A Consuming Passion Christopher M. Date, Ron Highfield, 2015-10-13 This diverse collection of essays in honor of Edward William Fudge explores the topics of hell and immortality for which Fudge has been widely known through his magnum opus The Fire That Consumes Most Christians believe people will live and suffer in hell forever but Fudge defends a view known historically as conditional immortality He and a growing minority of Christians believe God will grant immortality only to those who meet the condition of being united with Christ on the Last Day while those who do not will perish forever Although Christians sharing Fudge's view have defended it both before and after him conditionalists today still point to The Fire That Consumes as the seminal treatment of the topic In July 2014 Christians from around the world gathered at the inaugural Rethinking Hell conference to celebrate Fudge's life and work and to discuss the nature of hell in an open and respectful forum This volume contains most of the essays presented at that conference and several others volunteered by conditionalists since then as a gift to Fudge for the tremendous impact he has had on them and for the continued work he does for God's kingdom Team Up!
