Zimsec 2015 2016 Literature Books:

The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe, 2025-04-07 Zimbabwe is a country whose longer past and shifting post independence politics have both included violent histories as well as often violent contestations over history itself The Politics of the Past in Zimbabwe addresses the many ways in which pasts are variously experienced remembered claimed denied or contested by differently positioned actors and how this in turn shapes the politics of the present It explores how such contestation is expressed in literature art and the media through exhumations and reburials in state apology and political myth making and in both traditional cultural heritage sites and the making of new national symbols Contributors are Jocelyn Alexander Elleke Boehmer Shadreck Chirikure Simbarashe Shadreck Chitima Lena Englund Shari Eppel Petina Gappah Amanda Hammar Pedzisai Maedza Owen Maseko Mphathisi Ndlovu Minna Johanna Niemi Astrid Rasch Timothy Scarnecchia Thomas Thondhlana Katja Uusihakala

Life-Writing from the Margins in Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, 2019-05-20 This book explores the unique contributions of various forms of post 2000 life writings such as the autobiography epistles and biographies to discourses about the nature and socio politics of what has become known as the Zimbabwean crisis c 2000 2009 Much of what has been written about the Zimbabwean crisis a decade long period of unprecedented economic collapse and political upheavals in the southern African country is strictly discipline specific and therefore limited to unidimensional modes of theorising the crisis s many and complex dimensions and dynamics In this context this book charts a paradigm shift in hermeneutic and epistemological approaches to comprehending the Zimbabwean crisis Life Writing from the Margins in Zimbabwe centres the experiences and memories of ordinary Zimbabweans in pluralizing modes of seeing and knowing the crisis The book argues that these life writings present a rich site for encountering versions of the crisis that relate in counter discursive ways to the dominant state authored narrative of the nation in crisis Oliver Nyambi s analysis contributes new ideas to ongoing debates about how cultural texts reflect on the postcoloniality of both power and experiences and negotiations of power in the context of crisis This book will be of interest to scholars and students of African literature Zimbabwean African studies postcolonial literature life writing and cultural studies

Fast Track Land Occupations in Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Sandra Bhatasara, Manase Kudzai Chiweshe, 2021-01-11 This book offers the first detailed scholarly examination of the nation wide land occupations which spread across the Zimbabwean countryside from the year 2000 and led to the state s fast track land reform programme In an innovative way it highlights the decentralized character of the occupations by recognizing significant spatial variation around a number of key themes including historical memory modes of mobilization and gender A case study of the land occupations in Mashonaland Central Province based on original research adds empirical weight to the argument In further identifying and understanding the specificities and complexities of the land occupations the book also frames them by way of a nuanced comparative historical analysis of the three zvimurenga It thus examines the land occupations referred to likely controversially as the third chimurenga with reference to the original anti colonial revolt from the 1890s the first chimurenga and the war of liberation in the 1970s the second chimurenga Further the book engages critically with the ruling party's chimurenga narrative and the hegemonic understanding of the land occupations within Zimbabwean studies This book is a crucial read for all scholars and students of post 2000 land and politics in Zimbabwe but also for those more broadly interested in historical comparative analyses of land struggles in Zimbabwe and beyond

Contemporary Development Ethics from an African Perspective Beatrice Okyere-Manu, Stephen Nkansah Morgan, Ovet Nwosimiri, 2023-07-29 This book offers fresh academic insights reflections questions issues and approaches to development ethics taking into account African values and ethics Development ethics is an area of applied ethics that examines the moral issues involved in global social and economic transformation While it is a relatively new discipline there have been numerous scholarly publications on it from Western perspectives However only a few studies that focused on development ethics from the African perspective To address this gap the book seeks to answer critical questions such as What does development mean to Africans How can we measure development Who gets to decide and What constitutes just development in Africa With contributions from African scholars from diverse backgrounds the book covers various development themes such as Theories and approaches to development ethics in Africa Environmental Ethics and African Development Ethics Politics and African Development Migration and African development Gender Ethics and Socio economic Development in Africa Education Ethics and African development It is an essential resource for researchers lecturers and students interested in political philosophy and African culture studies

Coloniality and Migrancy in African Diasporic Literatures Peter Moopi, Rodwell Makombe, 2023-10-06 This book explores literary representations of African immigrant experiences in Western countries against the backdrop of colonial stereotypes and recent expressions of anti immigrant sentiment in Europe and America The book deploys the concept of colonality of migrancy to explore how global coloniality continues to shape the identities and lived experiences of African immigrants as represented in African diasporic literatures It considers the persistence of racist and discriminatory attitudes and patterns of thought that developed during slavery and colonialism and asks to what extent it is possible for African immigrants to transcend race in their configuration of their identity Five key twenty first century African diasporic novels are considered in the analysis Imbolo Mbue's Behold the Dreamers Dave Eggers's What is the What The Autobiography of Valentino Achak Deng Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's Americanah NoViolet Bulawayo's We Need New Names and Helon Habila's Travellers Overall the book demonstrates that despite the hostility migrants of colour encounter Africans are shunning the victimhood of colonialism and slavery and finding alternative ways of navigating and inhabiting the modern world Foregrounding the usefulness of decoloniality and postcolonial theory as theoretical tools this book will be an invaluable resource to researchers across the fields of African literature migration sociology politics and decolonial studies

African Women Writing Diaspora Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2021-04-26 African Women Writing Diaspora Transnational Perspectives in the Twenty First Century examines contemporary fiction by African women authors to resonate diaspora perspectives on what it means to be African within transnational spaces Through a critical lens the collection interrogates the ways in which women construct new ways of telling the African story in the global age of social economic and political transformation African Women Writing Diaspora illustrates that for African women life in the diaspora is an uncharted journey across new landscapes of identity beyond Africa's borders as a unifying theme The fictional works analyzed represent the leading women writers who dominate the African literary canon and the contributors explore diverse themes of immigrant life racialized identities and otherness within transnational spaces of the west

Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe Kennedy Manduna, 2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe's extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country Indigenisation of Zimbabwe's extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities This policy however was a response to political economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe's government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000 2003 An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption co optation and collusion which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power capital and minerals and placing extractive industry Indigenisation in capitalism this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining Indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries natural resource management African politics and African development

Displacement, Elimination and Replacement of Indigenous People Jairo Kangira, Artwell Nhemachena, 2019-02-19 Colonial scholars have taken immense pleasure in portraying Africans as possessed by spirits but as lacking possession and ownership of their resources including land Erroneously deemed to be thoroughly spiritually possessed but lacking senses of material possession and ownership of resources Africans have been consistently dispossessed and displaced from the era of enslavement through colonialism to the neocolonial era Delving into the historiography of dispossession and displacement on the continent of Africa and in particular in Zimbabwe this book also tackles contemporary forms of dispossession and displacement manifesting in the ongoing transnational corporations land grabs in Africa wherein African peasants continue to be dispossessed and displaced Focusing on the topical issues around dispossession and repossession of land and the attendant displacements in contemporary Zimbabwe the book theorises displacements from a decolonial Pan Africanist perspective and it also unpacks various forms of displacements corporeal noncorporeal cognitive spiritual genealogical and linguistic displacements among others The book is an excellent read for scholars from a variety of disciplines such as Geography Sociology Social Anthropology History Linguistics Development Studies Science and technology Studies Jurisprudence and Social Theory Law and Philosophy The book also offers intellectual grit for policy makers and implementers civil society organisations including activists as well as thinkers interested in decolonisation and transformation

Contested Criminalities in Zimbabwean Fiction Tendai Mangena, 2018-12-07 This book addresses the ways in which writers deploy the trope of contested criminality to expose Zimbabwe's socially and politically oppressive cultures in a wide range of novels and short stories published in English between 1994 and 2016 Some of the most influential authors that are examined in this book are Yvonne Vera Petina Gappah NoViolet Bulawayo Brian Chikwava Christopher Mlalazi Tendai Huchu and Virginia Phiri The author uses the Zimbabwean experience to engage with critical issues facing the African continent and the world providing a thoughtful reading of contemporary debates on illegal migration homophobia state criminality and gender inequalities The thematic focus of the book represents a departure from what Schulze Engler notes elsewhere as postcolonial discourse's habit of suggesting that the legacies of colonialism and the predominance of the global North are responsible for injustice in the Global South Using the context of Zimbabwe it is shown that colonialism is not the only image of violence and injustice but that there are other forms of injustice that are of local origin Throughout the book it is argued that in speaking about contested criminalities writers call attention to the fact that laws are violated some laws are unjust and some crimes are henceforth justified In this sense crime in justice and the law are portrayed as unstable concepts      Transitional Justice and Socio-Economic Rights in Zimbabwe Prosper Maguchu, 2019-07-26 This book addresses the issue of corruption as a socio economic rights concern at a national level Zimbabwe's widespread corruption inhibited its development in all aspects It weakened institutions especially those called upon to arbitrate political and economic contests leading to potential human rights violations However Zimbabwe saw a change of government in November 2017 Due to this there seemed to be an opening to work towards reform in relation to the anti corruption architecture Specifically the new era provides an opportunity to review how accountability mechanisms including but not limited to amnesties truth commissions institutional reforms and prosecutions can address corruption as a socio economic rights violation As the new government still tries to address competing priorities many moving parts and various matrixes this volume in the International Criminal Justice Series provides a timely frame for revisiting the debate and developing the strategic thinking regarding transitional justice options in Zimbabwe It will be of great interest to practitioners policy makers scholars and students in the fields of anti corruption socio economic and human rights and transitional justice Prosper Maguchu is Visiting Assistant Professor at the Centre for the Politics of Transnational Law of the Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands      Windows into Zimbabwe Franziska Kramer, Kramer Jurgen, 2019-12-18 Over the past fifteen years Weaver Press has published seven anthologies of some one hundred short stories giving voice to new and established Zimbabwean writers In Windows into Zimbabwe Franziska Kramer and Jrgen Kramer have selected from these anthologies twenty three stories which they consider the best or most representative of a particular period in the Zimbabwean narrative since 1980 They present the stories within sections which frame certain themes such as Independence Gukurahundi Land Gender Relations Money Matters Social Relations Exile and Resilience For the general reader Windows into Zimbabwe contains some wonderful stories rich in insight perception nuance and humour Writers such as Charles Mungoshi Petina Gappah NoViolet Bulawayo Valerie Tagwira and Shimmer Chinodya are included as well as relative newcomers with new perceptions and fresh voices The compilers have also provided an introductory overview casting light on the relationship between fiction and society and for teachers in schools colleges and universities each story is accompanied by explanatory notes questions and study tasks to further the readers understanding Windows into Zimbabwe will positively deepen your appreciation of the country and its people      UNESCO and the Fate of the Literary Sarah Brouillette, 2019-09-10 A case study of one of the most important global institutions of cultural policy formation UNESCO and the Fate of the Literary demonstrates the relationship between such policymaking and transformations in the economy Focusing on UNESCO's use of books Sarah Brouillette identifies three phases in the agency's history and explores the literary and cultural programming of each In the immediate postwar period healthy economies made possible the funding of an infrastructure in support of a liberal cosmopolitanism and the spread of capitalist democracy In the decolonizing 1960s and 70s illiteracy and lack of access to literature were lamented as a book hunger in the developing world and reading was touted as a universal humanizing value to argue for a more balanced communications industry and copyright regime Most recently literature has become instrumental in city and nation branding that drive tourism and the heritage industry Today the agency largely treats high literature as a commercially self sustaining product for wealthy aging publics and fundamental policy reform to address the uneven relations that characterize global intellectual property creation is off the table UNESCO's literary programming is in this way highly suggestive A trajectory that might appear to be one of triumphant success literary tourism and festival programming can be quite lucrative for some people is also under a different light a story of decline

Sub-Saharan Political Cultures of Deceit in Language, Literature, and the Media, Volume II Esther Mavengano, Isaac Mhute, 2023-12-12 This two volume set charts a cross disciplinary discursive terrain that proffers rich insights about deceit in contemporary postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics In an attempt to produce a nuanced and multifaceted academic dialoguing platform the two volumes have a particular focus on the aspects of treachery fear of difference oppositional politics and discourses semiotics of mis self representation The major aim of the proposed volumes is to contribute toward the often problematised conversations about the unfolding post colonial Sub Saharan world which is topical in decolonial and Pan African studies The volumes seek to place political thinking and postcolonial political systems under the scholarly gaze with the view to highlight and enhance the participation of African cross disciplinary scholarship in the postcolonial political processes of the continent Most significantly it is through such probing of the limitations of our own disciplinary perspectives which can help us appreciate the complexity of the postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume examines postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume examines postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly

21st-Century British Gothic Emily Horton, 2024-01-25 In this innovative re casting of the genre and its received canon Emily Horton explores fictional investments in the Gothic within contemporary British literature revealing how such concepts as the monstrous spectral and uncanny work to illuminate the insecure uneven and precarious experience of 21st century life Reading contemporary works of Gothic fiction by Helen Oyeyemi Kazuo Ishiguro Sarah Moss Patrick McGrath and M R Carey alongside writers not previously grouped under this umbrella including Brian Chikwava Chloe Aridjis and Mohsin Hamid Horton illuminates the way the Gothic has been engaged and reread by contemporary writers to address the cultural anxieties invoked living under neocolonial and neoliberal governance including terrorism migration homelessness racism and climate change Marshalling new modes of diasporic and cross disciplinary critical theory concerned with the violent dimensions of contemporary life this book sets the Gothic aesthetics in such works as White is for Witching Double Vision Never Let Me Go The Wasted Vigil and Ghost Wall against a backdrop of key events in the 21st century Drawing connections between moments of anxiety such as 9 11 the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq ecological disaster the refugee crisis Brexit the pandemic and the Gothic Horton demonstrates how British literature mediates transnational experiences of trauma and horror while also addressing local and national insecurities and preoccupations As a result 21st Century British Gothic can test geographical psychological cultural and aesthetic borders to expose an often spectralised experience of human and planetary vulnerability and speaks back against the brutality of global capitalism
