When I Was Young And Other Reflections English Edition:

Aids to Reflection, and The Confessions of an Inquiring Spirit Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1884 Adelaide and Theodore Gillian Dow, 2016-06-16 Some of the theories Genlis adopts in the education of the eponymous children have their roots in Rousseau's Emile. However, Genlis herself suggested that Rousseau knew little of the practical education of children. This work is placed within the context of the late eighteenth century debate on female education. Dictionary of Anonymous and Pseudonymous English Literature Samuel Halkett, 1971 Dictionary of Anonymous and Pseudonymous English Literature: Q-S Samuel Halkett, John Laing, 1929 Critical Reflection in Health and Social Care Sue White, Jan Fook, Fiona Gardner, 2006-07-16 the book makes an excellent contribution to the library of those keen to delve further into the realm of critical reflection, understand various interpretations of interdisciplinary practices and use these to aid their own and others' professional practice exploration and development. Learning in Health and Social Care How can professionals reflect critically on the aspects of their work they take for granted? How can professionals practise with creativity, intelligence and compassion? What current methods and frameworks are available to assist professionals to reflect critically on their practice? The use of critical reflection in professional practice is becoming increasingly popular across the health professions as a way of ensuring ongoing scrutiny and improved concrete practice skills transferable across a variety of settings in the health, social care and social work fields. This book showcases current work within the field of critical reflection throughout the world and across disciplines in health and social care as well as analyzing the literature in the field. Critical Reflection in Health and Social Care reflects the transformative potential of critical reflection and provides practitioners, students, educators and researchers with the key concepts and methods necessary to improve practice through effective critical reflection. Contributors: Gurid Aga Askeland, Andy Bilson, Fran Crawford, Jan Fook, Lynn Froggett, Sue Frost, Fiona Gardner, Jennifer Lehmann, Marceline Naudi, Bairbre Redmond, Gerhard Reimann, Colin Stuart, Pauline Sung, Chan Carolyn Taylor, Susan White, Elizabeth Whitmore, Angelina Yuen Tsang. Medical notes and reflections Sir Henry Holland, 1857 Is the Glass Half Empty or Half Full? Reflections on Translation Theory and Practice in Brazil Alice Leal, 2014-06-03 This book offers an unprecedented look into the field of translation studies in Brazil, placing emphasis both on the conflict theory vs practice and on the reception of poststructuralist thought. The implied debate between the voices heard in the book represents a wide-ranging spectrum of viewpoints not only in TS in Brazil but also in the humanities in general. Addressing issues such as the institutionalisation of translation, the aim of translation theory and translator training, the impact of poststructuralist thought on TS and the role of multilingualism in the area, this work offers an overview of the field of TS today while proposing new strategies for translators and translation scholars that go beyond the conflicts between theory and practice and between structuralism and poststructuralism. British Museum Catalogue of printed Books, 1886 Wordplay and Metalinguistic / Metadiscursive Reflection Angelika Zirker, Esme Winter-Froemel, 2015-10-16

Wordplay can be seen as a genuine interface phenomenon. It can be found both in everyday communication and in literary texts and it can fulfil a range of functions: it may be entertaining and comical; it may be used to conceal taboo and it may influence the way in which the speaker's character is perceived. Moreover, wordplay also reflects on language and communication: it reveals surprising alternative readings and emphasizes the phonetic similarity of linguistic signs that also points towards relations on the level of content. Wordplay unravels characteristics of literary language in everyday communication and opens up the possibility to analyze literary texts from a linguistic perspective. The first two volumes of the series The Dynamics of Wordplay therefore aim at bringing together contributions from linguistics and literary studies focusing on theoretical issues such as basic techniques of wordplay and its relationship to genres and discourse traditions. These issues are complemented by a series of case studies on the use of wordplay in individual authors and specific historical contexts. The contributions offer a fresh look on the multifaceted dynamics of wordplay in different communicative settings.

George Moore Mary Pierse, 2009-01-23 The Irish writer George Moore 1852-1933 was a very significant and often controversial figure on the literary stages of Paris, London and Dublin at a key cultural moment. Between 1880 and 1931 his creative involvements included spells with literary theatres in London and Dublin, jousts with the daring and repression of the fin de siècle and a hail and farewell to Yeats and the Irish Revival. This collection of essays offers fresh insights into diverse elements of his œuvre and reflects some of the wide variety in Moore's literary innovations, influences and legacy. Contributors note his pioneering contributions to the short story, his penetrating insights into Greek classical literature, his avant-garde feminism and egalitarianism and what may surprise 21st-century readers of biblical theme blockbusters: his sensitive but contentious novelistic treatment of the historical Jesus. In this volume there are studies of sophisticated composition and fresh approaches to textual analysis. The multiple Moore talents are scrutinised, myths are dispelled and new evidence is uncovered for historic linkages. George Moore's anticipation of Freudian psychological insights and his engagement with Darwinian theses are but two of his close involvements with key nineteenth-century figures. Manet, Degas, Parnell, Kant, Maupassant, Gladstone, Zola, Marx and Woolf must feature on the list of names that are inseparable from Moore's life and work. Yeats and Joyce also loom large and their under-acknowledged indebtedness to Moore poses difficult questions for literary history. While Moore's own debt to French artistic influences, English models and Irish heritage has long been recognised, perceptions of Moore's writing from outside the Anglophone world highlight issues that demand further consideration. This multi-faceted author is well served by these new studies that in turn suggest additional avenues yet to be explored.

Creolizing Sartre T. Storm Heter, Kris F. Sealey, 2023-12-06 Jean-Paul Sartre's work has been taken up by writers outside of Europe, particularly in the Global South, who have developed phenomenological and existential analyses of racism, colonialism and other structures of domination. Sartre's philosophical concepts are fundamentally open for instance his notions of humanism, bad faith and freedom. As a situational committed thinker, Sartre worked to illuminate the urgent questions of his time at the concrete and the abstract level The creolization of Sartrean thinking is consistent with the existential projects of engagement authenticity political commitment and liberation from oppression This volume asks how his European model of phenomenology was and can be transformed when it is taken up by thinkers who have lived experience with colonialism They book also engages Sartre in his relation to key interlocutors especially Beauvoir and Fanon who were influenced by him and who influenced him in turn The book demonstrates how Sartrean philosophy is productively related to Africana philosophy Africana phenomenology and Africana existentialism This volume treats creolization not as a discrete topic but as an interdisciplinary global approach to reading and thinking Each author s contribution embodies an aspect of creolizing thinking understood as the articulation of cultural and conceptual hybridity under conditions of eurocentrism epistemic colonialism and the legacies of slavery Creolizing Sartre re reads Sartrean texts to recast existential themes through the lens of Caribbean philosophies and the broader philosophies of the Global South Contributors Lawrence Bamikole Sybil Newton Cooksey James Haile III Paget Henry T Storm Heter Thomas Meagher Michael J Monahan Anthony Sean Neal Nathalie Nya Kris F Sealey Hiroaki Seki Jonathan Webber Japanese Reflections on World War II and the American Occupation Edgar Porter,Ran Ying Porter,2025-10-01 This book presents an unforgettable up close account of the effects of World War II and the subsequent American occupation on Oita prefecture through firsthand accounts from more than forty Japanese men and women who lived there The interviewees include students housewives nurses midwives teachers journalists soldiers sailors Kamikaze pilots and munitions factory workers Their stories range from early spirited support for the war through the devastating losses of friends and family members to air raids and into periods of hunger and fear of the American occupiers The personal accounts are buttressed by archival materials the result is an unprecedented picture of the war as experienced in a single region of Japan Aids to Reflection ... Samuel Taylor Coleridge,1847
