What Is Morgan Zintec:

Distance Education for Teacher Training Hilary Perraton, 2002-03-11 Distance education combining the use of correspondence texts broadcasting and limited opportunities for face to face study has been used in at least a hundred teacher training programmes over the last 25 years Distance Education for Teacher Training is the first comparative review of the use of distance education and open learning for the training and upgrading of teachers The book contains case studies using a broadly common format both to describe and analyse distance teacher training programmes in eleven countries across five continents The case studies describe the methods used to examine how far the craft of teaching can be studied at a distance Using a standardised microeconomic framework they provide unique data on the comparative costs of training teachers by distance and conventional methods The authors then draw general conclusions about the advantages and drawbacks of using distance education or open learning about the conditions for success and about comparative effects and costs Distance Education for Teacher Training will be of value to all concerned with teacher education whether in developing or industrialised countries and to those working in and planning for distance education and open learning Mathematics Teacher Training and Development in Africa Kakoma Luneta, Marc Schäfer, 2024-10-09 This edited volume addresses the need for reforms in mathematics teacher training spurred by scientific advancements and societal changes encompassing calls for changes in curricula content and instructional methods The text highlights the complexities of teaching mathematics specifically within Africa It provides an exploration into how mathematics teacher training has evolved to address challenges such as ineffective teaching approaches lack of resources technological limitations and outdated training programs Through comprehensive systematic reviews for each country in the African region documentation is provided on the past present and envisioned future of teacher training programs This undertaking provides a detailed analysis of mathematics teacher training offering valuable insights for teacher trainers government ministries of education and stakeholders across Africa For anyone invested in enhancing mathematics education in the region this book offers indispensable guidance and knowledge

Centering on African Practice in Musical Arts Education Minette Mans, 2006 This collection brings together many African voices expressing their ideas and conceptions of musical practice and arts education in Africa With essays from established scholars in the field as well as young researchers and educators and topics ranging from philosophical arguments and ethno musicology to practical classroom ideas this book will stimulate academic discourse At the same time practical ideas and information will assist teachers and students in Africa and elsewhere bringing fresh musical perspectives on instrument playing singing children's literature and play Media and Technology in 21st Century Higher and Tertiary Education in Africa Costain Tandi, 2023-09-30 This book interrogates media and technology in the 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa Using Zimbabwe as its case study the book highlights the immense changes that the digital revolution has brought to higher institutions of learning in Africa including changes in teaching and learning Framed from an anti colonial perspective the book argues that digital change though critical in revolutionising education in Africa has come with a price as it has resulted in some epistemological erasures and injustices meted against the poor The book makes a critical contribution as it quests to correct the misdemeanours and injustices caused by digital gaps in African societies The authors argue that the future and success of digital technology in Africa lie in how well African countries will culturally and contextually sensor technology and attend to the problems caused by digital gaps The book provides a re invigorated overview and nuanced analyses of the role of media and technology in revolutionising 21st century higher and tertiary education in Africa It provides pointers and insights on how African countries can reformulate their education policy in a manner that is in sync with the level of digital technology of the time This is an important addition to critical debates on media and technology studies in education in Africa

library studies archives and records management and information systems Presents research aimed at harmonizing theory and practice of general information management paradigms Gives insight into the place of archives records management and information technology impacting socio economic value chains Disseminates theoretical and applied models and information management system architecture emerging from cloud computing and retrieval systems Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education Kgari-Masondo, Maserole Christina,2025-03-28 Literature indicates that sociolinguists and educationists often claim multilingual practice and Africanizing and Indigenizing education will jeopardize national unity and social cohesion Such claims delay the implementation of decolonization policies and the transformation of the curriculum under false assumptions However research reveals many Indigenous students struggle with higher educational content which is often presented through languages that are unfamiliar to them This implies that there is a need to uncover resources that can assist in necessitating the implementation of Indigenous education globally and that all multilingual strategies in education must be based on quality mother tongue illustrative content as its foundation As a result further research on the subject is necessary to enhance teaching strategies that reach all Indigenous students Indigenous Teaching Disciplines and Perspectives for Higher Education illustrates the need for the implementation of a decolonized teaching and learning curriculum with integrated resources as models It explores how to improve Indigenous knowledge content and teaching methods Covering topics such as cultural identity African research methodology and Indigenous media this book is an excellent resource for teachers policymakers school administrators researchers scholars academicians and more Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove,Geoff Harris,2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it From African Peer Review Mechanisms to African Queer Review Mechanisms? Nhemachena, Artwell,Warikandwa, Tapiwa Victor,2019-04-22

Tracing recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and onticology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a fa ade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy
