The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education Michael L. Wehmeyer, James R. Patton, 2017-06-15 This handbook provides a concise overview of special education services in countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities as the analytical frame The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education presents a concise and clear overview of special education services in more than 70 countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with disabilities as the analytical frame Each chapter offers information about the country in general followed by sections on the public education system the private education system the special education system teacher training requirements and barriers to and promising trends in inclusive and special education The volumes and chapters are organized by the United Nations Geoscheme with Volume 1 including an overview of the volumes and chapters on countries in the Americas Volume 2 addressing countries from Europe and Africa and Volume 3 focusing on countries in Asia and Oceania This is the most complete exploration of the delivery of supports and services to children and youth with disabilities across the globe available The volumes do not compare among or between countries but rather provide a baseline for understanding current special education practices and their relationship with general education and inclusive practices across the globe Readers will come away with an in depth understanding of what is happening with regard to the implementation of special education services and Article 24 of the Convention for the Rights of People with Disabilities This valuable reference set serves researchers graduate students and policymakers in special and general education as well as professionals focused on issues of education worldwide and scholars focused on international special education As such this handbook will be an important reference source for university libraries professional associations and policy entities

Nordic Voices, 2009-01-01 This volume represents the work of sixteen authors who all work at different universities and other academic institutions in the Nordic countries It provides insight into the diversity of research being conducted in the northernmost parts of Europe Although it would be incorrect to assert that research in this far away part of Europe represents something drastically different than that done in other parts of the world it would be equally incorrect to maintain that being at the outskirts on the cusp or on the periphery _ whichever way one wishes to describe the position of the Nordic countries in relation to the rest of the world does not influence the ways in which educational processes phenomena and their consequences are viewed These sixteen Nordic Voices discuss with readers different issues regarding teaching and researching Comparative and International Education in the Nordic countries The editors began their collaboration in 2006 working together to revitalize the Nordic Comparative and International Education Society NOCIES was officially re established in May 2008 Halla B Holmarsdottir who is from Iceland lives and works in Norway where she is Associate Professor in Multicultural and International Education at Oslo University College Mina O Dowd whose father is from the USA and mother is Norwegian lives and works in Sweden
