Religion Yoshiko Ashiwa, David L. Wank, 2023-08-29 Finalist 2024 Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion in Analytical Descriptive Studies American Academy of Religion Honorable Mention 2024 Francis H K Hsu Book Prize Society for East Asian Anthropology The Nanputuo Temple in the southeastern Chinese city of Xiamen has been a cherished site for the worship of the bodhisattva Guanyin for centuries It was a center of modernizing Buddhism in the early twentieth century and a flagship for the revival of Buddhism after state suppression during the Cultural Revolution The Space of Religion takes readers inside the Nanputuo Temple in order to explore the practice of Buddhism in modern China and the complex relationship between Buddhism and the Chinese state Based on three decades of ethnographic research Yoshiko Ashiwa and David L Wank tell the story of Nanputuo against the backdrop of a dramatic stretch of Chinese history They vividly depict episodes such as renovating the halls reestablishing ties with overseas Chinese donors conflicts with local government revival of ritual life reopening of its Buddhist academy and the passion of the Guanyin birthday festival To understand Nanputuo Buddhist communities and other temples in Xiamen Ashiwa and Wank develop the concept of religion as a space constituted by physical semiotic and institutional dimensions They also show how the Chinese state and Buddhism have each adapted to the other as the temple has adjusted to government policy while the state has deployed Buddhism in its promotion of Chinese culture This interdisciplinary book is both a theoretically generative analysis of religious spaces and an empirically rich account of the recovery of Buddhism in China after the Mao era Freeing the Heart and Mind Sakya Trizin, 2011-05-01 His Holiness Sakya Trizin the head of the glorious Sakya lineage one of the four primary schools of Tibetan

Buddhism presents here the essential Buddhist teachings of the four noble truths universal compassion and the proper motivation for practice This book opens by sharing a private teaching His Holiness gave to a young newcomer seeking to understand this great master s spiritual heritage His Holiness s advice inspires us to integrate the living power of these teachings into our daily lives Full of timeless wisdom Freeing the Heart and Mind contains in addition to this introduction an explanation of the teaching Matchless Compassion by the Indian saint Virupa and a selection of commentaries on the essential teaching called Parting from the Four Attachments Developed as the first volume in a course of study for students of the Sakya tradition it nonetheless stands alone as an excellent entry into the teachings of the Buddha Freeing the Heart and Mind includes a full color photo insert of Sakya lineage masters The Psychology of Sociability Joseph P. Forgas,William Crano,Klaus Fiedler,2022-06-01 This edited volume brings together the latest research in understanding the nature origins and evolution of human sociability one of the most intriguing aspects of human psychology Sociability our sophisticated ability to interact with others imagine plan and execute interdependent behaviours lies at the heart of our evolutionary success and is the most important prerequisite for the development of increasingly elaborate civilizations With contributions from internationally renowned researchers in areas of social psychology as well as anthropology and evolutionary psychology this book demonstrates the role of social psychology in explaining how human sociability evolved how it shapes our mental and emotional lives and how it influences both large scale civilizational practices and intimate interpersonal relations Chapters cover the core psychological characteristics that shape human sociability including such phenomena as the role of information exchange affective processes social norms power relations personal relationships attachment patterns personality characteristics and evolutionary pressures Featuring a wide variety of empirical and theoretical backgrounds the book will be of interest to students and researchers in all areas of the social sciences as well as practitioners and applied professionals who deal with issues related to sociability in their daily lives Tricycle ,2007 A Buddha Land in This World Lajos Brons,2022 In the early twentieth century Uchiyama Gud Seno o Gir Lin Qiuwu and others advocated a Buddhism that was radical in two respects Firstly they adopted a more or less naturalist stance with respect to Buddhist doctrine and related matters rejecting karma or other supernatural beliefs And secondly they held political and economic views that were radically anti hegemonic anti capitalist and revolutionary Taking the idea of such a radical Buddhism seriously A Buddha Land in This World Philosophy Utopia and Radical Buddhism asks whether it is possible to develop a philosophy that is simultaneously naturalist anti capitalist Buddhist and consistent Rather than a study of radical Buddhism then this book is an attempt to radicalize it The foundations of this radicalized radical Buddhism are provided by a realist interpretation of Yog c ra elucidated and elaborated with some help from thinkers in the broader Tiantai Tendai tradition and American philosophers Donald Davidson and W V O Quine A key implication of this foundation is that only this world and only this life are real from which it follows that if Buddhism aims to alleviate suffering it has to do so in this world and in this life Twentieth century radical Buddhists as well as some engaged Buddhists came to a similar conclusion often expressed in their aim to realize a Buddha land in this world Building on this foundation but also on Mah y na moral philosophy this book argues for an ethics and social philosophy based on a definition of evil as that what is or should be expected to cause death or suffering On that ground capitalism should be rejected indeed but utopianism must be treated with caution as well which raises questions about what it means from a radicalized radical Buddhist perspective to aim for a Buddha land in this world Lajos Brons is a Dutch philosopher and social scientist living in Japan After receiving a PhD from the University of Groningen in the Netherlands for a dissertation on an aspect of the history and philosophy of the social sciences he gradually moved further and further into philosophical territory Currently Lajos is teaching logic ethics and philosophy at a university in Tokyo His research interests are divided over two broad areas in philosophy one is in the overlap of meta ethics and social political philosophy the other is in the intersection of philosophy of language metaphysics and epistemology Research in the former focuses on the relations between death suffering and compassion Research in the latter concerns the relations between language thought and reality and is heavily influenced by the philosophies of Donald Davidson and W V O Quine and by Buddhist philosophy More information about publications and research interests as well as Lajos s blog can be found at www.lajosbrons.net
