When One Has Lived A Long Time Alone Galway Kinnell

David Lehman, Harold Bloom

When One Has Lived A Long Time Alone Galway Kinnell:

When One Has Lived a Long Time Alone Galway Kinnell, 2013-03-06 From the National Book Award and the Pulitzer Prize winning poet a collection of poems ranging from melancholy meditations of a solitary mind concerning estrangement and the longing for reconnection to the natural world and its creatures closely observed When One Has Lived a Long Time Alone is a poem that invites us too to pay such keen attention both by seeing and listening to the world while also paying respect to our own inner lives our feelings of solitude or self estrangement our longings and obligations to each other

Jennifer Grotz The Best of the Best American Poetry David Lehman, Harold Bloom, 1998-04-02 Every year since 1988 a major poet has selected seventy five poems for publication in The Best American Poetry The series has quickly grown in both sales and prestige as poetry itself has seen a remarkable resurgence in popularity and vitality fueled by established poets at the peak of their powers and a new generation of daring voices As we approach the millennium now is the opportune moment to take stock of american poetry and choose the work that will stand the test of time Harold Bloom a commanding presence on the American literary state has read all 750 poems in the series and has picked the best of the best He precedes his selections with a compelling and highly provocative essay on the state of American letters in which he fiercely champions the endangered realm of the aesthetic over the politically correct Diverse in style method and metaphor the seventy five poems Bloom has chosen go a long way toward defining a contemporary canon of American poetry This exciting volume reflects not only the taste of the current editor but the predilections of the all star list of poets who have contributed their time and intellect to make this series what is today a valuable invaluable supervaluable Beloit Poetry Journal record of an ever changing always exciting art

Collected Poems Galway Kinnell, 2017-12-05 The essential collection by the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winner who was one of the true master poets of his generation The New York Times In the words of Galway Kinnell it is the poet s job to figure out what s happening within oneself to figure out the connection between the self and the world and to get it down in words that have a lasting shape that have a chance of lasting With this deeply probing and restlessly curious sensibility Kinnell spend decades producing some of American poetry s most beloved and revered works This comprehensive volume includes Kinnell s expansive poem of immigrant life on the Lower East Side of New York The Avenue Bearing the Initial of Christ into the New World his incantatory book length poem The Book of Nightmares and a searing evocation of Hiroshima in The Fundamental Project of Technology It covers the iconic themes of Kinnell s middle years eros family and the natural world in works such as After Making Love We Hear Footsteps The Bear Saint Francis and the Sow and Blackberry Eating And includes the unflinchingly introspective work of his later years Spanning six decades this is the essential collection for old and new devotees of Galway Kinnell a poet of the rarest ability who can flesh out music raise the spirits and break the heart Boston Globe
