The Fat of the Land Thomas Michael Gorman, 2018-11-20 It is 1957 as a man and his sons cast their fishing lines into the water Twelve years ago while living in a dark post war world the man never would have guessed that he would be in Florida with money in his pockets his two sons by his side and a wife and daughter waiting for them in a rented cottage After their Uncle Matthew spontaneously visits their family history is slowly revealed as four characters confront war and plague as well as their own personal triumphs and tragedies As their environment is fueled by the great technological advances of the era their optimism for the future is eventually struck down by financial disaster leaving only a few survivors The cultural and economic issues of their day will be familiar immigration women s rights economic policies and racism These internal conflicts would over shadow a valuable lesson The world does not begin or end at the nation s shores Year-book of Facts in Science and the Arts, 1859 Year-book of Facts in Science and the Arts Charles W. surveillance and outright policing by the media health professionals and the general public are pervasive and socially accepted In Neoliberal Bodies and the Gendered Fat Body Hannele Harjunen claims that neoliberal economic policy and rationale are enmeshed with conceptions of body gender and health in a profound way in contemporary western culture She explores the relationships between fatness health and neoliberal discourse and the role of economic policy in the construction of the gendered fat body and examines how neoliberal discourses join patriarchal and biomedical constructions of the fat female body In neoliberal culture the fat body is not just the unhealthy body one finds in medical discourse but also the body that is costly unproductive and inefficient failing in the crucial task of self management With an emphasis on how neoliberal governmentality in its many forms affects the fat body and contributes to its vilification this book is essential reading for scholars of feminist thought sociology cultural studies and social theory with interests in the body gender and the effects of neoliberal discourse on social attitudes
