Screen World Presents the Encyclopedia of Hollywood Film Actors: From the silent era to 1965 Barry Monush, 2003

Applause Books For decades Screen World has been the film professional's as well as the film buff's favorite and indispensable annual screen resource full of all the necessary statistics and facts Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library In the first of two volumes this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars Chaplin Pickford Fairbanks to the mid 1960s when the old studio and star systems came crashing down Each listing includes a brief biography photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots vital statistics a comprehensive filmography and an informed entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions good or bad In addition to every major player Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear The result is a rarity an invaluable reference tool that's as much fun to read as a scandal sheet It pulsates with all the scandal glamour oddity and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects Contains over 1 000 photos

The Hotel Robert A. Davidson, 2018-11-05 The Hotel Occupied Space explores the hotel as both symbol and space through the concept of occupancy By examining the various ways in which the hotel is manifested in art photography and film this book offers a timely critique of a crucial modern space As a site of occupancy the hotel has provided continued creative inspiration for artists from Monet and Hopper to genre filmmakers like Hitchcock and Sofia Coppola While the rich symbolic importance of the hotel means that the visual arts and cinema are especially fruitful the hotel's varied structural purposes as well as its historical and political uses also provide ample ground for new and timely discussion In addition to inspiring painters photographers and filmmakers the hotel has played an important role during wartime and more recently as a site of accommodation for displaced people whether they be detainees or refugees seeking sanctuary Shedding light on the diverse ways that the hotel functions as a structure Robert A Davidson argues that the hotel is both a fundamental modern space and a constantly adaptable structure dependent on the circumstances in which it appears and plays a part In a Lonely Street Frank Krutnik, 2006-10-19 Taking issue with many orthodox views of Film Noir Frank Krutnik argues for a reorientation of this compulsively engaging area of Hollywood cultural production Krutnik recasts the films within a generic framework and draws on recent historical and theoretical research to examine both the diversity of film noir and its significance within American popular culture of the 1940s He considers classical Hollywood cinema debates on genre and the history of the emergence of character in film noir focusing on the hard boiled crime fiction of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler and James M Cain as well as the popularisation of Freudian psychoanalysis and the social and cultural upheavals of the 1940s The core of this book however concerns the complex representation of masculinity in the noir tough thriller and where and how gender interlocks with questions of genre Analysing in detail major thrillers like The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Out of the Past and The Killers alongside lesser known but nonetheless crucial films as Stranger on the Third Floor Pitfall and Dead Reckoning Krutnik has produced a provocative and highly readable study of one of Hollywood's most perennially fascinating groups of films Making Meaning in Popular Romance Fiction Jayashree Kamblé, 2014-08-07 Despite pioneering studies the term romance novel itself has not been subjected to scrutiny This book examines mass market romance fiction in the U K Canada and the U S through four categories capitalism war heterosexuality and white

Protestantism and casts a fresh light on the genre     Siren City Robert Miklitsch,2011-02-01 Hailed for its dramatic expressionist visuals film noir is one of the most prominent genres in Hollywood cinema Yet despite the boom in sound studies the role of sonic effects and source music in classic American noir has not received the attention it deserves Siren City engagingly illustrates how sound tracks in 1940s film noir are often just as compelling as the genre's vaunted graphics Focusing on a wide range of celebrated and less well known films and offering an introductory discussion of film sound Robert Miklitsch mobilizes the notion of audiovisuality to investigate period sound technologies such as the radio and jukebox phonograph and Dictaphone popular American music such as hot black jazz and big numbers featuring iconic performers such as Lauren Bacall Veronica Lake and Rita Hayworth Siren City resonates with the sounds and source music of classic American noir gunshots and sirens swing riffs and canaries Along with the proverbial private eye and femme fatale these audiovisuals are central to the noir aesthetic and one important reason the genre reverberates with audiences around the world
