students and practitioners in security studies, African studies, development studies, global studies, policy studies, and political science. These Bones Will Rise Again

Panashe Chigumadzi, 2018-06-14 What are the right questions to ask when seeking out the spirit of a nation? In November 2017, the people of Zimbabwe took to the streets in an unprecedented alliance with the military. Their goal: to restore the legacy of Chimurenga, the liberation struggle, and wrest their country back from more than 30 years of Robert Mugabe's rule. In an essay that combines bold reportage memoir and critical analysis Zimbabwean novelist and journalist Panashe Chigumadzi reflects on the coup that was not a coup the telling of history and manipulation of time and the ancestral spirits of two women her own grandmother and Mbuya Nehanda the grandmother of the nation

Women and Peacebuilding in Africa Anna Chitando, 2020-11-16 This volume re-centres African women scholars in the discourse on African women and peacebuilding combining theoretical reflections with case studies in a range of African countries The chapters outline the history of African women's engagement in peacebuilding introducing new and neglected themes such as youth disability and religious peacebuilding and laying the foundations for new theoretical insights Providing case studies from across Africa the contributors highlight the achievements and challenges characterising women's contributions to peacebuilding on the continent This book will be of interest to students and scholars of peacebuilding African security and gender

The Service Sector and Economic Development in Africa Evelyn F. Wamboye, Peter Nyaronga, 2018-09-04 The service sector accounts for a huge proportion of global employment and is the biggest driver of gross domestic product in developing nations Yet there has been little research uncovering its scope potential and implications on sustained and inclusive economic growth This is especially true for Africa which has seen a strong growth trajectory in recent years This book presents a new frontier of research offering insightful perspectives on the 21st century realities of the service sector and its effect on economic development in Africa The analysis presented here will be of relevance to academics and policymakers with an interest in Africa's role in the global economy
