Teaching Informational Text in K-3 Classrooms Mariam Jean Dreher, Sharon Bengé Kletzien, 2015-09-18 Revised edition of Informational text in K 3 classrooms 2004 Whose Knowledge Counts in Government Literacy Policies? Kenneth S. Goodman, Robert C. Calfee, Yetta M. Goodman, 2013-10-01 Accountability in the form of standardized test scores is built into many government literacy policies with severe consequences for schools and districts that fail to meet ever increasing performance levels The key question this book addresses is whose knowledge is considered in framing government literacy policies The intent is to raise awareness of the degree to which expertise is being ignored on a worldwide level and pseudo science is becoming the basis for literacy policies and laws The authors all leading researchers from the U S U K Scotland France and Germany have a wide range of views but share in common a deep concern about the lack of respect for knowledge among policy makers Each author comes to the common subject of this volume from the vantage point of his or her major interests ranging from an exposition of what should be the best knowledge utilized in an aspect of literacy education policy to how political decisions are impacting literacy policy to laying out the history of events in their own country Collectively they offer a critical analysis of the condition of literacy education past and present and suggest alternative courses of action for the future Teaching STEM and Common Core with Mentor Texts Anastasia Suen, Shirley L. Duke, 2013-12-02 Librarians can use this book to become leaders in their schools collaborating with teachers to keep them abreast of resources that will facilitate the inclusion of STEM in the curriculum Teaching STEM and Common Core with Mentor Text explains the basics of STEM Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics and shows how librarians can become a key component in STEM education guiding teachers and sparking interest through the books and technology inherent in their curriculum The volume offers 20 mentor texts plus in depth collaborative lesson plans linked to the Common Core Standards for K 5 librarians There are additional lessons for classroom teachers as well as activities that can easily be done in the library or classroom Each lesson includes mentor text information an overview of the lesson step by step lesson plans assessment options and extension activities By implementing these lessons in the library librarians will be able to cover multiple Common Core State Standards and science standards and at the same time establish the library as a resource for teaching STEM subjects
