Advertising to Children M. Carole Macklin, Les Carlson, 1999-07-16 Children represent a valuable target audience for advertisers with over 200 billion in direct purchases and influenced spending However questions exist about both the effectiveness of marketing to children as well as the impact this advertising has on the children themselves Current debates over smoking and alcohol consumption highlight this issue from all perspectives marketers parents and policymakers Advertising to Children presents cutting edge research designed to stimulate and inform this debate Well known authors contribute their perspectives with chapters organized in sections to address what children know and think about advertising how advertising works with children and what issues are at the forefront of societal and public policy thinking Editors M Carole Macklin and Les Carlson have lead research in this field and lend their expertise More than just a litany of hot topics this book provides a wide angle lens on the field with insights from advertising marketing communication and psychology

Advertising and Promotion Chris Hackley, Rungpaka Amy Hackley, 2014-11-10 This textbook introduces the key concepts methods and issues within advertising and promotion for students taking courses on the subject at universities and colleges It offers first hand examples gathered from leading international advertising agencies and brand campaigns and it is told from the perspective of the agency to give a fun and creative insider view which helps the reader to think beyond the client position and understand what it might be like working within an ad agency The authors draw not only from management and marketing research but also from other disciplines such as cultural media studies and sociology to offer a rounded and critical perspective on the subject for those looking to achieve high grades and understand advertising as social phenomenon in addition to its business function and purpose New to the third edition chapter on strategy and creativity additional case studies with increased global coverage including emerging markets images of classic and recent ads from the street print online and television increased coverage of the internet social media and their effects on advertising companion website materials including relevant videos journal articles and a Jeopardy style game for the classroom The textbook is now also supported by a new author written blog which keeps readers updated on interesting topical examples relating to advertising and promotion from current affairs and popular culture www.hackleyadvertisingandpromotion.blogspot.com

ADVERTISING COMMUNICATION Concepts & Theory Dr. Kiran. G, Ragesh.TS., Dr. Appasaba.L.V, Advertising and Promotion Dr. Chris Hackley, 2005-01-26 A readable and absorbing account of what advertising people try to achieve whether or not they know quite how or why grounded in Chris Hackley's real and recent acquaintance with the practicalities of advertising as well as its principles He minimises the inevitable jargon of linguistics and communication theory His own language is always accurate and clear and often engaging The well managed flow from chapter to chapter sustains interest and enjoyment I read the book from cover to cover in one sitting INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF ADVERTISING Professor Hackley's book provides a timely reminder to student and practitioner alike that advertising continues to play a key role in the successful planning and implementation of marketing communications Underpinned by a series of topical and often thought provoking illustrations this work not only explains how advertising is developed but also presents the discipline in the wider context of socio cultural and linguistic research Working from a practical advertising management basis the text raises some key issues for advertising as focus for academic and intellectual study Chris Blackburn The Business School Oxford Brookes University formerly Account Director at Foote Cone the book also explains how advertising comes to cast its all enveloping shadow over contemporary consumer culture Many case examples drawn from major international campaigns are used to illustrate the power of advertising to portray brand personalities in terms that resonate with consumers across many cultures It contains detailed coverage of the major areas of advertising and marketing communications but it is not a simplistic treatment Advertising and Promotion takes a novel intellectual approach and draws on concepts from the wider humanities and social sciences to cast fresh light on an over familiar subject matter It uniquely combines detailed case information current research and lively topical issues to offer an authoritative and comprehensive account of advertising s pre eminent role in contemporary marketing communications It is an advanced student text a reflective practitioner s handbook and an insightful account for the general reader

Decoding Advertisements Judith Williamson, 1978 A fascinating account of how the admen achieve their effects Stuart Hood This book sets out not simply to criticize advertisements on the grounds of dishonesty and exploitation but to examine in detail through over a hundred illustrations their undoubted attractiveness and appeal The overt economic function of this appeal is to make us buy things Its ideological function however is to involve us as individuals in perpetuating the ideas which endorse the economic basis of our society If it is economic conditions which make ideology necessary it is ideology which makes those conditions seem necessary If society is to be changed this vicious circle of necessity and ideas must be broken Decoding Advertisements is an attempt to undo one link in the chain which we ourselves help to forge in our acceptance not only of the images and values of advertising but of the transparent forms and structures in which they are embodied It provides not an answer but a set of tools which we can use to alter our own perceptions of one of society s subtlest and most complex forms of propaganda Other books by Judith Williamson published by Marion Boyars are Consuming Passions the Dynamics of Popular Culture and Deadline at Dawn Film Criticism 1980 1990

Advertising Liz McFall, 2004-02-18 Advertising is often used to illustrate popular and academic debates about cultural and economic life This book reviews cultural and sociological approaches to advertising and using historical evidence demonstrates that a rethink of the analysis of advertising is long overdue Liz McFall surveys dominant and problematic tendencies within the current discourse This book offers a thorough review of the literature and also introduces fresh empirical evidence Advertising A Cultural Economy uses a historical study of advertising to regain a sense of how it has been patterned not by the epoch but by the interaction of institutional organisational and technological forces
