Emerson and favorably reviewed Henry David Thoreau's Walden or Life in the Woods. Simms published numerous review essays of twenty thousand or more words in literary journals and also republished two collections in book form. These volumes treated such subjects as Americanism in literature and the American Revolution in South Carolina. Yet as part two of Selected Reviews demonstrates, Simms ranged much more widely in the intellectual milieu. Such cultural and political topics as the 1848 revolution in France, the history of the literary essay, the roles of women in the American Revolution and the activities of the southern convention in Nashville in 1850 captured Simms's attention. Moltke Hansen's introduction to part two examines Simms's roles in and responses to the Romantic critical revolution and the other revolutions then roiling Europe and America.
