Didi-Huberman and the image Chari Larsson, 2020-09-29 Philosopher and art historian Georges Didi Huberman is one of the most innovative and influential critical thinkers writing today This book is the first English language study of his writing on images An image is a form of representation but what are the philosophical frameworks supporting it The book considers how Didi Huberman takes up this question repeatedly over the course of his career Placing his project in relation to major historical and intellectual contexts it shows not only how he modifies dominant disciplinary traditions but also how the study of images is central to a new way of thinking about poststructuralist inspired art history Mormon Visual Culture and the American West Nathan Rees,2021-03-17 This book explores the place of art in Latter day Saint society during the first 50 years of the Utah settlement beginning in 1847 Nathan Rees uncovers the critical role that images played in nineteenth century Mormon religion politics and social practice These artists not only represented but actively participated in debates about theology politics race gender and sexuality at a time when Latter day Saints were grappling with evolving doctrine conflict with Native Americans and political turmoil resulting from their practice of polygamy The book makes an important contribution to art history Mormon studies American studies and religious studies The Householders Tara McDowell,2019-10-01 How the poet Robert Duncan and the artist Jess made the household part of their separate and collaborative creative practice I m a householder the poet Robert Duncan once explained My whole idea of being able to work was to have a household In this book Tara McDowell examines the household physical and conceptual that Duncan established with the artist Jess beginning in 1951 when the two men exchanged marriage vows and ending with Duncan s death in 1988 For Duncan and Jess the household rather than the studio gallery or collective provided the support structure for their art Indeed McDowell argues convincingly their work was coextensive with their household The material surroundings of their house in San Francisco and the daily rhythms of their domestic lives became part of their creative practice Duncan wrote poetry that is romantic ornate and obscure Jess born Burgess Franklin Collins created multi imaged complex collages and assemblages McDowell explores their life and work reading Duncan and Jess with and against each other in alignment and misalignment She examines their illustrated book Caesar s Gate a collaborative effort that led them to reject collaboration considers each man s lifelong preoccupation with an unfinished project Jess s Narkissos and Duncan s The H D Book and discusses their origin myths and self made genealogies describing them as a form of witness in the face of the calamities of the twentieth century Duncan and Jess made the household a necessary precondition for their art making Doing so they reclaimed and rehabilitated the domestic from which gay couples were traditionally excluded for their own uses The household permitted them to reimagine the world McDowell s portrait of a couple expands to encompass broader issues urgent in midcentury America and still resonant today belonging and kinship alienation and catastrophe The Historical Contexts and Contemporary Uses of Mass Observation Lucy D. Curzon,Benjamin Jones,2024-10-17 The Historical Contexts and Contemporary Uses of Mass Observation embraces new approaches and themes that highlight Mass Observation s long history as an innovative research organization a social movement and an archival project Spanning the period from Mass Observation s inception to the present day essay authors discuss a wide range of topics including anthropology history popular politics cultural studies literature selfhood emotion art and visual studies Indeed what emerges across this volume is confirmation that engagement with Mass Observation whether its historical materials or those produced in the last decade is crucial to understanding the vast array of experiences that make up British life Women, Femininity and Public Space in European Visual Culture, 1789-1914 Dr Temma Balducci, Asst Prof Heather Belnap Jensen, 2014-11-28 Focusing on images of or produced by nineteenth century European women this volume explores genteel femininity as resistant to easy codification vis vis the public Attending to various iterations of the public as space sphere and discourse sixteen essays challenge the false binary construct that has held the public as the sole preserve of prosperous men By considering works in a range of media by an array of canonical and understudied women artists they demonstrate that definitions of both femininity and the public were mutually defining and constantly shifting The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Gender Jenna C.

Ashton, 2025-05-30 The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Gender offers an exceptional range of international contributions that interrogate and analyse the interactions within and between heritage and gender Taking an intersectional and global approach the Handbook opens up space for a more critical and situated consideration of how gender comes into contact with heritage as a concept and practice The volume considers heritage in the broadest sense as a concept performance and materialisation The contributions also consider how heritage impacts identity power people values politics and ethics as well as processes and sites across material culture nature and intangible practices The volume and its contributions are inclusive of cisgender trans non binary agender and intersex identities Reflecting the multidisciplinary and transnational voices of its authors the collection challenges readers to consider what a focused analysis of heritage and gender can offer heritage studies as an evolving discipline and field of study The Routledge Handbook of Heritage and Gender will be of interest to academics and students working in Heritage Studies Museum Studies Art History History Anthropology Gender and Women s Studies and International Development
