Development and Tibet Rongxing Guo,2015-10-16 This book pursues both narrative and analytic approaches to better understand China s spatial economic development and its implications for Tibet Accordingly this book focuses on Tibet an autonomous region in the far west of China as the subject of an in depth case study highlighting its unique geopolitical and socioeconomic features and external and boundary conditions China s great diversity in terms of physical geography resource endowment political economy and ethnicity and religion has posed challenges to the studies of spatial and interprovincial issues Indeed the Chinese nation is far too huge and spatially diverse to be easily interpreted The only feasible approach to analyzing it is therefore to divide it into smaller geographical elements so as to arrive at better insights into the country s spatial mechanisms and regional characteristics In this context the book combines analytic and narrative approaches A Historical Atlas of Tibet Karl E. Ryavec,2015-05-08 The product of twelve years of research and eight more of mapmaking A Historical Atlas of Tibet documents cultural and religious sites across the Tibetan Plateau and its bordering regions from the Paleolithic and Neolithic times all the way up to today It ranges through the five main periods in Tibetan history offering introductory maps of each followed by details of western central and eastern regions It visualizes the history of Tibetan Buddhism tracing its spread throughout Asia with thousands of temples mapped both within Tibet and across North China and Mongolia all the way to Beijing There are maps of major polities and their territorial administrations as well as of the kingdoms of Guge and Purang in western Tibet and of Derge and Nangchen in Kham There are town plans of Lhasa and maps that focus on history and language on population natural resources and contemporary politics Excerpted from jacket blurb

Ornament to Beautify the Three Appearances Dkon-mchog-lhun-grub (Ngor-chen),Ngorchen Könchok Lhundrup,2022-04-19 Box set is not being sold through Simon volume 1 is The latest offering from a renowned translator in the Buddhist world of one of the most important texts in one of the four main schools of Tibetan Buddhism the Sakya school This translation was done at the request of the head of the Sakya school Ngorchen K nchok Lhundrup s Ornament to Beautify the Three Appearances is the most extensive explanation of the Three Appearances ever written Ornament to Beautify the Three Continua is the most extensive explanation of the Three Continua in a single text This 2 volume set contains translations of the Vajra Lines of the great Indian adept Vir pa ca seventh eighth centuries the basic text of the Lamdr tradition the most precious system of tantric theory and practice in the Sakya school of Tibetan Buddhism and extensive explanation and guidance by Ngorchen K nchok Lhundrup 1497 1557 The translations have been made at the personal request and approval of His Holiness the Sakya Trichen with certainty that they will benefit all beings who desire liberation. The Vajra Lines represents the distilled essence of the Hevajra Tantra and its two explanatory tantras and is almost entirely concerned with esoteric tantric practice. The first topic however is the fundamental teachings of Hinayana and Mahayana Buddhism which are the essential basis for the main tantric practices of Vajrayana. In the Lamdr system this first topic of preliminary instructions is known as the Three Appearances. The second topic the main Vajrayana practices is known as the Three Continua. The preliminary practices presented in the first volume Ornament to Beautify the Three Appearances may be practiced by anyone without specific required preparation. The guiding instructions on impure appearance are for the purpose of developing renunciation and this volume focuses on three main topics: the defects of samsara in order to produce renunciation, the rarity, benefit and transience of life as a human being in order to arouse diligence, and the nature of positive and negative actions and results in order to understand what types of behavior to accept and reject. The guiding instructions on the appearance of the experiences are for the purpose of producing the altruistic intent. This section concerns two main topics: meditation until the common experiences have arisen which focuses on cultivating love, compassion and bodhicitta, and cultivating joy now about the uncommon experiences that will arise later when practicing the Vajrayana teachings. The guiding instructions on pure appearance are for the purpose of producing enthusiasm for the ultimate result of complete awakening. This section briefly describes the inconceivable nature of a buddha's enlightened body, speech and mind. The second volume explains the main tantric practices of the Three Continua. It is a restricted text intended only for students who have at least received the great initiation of Hevajra. It is the most extensive explanation of the Three Continua in a single text. These three are the causal continuum, the abiding mode of phenomenon which involves meditation on the view of the indivisibility of samsara and nirvana for the purpose of eliminating all conceptual elaborations, the method continuum, the precise way to meditate, the main practice of the Teaching, the method for guiding the true nature of the mind, primordial free of conceptual elaborations, the ground of everything, to the four kayas which involves instructions on each of the four initiations, the various sacred commitments associated with the four initiations, the propitiation of the kas and kinis if these commitments have been damaged, and the initiations at the time of the path which is the main topic of the method continuum, and the resultant continuum, buddhahood. Dependent on the causal continuum of the mind or universal ground which is like a field being purified by the method continuum of the body which is like water and manure, the resultant continuum of mahamudra, the four resultant kayas which is like the ripened fruit is actualized.

Creating the Universe Eric Huntington, 2019-01-22 Winner 2018 Edward Cameron Dimock Jr Prize in the Indian Humanities. Buddhist representations of the cosmos across nearly two thousand years of history in Tibet, Nepal and India show that cosmology is a rich language for the expression of diverse religious ideas with cosmological thinking at the center of Buddhist thought, art and practice. In Creating the Universe Eric Huntington presents examples of visual art and architecture, primary texts, ritual ideologies and material practices accompanied by extensive explanatory diagrams to reveal the immense complexity of cosmological thinking in Himalayan Buddhism Employing comparisons across function medium culture and history he exposes cosmology as a fundamental mode of engagement with numerous aspects of religion from preliminary lessons to the highest rituals for enlightenment This wide ranging work will interest scholars and students of many fields including Buddhist studies religious studies art history and area studies Art History Publication Initiative For more information visit <http://arthistorypi.org/books/creating-the-universe> Frontier Tibet Stéphane Gros,2025-10-01 Frontier Tibet Patterns of Change in the Sino Tibetan Borderlands addresses a historical sequence that sealed the future of the Sino Tibetan borderlands It considers how starting in the late nineteenth century imperial formations and emerging nation states developed competing schemes of integration and debated about where the border between China and Tibet should be It also ponders the ways in which this border is internalised today creating within the People s Republic of China a space that retains some characteristics of a historical frontier The region of eastern Tibet called Kham the focus of this volume is a productive lens through which processes of place making and frontier dynamics can be analysed Using historical records and ethnography the authors challenge purely externalist approaches to convey a sense of Kham s own centrality and the agency of the actors involved They contribute to a history from below that is relevant to the history of China and Tibet and of comparative value for borderland studies

Encyclopedia of Stateless Nations James B. Minahan,2016-08-01 This book addresses the numerous national movements of ethnic groups around the world seeking independence more self rule or autonomy movements that have proliferated exponentially in the 21st century In the last 15 years globalization religious radicalization economic changes endangered cultures and languages cultural suppression racial tensions and many other factors have stimulated the emergence of autonomy and independence movements in every corner of the world even in areas formerly considered immune to self government demands such as South America Researching the numerous ethnic groups seeking autonomy or independence worldwide previously required referencing many specialized publications This book makes this difficult to find information available in a single volume presented in a simple format accessible to everyone from high school readers to scholars in advanced studies programs The book provides an extensive update to Greenwood s Encyclopedia of the Stateless Nations Ethnic and National Groups around the World that was published more than a decade earlier Each ethnic group receives an alphabetically organized entry containing information such as alternate names population figures flag or flags geography history culture and languages All the information readers need to understand the motivating factors behind each movement and the current situation of each ethnic group is presented in a compact summary Fact boxes at the beginning of each entry enable students to quickly access key information and consistent entry structure makes for easy cross cultural comparisons

Mineral Building Traditions in the Himalayas Hubert Feiglstorfer,2019-11-05 Mineral building materials and regionally related methods of processing are an essential part of building culture throughout the Himalayas Based on transregional knowledge transfer raw materials have been able to find an ecologically and economically optimised destiny in particular local applications For this study samples were collected as raw material or originated from certain building components Samples were analysed according to their material properties and architectural application Traditional building techniques were examined and their correlation with traceable material qualities studied Clay specific properties such as colour grain size distribution grain shape hardness plasticity organic additives or bulk and clay mineral properties were used as comparative parameters This study gives fresh insight into the interaction between technical requirements environmental resources and material implementation It is the first scientific approach in studying the Himalayan earthen heritage in a wide scope and connecting material research and cultural heritage from various perspectives in particular archaeology architecture research on materials and building techniques

Food of Sinful Demons Geoffrey Barstow, 2017-10-24 Tibetan Buddhism teaches compassion toward all beings a category that explicitly includes animals Slaughtering animals is morally problematic at best and at worst completely incompatible with a religious lifestyle Yet historically most Tibetans both monastic and lay have made meat a regular part of their diet In this study of the place of vegetarianism within Tibetan religiosity Geoffrey Barstow explores the tension between Buddhist ethics and Tibetan cultural norms to offer a novel perspective on the spiritual and social dimensions of meat eating Food of Sinful Demons shows the centrality of vegetarianism to the cultural history of Tibet through specific ways in which nonreligious norms and ideals shaped religious beliefs and practices Barstow offers a detailed analysis of the debates over meat eating and vegetarianism from the first references to such a diet in the tenth century through the Chinese invasion in the 1950s He discusses elements of Tibetan Buddhist thought including monastic vows the Buddhist call to compassion and tantric antinomianism that see meat eating as morally problematic He then looks beyond religious attitudes to examine the cultural economic and environmental factors that oppose the Buddhist critique of meat including Tibetan concepts of medicine and health food scarcity the display of wealth and idealized male gender roles Barstow argues that the issue of meat eating was influenced by a complex interplay of factors with religious perspectives largely supporting vegetarianism while practical concerns and secular ideals pulled in the other direction He concludes by addressing the surge in vegetarianism in contemporary Tibet in light of evolving notions of Tibetan identity and resistance against the central Chinese state The first book to discuss this complex issue Food of Sinful Demons is essential reading for scholars interested in Tibetan religion history and culture as well as global food history
