Africa's Development Impasse

Doctor Stefan Andreasson,2013-07-04 Orthodox strategies for socio economic development have failed spectacularly in Southern Africa Neither the developmental state nor neoliberal reform seems able to provide a solution to Africa s problems In Africa s Development Impasse Stefan Andreasson analyses this failure and explores the potential for post development alternatives Examining the post independence trajectories of Botswana Zimbabwe and South Africa the book shows three different examples of this failure to overcome a debilitating colonial legacy Andreasson then argues that it is now time to resuscitate post development theory s challenge to conventional development In doing this he claims we face the enormous challenge of translating post development into actual politics for a socially and politically sustainable future and using it as a dialogue about what the aims and aspirations of post colonial societies might become This important fusion of theory with empirical case studies will be essential reading for students of development politics and Africa The Sociology of War and Violence

Siniša Malešević,2010-06-10 War is a highly complex and dynamic form of social conflict This book demonstrates the importance of using sociological tools to understand the changing character of war and organised violence The author offers an original analysis of the historical and contemporary impact that coercion and warfare have on the transformation of social life and vice versa Although war and violence were decisive components in the formation of modernity most analyses tend to shy away from the sociological study of the gory origins of contemporary social life In contrast this book brings the study of organised violence to the fore by providing a wide ranging sociological analysis that links classical and contemporary theories with specific historical and geographical contexts Topics covered include violence before modernity warfare in the modern age nationalism and war war propaganda battlefield solidarity war and social stratification gender and organised violence and the new wars debate THE 19TH CENTURY NARAYAN CHANGDER,2024-06-07 If you need a free PDF

Expanding Boundaries Jussi P. Laine,Inocent Moyo,Christopher Changwe Nshimbi,2020-12-27 This book challenges the common European notions about African migration to Europe and offers a holistic understanding of the current situation in

Africa It advocates a need to rethink Africa Europe relations and view migration and borders as a resource rather than sources of a crisis Migrant movement from Africa is often misunderstood and misrepresented as invasion caused by displacement due to poverty violent conflict and environmental stress To control this movement and preserve national identities the EU and its various member states resort to closing borders as a way of reinforcing their migration policies This book aims to dismantle this stereotypical view of migration from Africa by sharing cutting edge research from the leading scholars in Africa and Europe It refutes the flawed narratives that position Africa as a threat to the European societies their economies and security and encourages a nuanced understanding of the root causes as well as the socioeconomic factors that guide the migrants decision making With chapters written in a concise style this book brings together the migration and border studies in an innovative way to delve into the broader societal impacts of both It also serves to de silence the African voices in order to offer fresh insights on African migration a discourse dominated hitherto by the European perspective This book constitutes a valuable resource for research scholars and students of Border Studies Migration Studies Conflict and Security Studies and Development Studies seeking specialisation in these areas Written in an accessible style it will also appeal to a more general public interested in gaining a fuller perspective on the African reality Chapter 13 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
