SCM Studyguide: Theology in the Contemporary World Ben Pugh, 2017-10-30 No sooner have they mastered the basics than students of theology can quickly find themselves in over their heads They are bombarded with claim and counter claim as soon as they want to tackle anything topical The contentious subjects tend to be the historical Jesus gender and sexuality or the atonement Other subjects might be less contentious but attract an astonishing excess of literature Take the vast literature tackling the subject of the Church for instance or the bloated body of tomes on various aspects of Pneumatology This book tries to provide the bewildered and intimidated student with a primer that is at once introductory and incisive approachable and informative It will help those training for ministry to recover their fascination for the subject of theology and how it could apply to their future ministry

Western culture keeps posing to the Christian faith are ever new The goal posts keep changing This study guide will equip theology students to understand the culture shaping beliefs that are driving the kinds of questions it brings to faith It will be an historical overview of the key stages in the history of Western philosophy with each section carefully tracing the genealogical line of ideas and the Christian responses to them right up to the present day For most theology students learning abstract philosophical concepts involves literally learning a new language a language that the initiated converse in with ease but which leaves the uninitiated baffled Thus each chapter in this study guide opens with a glossary of terms Throughout the studyguide students are encouraged to reflect on the ways in which what has been learned might be applied in both explicitly theological and wider cultural contexts for example they might be asked to think of a film or book that seems to express elements of existentialism or postmodernism or to describe how something very like the extreme subjectivity of idealism can sometimes shows itself in Sunday morning worship Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement , 1925 Directing Study of High School Pupils Maxie Nave Woodring, Mrs. Cecile Woodard (White) Fleming, Mrs. White Fleming, 1929
