Regional Economic Outlook, April 2020, Sub-Saharan Africa International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2020-04-15 Sub Saharan Africa is facing an unprecedented health and economic crisis that threatens to throw the region off its stride reversing the encouraging development progress of recent years Furthermore by exacting a heavy human toll upending livelihoods and damaging business and government balance sheets the crisis threatens to retard the region s growth prospects in the years to come Previous crises tended to impact affect countries in the region differentially but no country will be spared this time

The Department of State Bulletin ,1988 The official monthly record of United States foreign policy Christian Theological Education and the Response to the Crisis in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube,Gift Masengwe,2025-10-02 The book offers an incisive examination of the governing philosophy of the Zimbabwe African National Union Patriotic Front ZANU PF referred to as Zanupfism characterizing it as marked by callousness and malevolence towards dissenting voices from civil society and opposition factions This pernicious application of power extends beyond mere verbal aggression to encompass militaristic actions engendering a profound generational crisis within Zimbabwe The contributors explore the compelling juxtaposition between President Emmerson Mnangagwa and the biblical Nebuchadnezzar II a ruler notorious for his autocratic reign and expansive ambitions Further critically scrutinizing the complicity of neo Pentecostal prophets in the book reveals how these religious figures promote an esoteric understanding of the divine diverging from a theology rooted in justice thereby enabling the oppressive regime s practices This critique underscores the imperative for prophets to recalibrate their theological perspectives urging them to move beyond magical interpretations of faith toward an authentic engagement with a personal God who champions justice The book further encompasses the complex interplay of political and religious narratives examining how church leaders either bolster or undermine Mnangagwa s political ideology highlighting the tendency among certain religious factions to deify political authority ultimately exacerbating societal inequities In advocating for a transformative theological discourse in Zimbabwe the book asserts that religious narratives must serve as instruments for fostering democracy social justice and equity rather than sustaining a status quo that entrenches authoritarian governance The necessity for unified principled resistance grounded in the collective agency of the populace emerges as a salient theme in the quest for meaningful political and social reform

The Politics of Economic Reform in Zimbabwe Tor Skalmes, 2016-07-27 In 1990 Zimbabwe embarked on economic liberalisation The country s economic associations notably that erstwhile proponent of protectionism the Confederation of Zimbabwe Industries had successfully lobbied for gradual reform While state autonomy has often been regarded as a vital condition for reform in Zimbabwe societal groups have induced an initially recalcitrant government to reconsider its basic policies After 1980 the government tried to limit political competition However because of the perceived need for racial reconciliation following the guerrilla war it maintained dialogue with settler dominated interest groups along the pattern of societal corporatism established in the 1930s By contrast African associations particularly labour unions have regularly been subjected to regimentation The government however has listened more closely to the demands of African farmers who want to preserve parastatal marketing and governmental determination of prices In Zimbabwe key urban groups support liberalisation while key rural groups do not Theories of urban bias must therefore be qualified

Constitutional Resilience and the COVID-19 Pandemic Ebenezer Durojaye, Derek M. Powell, 2022-11-17 This book explores the resilience of constitutional government in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic connecting and comparing perspectives from ten countries in sub Saharan Africa to global trends In emergency situations such as the COVID 19 pandemic a state has the right and duty under both international law and domestic constitutional law to take appropriate steps to protect the health and security of its population Emergency regimes may allow for the suspension or limitation of normal constitutional government and even human rights Those measures are not a license for authoritarian rule but they must conform to legal standards of necessity reasonableness and proportionality that limit state action in ways appropriate to the maintenance of the rule of law in the context of a public health emergency Bringing together established and emerging African scholars from ten countries this book looks at the impact government emergency responses to the pandemic have on the functions of the executive the legislature and the judiciary as well as the protection of human rights It also considers whether and to what extent government emergency responses were consistent with international human rights law in particular with the standards of legality necessity proportionality and non discrimination in the Siracusa Principles

Land and Agrarian Reform in Zimbabwe Sam Moyo, Walter Chambati, 2013-05-13 The Fast Track Land Reform Programme implemented during the 2000s in Zimbabwe represents the only instance of radical redistributive land reforms since the end of the Cold War It reversed the racially skewed agrarian structure and discriminatory land tenures inherited from colonial rule The land reform also radicalised the state towards a nationalist introverted accumulation strategy against a broad array of unilateral Western sanctions Indeed Zimbabwes land reform in its social and political dynamics must be compared to the leading land reforms of the twentieth century which include those of Mexico Russia China Japan South Korea Taiwan Cuba and Mozambique The fact that the Zimbabwe case has not been recognised as vanguard nationalism has much to do with the intellectual structural adjustment which has accompanied neoliberalism and a hostile media campaign This has entailed dubious theories of neopatrimonialism which reduce African politics and the state to endemic corruption patronage and tribalism while overstating the virtues of neoliberal good governance Under this racist repertoire it has been impossible to see class politics mass mobilisation and resistance let alone believe that something progressive can occur in Africa This book comes to a conclusion that the Zimbabwe land reform represents a new form of resistance with distinct and innovative characteristics when compared to other cases of radicalisation reform and resistance The process of reform and resistance has entailed the deliberate creation of a tri modal agrarian structure to accommodate and balance the interests of various domestic classes the progressive restructuring of labour relations and agrarian markets the continuing pressures for radical reforms through the indigenisation of mining and other sectors and the rise of extensive albeit relatively weak producer cooperative structures. The book also highlights some of the resonances between the Zimbabwean land struggles and those on the continent as well as in the South in general, arguing that there are some convergences and divergences worthy of intellectual attention. The book thus calls for greater endogenous empirical research which overcomes the preoccupation with failed interpretations of the nature of the state and agency in Africa.

Community of Insecurity Dr Laurie Nathan, 2013-04-28 Exploring the formation, evolution and effectiveness of the regional security arrangements of the Southern African Development Community (SADC), Nathan examines a number of vital and troubling questions: why has SADC struggled to establish a viable security regime? why has it been unable to engage in successful peacemaking? and why has it defied the optimistic prognosis in the early 1990s that it would build a security community in Southern Africa? He argues that the answers to these questions lie in the absence of common values among member states, the weakness of these states and their unwillingness to surrender sovereignty to the regional organization. Paradoxically, the challenge of building a cooperative security regime lies more at the national level than at the regional level. The author's perspective is based on a unique mix of insider access, analytical rigour and accessible theory.

Agricultural and Food Waste Management - Innovative Solutions and Sustainable Practices Anca Corina Fărcaș, 2025-07-30 This book explores innovative strategies and sustainable practices for managing agricultural and food waste, emphasizing the transition from traditional disposal to resource recovery and circular economy solutions. Addressing global challenges such as food security, climate change, and environmental degradation, it offers multidisciplinary insights into the valorization of agro-industrial residues, the reduction of environmental pollutants, and the development of low-impact technologies. The volume highlights critical issues from the harmful consequences of crop residue burning to the socioeconomic opportunities of waste-based entrepreneurship in rural areas. Through a blend of conceptual frameworks, practical models, and forward-looking perspectives, the book offers a comprehensive overview of how agricultural by-products can be transformed into valuable resources, contributing to greener supply chains, cleaner production, and more resilient food systems. Aimed at researchers, practitioners, and policy makers, this collection serves as an essential reference for those committed to building a sustainable future through effective waste management and circular innovation in the agri-food sector.

Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe Joram Tarusarira, 2016-05-20 Religious and political organisations in Zimbabwe play an important role in advocating democratisation and reconciliation against acquiescent, silenced or co-opted mainstream churches. Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe analyses activities of religious organisations that deviate from the position of mainline churches and the political elites with regard to religious participation in political matters against a background of political conflict and violence. Drawing on detailed case studies of the Zimbabwe Christian Alliance (ZCA), Churches in Manicaland (CiM), and Grace to Heal (GtH), this book provocatively argues that in the face of an unsatisfactory religious and political culture, religious and political non-conformists emerge seeking to introduce a new ethos even in the face of negative sanctions from dominant religious and political systems

Transport Systems, Policy and Planning Rodney Tolley, Brian John Turton, 2014-07-15 Provides a unique review of the major spatial aspects of transport systems a detailed analysis of transport problems in urban and rural areas an evaluation of social and environmental impacts and a planning and policy overview Divided into four parts each considering a different aspect of transport geography The first part outlines the basic geography of transport and examines transport and spatial structures focusing upon the varying contributions made by transport to industrial agricultural and urban development Part two moves to consider specific transport systems at both national and international scales drawing on studies from industrialised and developing nations and discussing the effects upon transport of the political changes in the former USSR and Eastern Europe The third part examines some of the many problems of transport and urban and rural areas using specific examples to illustrate the contrasting difficulties and evaluate current urban transportation planning methods
