Change Management in TVET Colleges Kraak, Andre, Paterson, Andrew, 2016-07-25 The Technical and Vocational Education and Training TVET college environment is marked by increasingly stark juxtapositions between what needs to be achieved in the post school education sector and the increasing difficulty of current conditions The triple challenge of poverty inequality and unemployment weighs heavily on the social political and economic fabric of the country and expectations are high that the TVET colleges can make a pivotal contribution to counter these challenges Despite laudable increases in TVET enrolment the education system needs to work harder to accommodate the weight of demand for post school further education and training FET band qualifications from young people not in education employment or training At the same time it is vital to secure adequate quality in TVET programmes which depend so much on the competence and commitment of college lecturers This collection offers a set of research papers that provide new analytic and empirical material on The political economy of TVET types in different countries which by comparison illuminate the South African case A periodisation of government interventions in the TVET sector over the last three decades The unsettled state and status of TVET lecturers in relation to their job requirements and conditions of service The halting evolution of collegial relationships between college lecturers towards higher collegiality Employer expectations of college graduates and how colleges are responding and An analysis of the outcomes of a college improvement intervention in Limpopo and the Eastern Cape This book will offer valuable information and insights for decision makers as well as analysts of institutional change concerning links between education and economic growth with particular regard to TVET graduates employment rates Commerce America

,1978-02-27 Discourses We Live By: Narratives of Educational and Social Endeavour Hazel R. Wright, Marianne Høyen, 2020-07-03 What are the influences that govern how people view their worlds What are the embedded values and practices that underpin the ways people think and act Discourses We Live By approaches these questions through narrative research in a process that uses words images activities or artefacts to ask people either individually or collectively within social groupings to examine discuss portray or otherwise make public their place in the world their sense of belonging to and identity within the physical and cultural space they inhabit This book is a rich and multifaceted collection of twenty eight chapters that use varied lenses to examine the discourses that shape people's lives The contributors are themselves from many backgrounds different academic disciplines within the humanities and social sciences diverse professional practices and a range of countries and cultures They represent a broad spectrum of age status and outlook and variously apply their research methods but share a common interest in people their lives thoughts and actions Gathering such eclectic experiences as those of student teachers in Kenya a released prisoner in Denmark academics in Colombia a group of migrants learning English and gambling addiction support workers in Italy alongside more mainstream educational themes the book presents a fascinating array of insights Discourses We Live By will be essential reading for adult educators and practitioners those involved with educational and professional practice narrative researchers and many sociologists It will appeal to all who want to know how narratives shape the way we live and the way we talk about our lives Global Versus Local Perspectives on Finance and Accounting David Procházka, 2019-02-28 This proceedings volume examines accounting and financial issues and trends from both global and local economic perspectives Featuring selected contributions presented at the 19th Annual Conference on Finance and Accounting ACFA held in Prague Czech Republic this book offers a mixture of research methods and micro and macroeconomic approaches to depict a detailed picture of the impact of global and local determinants on the globalized economy The global perspectives versus local specifics make the volume useful for not only academics and scholars but also for regulators and policy makers when deliberating the potential outcome of competing regulatory mechanisms The Annual Conference on Finance and Accounting ACFA has become one of the biggest conferences in the Central and Eastern European CEE region solely oriented to contemporary research in finance and accounting Bringing together researchers and scholars from all over the world the conference provides a platform in which thoughts visions and contemporary developments in the field of finance and accounting are discussed Being a Teacher in Post-Apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Marcina Singh, 2025-05-01 In a compelling exploration of the challenges faced by newly qualified teachers NQTs in South Africa s evolving educational landscape this book provides an empirically grounded account of their experiences Drawing on extensive research it offers a poignant narrative that seeks to illuminate the nuanced journey these educators embark upon as they transition from teacher education spaces to the complex reality of classrooms in post Apartheid South Africa The book acts as a crucial platform for the voices of NQTs shedding light on the myriad enablers and disablers they encounter during this transformative period Timely and relevant it tackles pressing questions about the readiness of teacher education to prepare students for the demands of South African schools The book charts the transition from teacher education to active teacher for NQTs The lessons distilled from this research present a clarion call for a re assessment of teacher education policies and practices This book arrives at a pivotal moment as South Africa reviews its teacher education policies With the quality of initial teacher education programmes under scrutiny the book s critiques findings and recommendations serve as indispensable tools for policymakers arguing for the need to reconceptualise South African teacher education policies As South Africa strives to avoid a cycle of developing new teachers only to lose them due to inadequate support this book seeks to support educators policymakers and all those invested in the future of South African education toward creating a more socially just education system recognising the highly unequal society in which teachers work Daily Graphic I.K.
