QUESTION	ANSWER	QUESTION	ANSWER
1. What is the main purpose of the document?	The document is a report on the results of a survey conducted among students at the University of California, Berkeley, regarding their attitudes towards the Vietnam War.	2. How many students participated in the survey?	One hundred students participated in the survey.
3. What are the main findings of the survey?	The survey found that a majority of students (65%) are opposed to the Vietnam War. The reasons for opposition include the high cost of the war, the loss of American lives, and the fact that the war is not necessary for the security of the United States.	4. What are the recommendations of the survey?	The survey recommends that the government should withdraw its troops from Vietnam and that the United States should focus on domestic issues.
5. What is the conclusion of the survey?	The survey concludes that the majority of students at the University of California, Berkeley, are opposed to the Vietnam War and believe that the government should withdraw its troops from Vietnam.	6. What is the significance of the survey?	The survey is significant because it provides a snapshot of student opinion on the Vietnam War at a major university. It also highlights the growing anti-war sentiment among young people in the United States.

concerns that policy recommendations should also include a re-evaluation of government systems. The authors argue that a combination of all the factors outlined throughout the article is needed to ensure that the government and business sectors, together, play a key role in the development of the country's economic growth. The authors conclude that the government should continue to work on the economic growth and development of the country, and that the government should continue to work on the economic growth and development of the country.
