Pandemics Lindy Heineken, Christian Leuprecht, 2025-07-24 This open access book provides a comparative analysis of the deployment of the military in domestic operations the use of the armed forces during the COVID 19 pandemic and the impact of that deployment on civil military relations in 26 countries worldwide The book examines the legal and constitutional regulations under which the military can serve in domestic roles and the extent of domestic deployment before the COVID 19 pandemic It focuses on the roles in which the military served during the pandemic the resources available and the readiness and effectiveness of the military response The volume addresses whether or not the pandemic response was securitized the extent of civilian oversight and control the accountability measures in place and the impact of the COVID 19 deployment on the military's image The volume captures the lessons learnt from the COVID 19 deployment and the implications for future force design structure and organizational transformation Since almost all countries used their military in some capacity to respond to the COVID 19 pandemic this volume offers an opportunity to compare use of the armed forces to provide domestic humanitarian assistance and disaster response Reforming Civil-Military Relations in New Democracies Aurel

Croissant, David Kuehn, 2017-03-20 This book addresses the challenge of reforming defense and military policy making in newly democratized nations By tracing the development of civil military relations in various new democracies from a comparative perspective it links two bodies of scholarship that thus far have remained largely separate the study of emerging or failed civilian control over armed forces on the one hand and work on the roots and causes of military effectiveness to guarantee the protection and security of citizens on the other The empirical and theoretical findings presented here will appeal to scholars of civil military relations democratization and security issues as well as to defense policy makers The Economics of Defense Industry Thomas-Durell Young, 2023-10-17 This book on the economics of defence industry assesses a series of historical and contemporary case studies that consistently demonstrate the need for governments to recognise and thereafter factor the financial needs of a narrow industrial sector that is capital intensive technologically advanced and that requires a highly skilled labour force Since the end of the cold war Western governments have systematically reduced financial support to their domestic defence industry and have seemingly ignored planning and funding industrial mobilisation In all cases government policy has been to encourage industries to consolidate capacity to become financially viable in a sector that has seen diminished demand The 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine has caused Western governments to reassess their previous assumptions Efforts to increase industrial capacity have been met with the iron laws of economics whereby businesses need to show return on investments The chapters in this volume posit that efforts to rationalise industrial capacity and innovation to meet short term financial efficiencies inevitably results in limited expensive and long delays in increased production in times of international crisis This book serves as an essential guide for academics researchers and students interested in defence economics industrial economics international relations and industrial policy The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Defense Security Analysis

Values, Interests and Power: South African foreign policy in uncertain times Daniel D. Bradlow, Elizabeth Sidiropoulos, 2020-01-01 About the publication South Africa's foreign policy makers are facing a substantial challenge From the advent of the democratic era in 1994 through to the early 2000s South Africa was a highly respected actor in international affairs with a number of impressive accomplishments in the areas of global governance peacekeeping and international norm entrepreneurship However since that time the country's international standing has declined The value based and innovative foreign policy that earned the early post apartheid South African government such great international respect has been replaced by a more transactional and tactically driven approach to international affairs The country's position as Africa's leading economy and voice in international affairs is increasingly being challenged by other African states This book explores how South Africa can develop a foreign policy strategy that is appropriate to the uncertain times in which we live and that both helps the country address its overwhelming domestic challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment and regain its former high international reputation The contributors to this book offer analyses and proposals for developing such a strategy within the context of the country's constitutional order and institutional constraints and that addresses the diverse and complex global and regional aspects of the country's international relations Endorsements In this valuable book which should be on every diplomat's bookshelf some of SA's foremost experts offer the government frank and compelling advice on how to conduct a much better foreign policy over the next decade The authors challenge Pretoria to muster all the country's assets and skills and not just those of the ruling party to pursue only the most important foreign policy goals And to be guided always by the lodestar of the Constitution Peter Fabricius Foreign Policy Analyst former Foreign Affairs Editor at Independent Newspapers In this one of a kind book of twelve chapters by emerging and experienced scholars the authors probe into factors shaping South African foreign policy lessons learned and the future strategy of the country's foreign policy in an ever changing world A compelling read for policy makers and scholars Ambassador Prof Iqbal Jhazbhay University of South Africa Member of the ANC's N E C International Relations Sub Committee its breadth will engage newcomers its insights will be useful to scholars and practitioners alike Professor Amrita Narlikar President German Institute for Global and Area Studies GIGA This book offers compelling insights on South Africa's foreign policy These varied pieces provide textured and critical perspectives that may help open up an avenue to re imagine South Africa s foreign policy afresh in the post Zuma years It is a compendium that should appeal to scholars of international relations practitioners of foreign policy and the broader policy community Professor Mzukiso Qobo Head School of Governance University of the Witwatersrand This nuanced and richly detailed volume offers the reader superb analyses of South Africa s foreign policy The authors contributions present both theoretical considerations and specific policy recommendations which make the book highly useful for both scholars and policy makers Each chapter is thus certain to significantly contribute to promoting the public debate about South Africa s place in the world Professor Oliver Stuenkel Funda o Getulio Vargas FGV Table of Contents ACKNOWLEDGMENTS CONTRIBUTORS Defining a South African foreign policy for the 2020s Challenges constraints and opportunities by Daniel D Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos Luanda Mpungose Foreign policy under the Constitution by Jonathan Klaaren Daiyaan Halim The courts and foreign policy powers by Nicole Fritz Overcoming bureaucratic and institutional challenges in South African foreign policy making by Arina Muresan Francis Kornegay South Africa s security interests in Africa Recommendations for the 2020s by Aditi Lalbahadur Anthoni van Nieuwkerk South Africa s peace and security interests beyond the continent by Garth Le Pere Lisa Otto Regional integration and industrial development in Southern Africa Where does South Africa stand by Maria Nkhonjera Simon Roberts South Africa and African continental economic integration in the 2020s by Lumkile Mondi Negotiating climate change in an increasingly uncertain global landscape Is there light at the end of the tunnel by Ellen Davies Saliem Fakir Melisha Nagiah Reforming the institutions of global economic governance and South Africa by Cleo Rose Innes Challenges and opportunities for non traditional diplomacy by Fritz Nganje Letlhogonolo Letshele Lessons learned and the path forward by Daniel Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos AnaSofia Bizos APPENDIX INDEX The Routledge International Handbook of Military Psychology and Mental Health Updesh Kumar,2019-12-11 Military psychology has become one of the world s fastest growing disciplines with ever emerging new applications of research and development The Routledge International Handbook of Military Psychology and Mental Health is a compendium of chapters by internationally renowned scholars in the field bringing forth the state of the art in the theory practice and future prospects of military psychology This uniquely interdisciplinary volume deliberates upon the current issues and applications of military psychology not only within the military organization and the discipline of psychology but also in the larger context of its role of building a better world Split into three parts dedicated to specific themes the first part of the book Military Psychology The Roots and the Journey provides an overview of the evolution of the discipline over the years delving into concepts as varied as culture and cognition in the military a perspective on the role of military psychology in future warfare and ethical issues The second part Soldiering Deployment and Beyond considers the complexities involved in soldiering in view of the changing nature of warfare generating a focal discourse on various aspects of military leadership soldier resilience and post traumatic growth in the face of extreme situations bravery and character strengths and transitioning to civilian life In the final section Making a

Reflections on the Complexities of the Covid-19 Pandemic Shadrack B. Ramokgadi,Mbekezeli C. Mkhize,2022-12-31 This book offers an original and timeous snapshot of contemporary lines of argument from various authors in the Global South on the Covid 19 pandemic as a complex emergency at the height of the pandemic At the time of writing there were various levels of uncertainties from different countries citizens the public and private sectors industries and economies who were in disarray The book traces the origins of the Covid 19 pandemic in the province of Wuhan in China the challenges and the responses from a multiplicity of countries particularly from the Global South Of particular importance the book notes that vaccine uncertainty limiting the spread of the virus and loss of life and employment were some of the major challenges that these governments and citizens were confronted with Also the sizes of various economies lead to various challenges that the abovementioned governments shouldered The contributors shed light on various aspects related to the Covid 19 pandemic from various countries in the Global South and include but were not limited to securitised lockdowns the use of militaries and complete closures of national and sometimes fragile economies as well as overburdened health systems These are just some dire consequences of Covid 19 on the public and private sector industries and economy The book emphasises that despite myriad challenges reported there are various lessons that can be learnt in terms of how the countries responded to the pandemic and in terms of how future pandemics can be handled Finally this is an interesting piece of work wherein contributors as a collective seek to shed light with regards to the unique perspectives from the Global South and at the same time give some guidance related to their specific areas of focus

Creating a South African Sub-Regional Conflict Transformation Model Noluthando Phungula,2024-01-11 This book contributes to the current academic debate and scholarly research on conflict transformation in the Southern African Development Community SADC sub region It will serve as a guide on how conflict recurrences can best be tackled in the sub region and seeks to improve the transformation process of conflict and peace building in the Kingdom in the Sky and in the sub region at large The book will shed light on the road ahead for the SADC and its role in transforming conflict into positive peace and peace building and will contribute to discussions on the necessity of a conflict transformation model as a key tool in efforts to transform the state of recurring intrastate conflict in Lesotho Thus this book will also enhance the literature and discourse on sub regional organisations and their path towards conflict transformation on the African continent Give Us More Guns Mark Shaw,2021-03-24 With remarkable courage insight and access Mark Shaw takes the reader into the darkest corners of South Africa s ganglands Mandy Wiener The assassination of police investigator Charl Kinnear in Cape Town in 2020 was yet one more in a spate of murders related to the so called guns to gangs saga in which state weapons are sold to South Africa s criminal underworld It began in 2007 when Colonel Christiaan Prinsloo and his cronies began selling thousands of decommissioned police weapons to gang lords Prinsloo s motive to fund his son s university fees The sale of weapons to criminals which the police service has tried to downplay has resulted in a killing spree of unprecedented proportions Cape Town is now one of the most violent places on earth and in 2019 the army was called in to patrol gang infested areas Give us more Guns based on hundreds of interviews with police experts and the gangsters themselves tells the story of this callous crime for the first time Mark Shaw explores how the guns get into the hands of South Africa s crime bosses and describes the bloodshed that ensues He also uncovers accounts of rampant corruption within the police and in the state s gun licensing system probing the government failure that has been instrumental in arming the country s gangsters Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2014-09-10
