Mask in the Mirror Nidhi Chawla,2010-04 The process of weaving a fictional dream can be painful and also joyful path to self discovery realizes an ordinary man when he sits down to reveal his thoughts and bring to life characters whose lives would confront and impact his heart and mind As the people of the imaginary world open the Writer s eyes to his own soul he relishes his intimate sentiments and sees the color of his emotions Caught in an imaginary fabrication where at times he basks in the beauty of creation and at moments he suffers its loneliness There is transformation and simultaneous transition during these years of writing the beginning commences in the cold winter and rejuvenating spring comes in the end But the big question is will the Writer and his realm of fiction survive or both perish without the world ever reading his words and recognizing his worth Mask in the Mirror is a gripping story of self discovery introspection and a touching saga of how fictional life can change the real life of an ordinary man

The Love That Matters Charles H. Featherstone,2015-01-01 A blond haired blue eyed Lutheran man is approached on the streets of Chicago by members of the Latin Kings so he may teach them how to pray and he does so with grace this man s story one suspects isn t going to be a typical one Life has not been easy for Charles Featherstone From being bullied by peers and teachers in school to his refusing to become a bully himself by leaving the armed services to wandering the world in search of work and finding unexpected hospitality as an outsider nearly everywhere to witnessing the 9 11 attacks from his nearby office Featherstone s story is a tale of survival akin to Jacob s wrestling the angel at the River Jabbok It may well leave the reader limping a bit too for the encounter with God found in these pages is stark and startling Truly God s love knows no bounds and cannot be captured by labels but as Featherstone s life attests that love just might capture you
