Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists Africa in a Multilateral World Albert Kasanda, Marek Hrubec, 2021-07-29 The book analyses how Africans and Africa relate to other parts of the multilateral world and to the world in general and how these relations stem from local national and regional interactions in different parts of Africa as well as Africa as a whole The first part focuses on the assumptions that are necessary to understand the role of Africa on the global stage especially from the perspectives of political philosophy and global and international studies The second part of the book looks at both Afropolitan trends and the limits of Afropolitanism In the third part the authors focus on specific African global tendencies stemming from the local conditions in several case studies Traditional and modern politics is connected problematically with the current Jihadist organisations in the local African conditions related to unilateralism and global war on terror for example The fourth part deals with the relevance of the language ambivalence in relation to global interactions It examines various views of African philosophy and lays bare the perception of earlier colonial languages in view of their current strength of global action This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies political philosophy politics and global studies Aspects of Real Estate Theory and Practice in Zimbabwe Chirisa, Innocent, Juru, Mike Eric, 2019-08-23 The subject of real estate is increasingly becoming important especially in the countries of the developing world States and governments realise that real estate is a corner stone of socio economic development Real estate development contributes immensely to the gross physical capital formation Its formation construction and ancillary sectors contribute to the employment infrastructure development and gross domestic product The main challenges about real estate is about where to develop it how to develop it how to manage and compute valuations about it Such are the issues discussed in this volume The book draws on Zimbabwe as a case study to demonstrate the critical aspects that define theory and real estate practice in various contexts national regional and international The

African Novel of Ideas Jeanne-Marie Jackson, 2021-01-12 An ambitious look at the African novel and its connections to African philosophy in the twentieth and twenty first centuries The African Novel of Ideas focuses on the role of the philosophical novel and the place of philosophy more broadly in the intellectual life of the African continent from the early twentieth century to today Examining works from the Gold Coast South Africa Uganda and Zimbabwe and tracing how such writers as J E Casely Hayford Imraan Coovadia Tendai Huchu Jennifer Nansubuga Makumbi and Stanlake Samkange reconcile deep contemplation with their social situations Jeanne Marie Jackson offers a new way of reading and understanding African literature Jackson begins with Fante anticolonial worldliness in prenationalist Ghana moves through efforts to systematize Shona philosophy in 1970s Zimbabwe looks at the Ugandan novel Kintu as a treatise on pluralistic rationality and arrives at the treatment of philosophical suicide by current southern African writers As Jackson charts philosophy's evolution from a dominant to marginal presence in African literary discourse across the past hundred years she assesses the push and pull of subjective experience and abstract thought The first major transnational exploration of African literature in conversation with philosophy The African Novel of Ideas redefines the place of the African experience within literary history Zimbolicious Anthology: Volume 3 Rinos Mwanaka, 2018-09-23 Zimbolicious Anthology An Anthology of Zimbabwean Literature and Arts Volume 3 contains 5 short stories 51 poems 1 nonfiction piece and 3 drawings from Zimbabwean writers and artists Zimbabwe continues to tumble on its unshakable political trajectory since Robert Mugabe was removed as president via a military coup Much of the writing in this anthology addresses both the current political situation and the hope of the Zimbabweans for a free and fair election in 2018 Within the pieces a lot of questions anger mistrust remain alongside uncertainties around the enigmatic political landscape of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean people Despite this the writers have a lot to celebrate and also touch on issues to do with love morality spirituality tradition relationships family identity individuality and joy Contemporary Development Ethics from an African Perspective Beatrice

Okyere-Manu, Stephen Nkansah Morgan, Ovet Nwosimiri, 2023-07-29 This book offers fresh academic insights reflections questions issues and approaches to development ethics taking into account African values and ethics Development ethics is an area of applied ethics that examines the moral issues involved in global social and economic transformation While it is a relatively new discipline there have been numerous scholarly publications on it from Western perspectives However only a few studies that focused on development ethics from the African perspective To address this gap the book seeks to answer critical questions such as What does development mean to Africans How can we measure development Who gets to decide and What constitutes just development in Africa With contributions from African scholars from diverse backgrounds the book covers various development themes such as Theories and approaches to development ethics in Africa Environmental Ethics and African Development Ethics Politics and African Development Migration and African development Gender Ethics and Socio economic Development in Africa Education Ethics and African development It is an essential resource for researchers lecturers and students interested in political philosophy and African culture studies Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G. Toth, 2025-03-10 An Open Access edition is available thanks to the kind sponsorship of the libraries participating in the Jisc Open Access Community Framework OpenUP initiative Debates about reading in postcolonial studies rarely discuss non professional readers except to secure the authority of professional reading practices In Reading Postcolonial Literature Hayley G Toth places non professional reading practices in dialogue with received academic wisdom to debunk common sense assumptions about non professional readers as Western or neocolonial consumers Drawing on reading practices recorded in academic books journal articles and on online book reviewing platforms like Amazon and Goodreads Toth draws attention to important continuities between professional and non professional practices of reading postcolonial literature At the same time she highlights that non professionals often have little desire to emulate the practices of professional postcolonial critics Precisely by not adopting the established protocols and methods of postcolonial studies non professional readers call attention to the limits of dominant approaches to reading in the discipline Across four chapters Toth examines the relationship between reading and identity during the Rushdie affair the difference between reading and address the challenges posed by difficult texts and the legitimacy of non understanding and the reception of popular texts primarily read by non professional audiences Reading Postcolonial Literature demonstrates that reception matters in any claims we make about the value of reading postcolonial literature and offers new ways forward for the practice study and teaching of reading in the discipline International African Bibliography, 2003 Mwanaka: Zimbolicious Anthology Vol 6 Tendai Rinos Mwanaka, Chenjerai Mhondera, 2022-09-30 Zimbolicious Anthology An Anthology of Zimbabwean Literature and Arts is the 6th yearly volume of Zimbabwean Literature and the arts This year s anthology is extra special in that we feature Zimbabwe s upcoming young visual artists who recently won or got highly recommended and exhibited their artworks through the National Art Gallery in a competition sponsored by Morgan Chipo Martha Bute deals with a personal journey to discovery and worthiness and Tendai Rinos Mwanaka deals with Zimbabwe s politics African Values, Ethics, and Technology

 Beatrice Dedaa Okyere-Manu, 2021-04-30 This book charts technological developments from an African ethical perspective It explores the idea that while certain technologies have benefited Africans the fact that these technologies were designed and produced in and for a different setting leads to conflicts with African ethical values Written in a simple and engaging style the authors apply an African ethical lens to themes such as The Fourth Industrial Revolution the moral status of technology technology and sexual relations and bioethics and technology The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies Lieven Ameen, 2022-08-10 Over the past decades the growing interest in the study of literature of the city has led to the development of literary urban studies as a discipline in its own right The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies provides a methodical overview of the fundamentals of this developing discipline and a detailed outline of new directions in the field It consists of 33 newly commissioned chapters that provide an outline of contemporary literary urban studies The

Companion covers all of the main theoretical approaches as well as key literary genres with case studies covering a range of different geographical cultural and historical settings The final chapters provide a window into new debates in the field The three focal issues are key concepts and genres of literary urban studies a reassessment and critique of classical urban studies theories and the canon of literary capitals and methods for the analysis of cities in literature The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies provides the reader with practical insights into the methods and approaches that can be applied to the city in literature and serves as an important reference work for upper level students and researchers working on city literature Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> Displacement, Elimination and Replacement of Indigenous People Kangira, Jairo, Nhemachena, Artwell, 2019-02-19 Colonial scholars have taken immense pleasure in portraying Africans as possessed by spirits but as lacking possession and ownership of their resources including land Erroneously deemed to be thoroughly spiritually possessed but lacking senses of material possession and ownership of resources Africans have been consistently dispossessed and displaced from the era of enslavement through colonialism to the neocolonial era Delving into the historiography of dispossession and displacement on the continent of Africa and in particular in Zimbabwe this book also tackles contemporary forms of dispossession and displacement manifesting in the ongoing transnational corporations land grabs in Africa wherein African peasants continue to be dispossessed and displaced Focusing on the topical issues around dispossession and repossession of land and the attendant displacements in contemporary Zimbabwe the book theorises displacements from a decolonial Pan Africanist perspective and it also unpacks various forms of displacements corporeal noncorporeal cognitive spiritual genealogical and linguistic displacements among others The book is an excellent read for scholars from a variety of disciplines such as Geography Sociology Social Anthropology History Linguistics Development Studies Science and technology Studies Jurisprudence and Social Theory Law and Philosophy The book also offers intellectual grit for policy makers and implementers civil society organisations including activists as well as thinkers interested in decolonisation and transformation States and the Making of Others Jeanne Bouyat, Amandine Le Bellec, Lucas Puygrenier, 2024-06-17 This volume offers a unique interdisciplinary and comparative perspective on contemporary processes of othering by state institutions in relation to dynamics of racism xenophobia sexism homo transphobia as well as ethnic and class based discriminations It focuses on eight original case studies empirically grounded in various domains of the social state in Southern African and Western European contexts the education and health care systems the regulation of work and of procreation rights and institutions in charge of granting asylum The authors provide key insights on how states produce Others and on how othering contributes in turn to the process of state formation and the politicization of public action

Women Law and Power Makanatsa Makonese,2021-06-25 Without adequate protection and consideration from the state women were left out of Zimbabwe s Fast Land Reform Programme at the turn of the century Leaving them to fight for land in a murky convoluted system will not address women s rights to it Giving specific ethical and legal attention to women s rights and needs is the only way to guard against land and other resources begin co opted by the privileged and those with the requisite social financial and political capital Some commentators have argued that Zimbabwean women were better off identifying with Zimbabwean men as blacks in taking land from the former white farmers than to concentrate on their needs as women during the FTLRP The primary battle was to take the land from the white farmer after which a secondary battle by women to take land from men would ensue Twenty years after the commencement of the FTLRP the question remains whether the secondary battle by black women to take over land from black men has started and whether there are any chances that such a battle will ever be fought and won
