Papers Presented at the Twelfth International Conference on Patristic Studies Held in Oxford, 1995 Elizabeth A. Livingstone,1997 Papers presented at the Twelfth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 1995 see also Studia Patristica 29 30 31 and 32 The Twelfth International Conference on Patristic Studies met in Oxford from 21 to 26 August 1995 These gatherings have assembled at four yearly intervals since 1951 At each the number of papers presented has been greater than the previous occasion and the size of the assembly is now limited only by the capacity of the buildings available Some 650 scholars attended the 1995 Conference including delegates from Russia Georgia India Japan South Africa

New Zealand and Australia as well as from North America and most countries in Europe. Papers were given in English, French, German, Italian, or Spanish and are normally printed in the language in which they were delivered. Some were fully developed lectures lasting for nearly an hour; the majority were communications of 12 minutes duration and a few came in between. These volumes contain 284 of the papers, including most of the lectures given in full session: viz. the Inaugural Address by Dr H. D. Saffrey on Theology as a Science; Prof. Dr. Suso Frank; John Cassian; Prof. Dr. O. Skarsaune, 'Is Christianity Monotheistic?'; Patristic Perspectives on a Jewish-Christian Debate; and Prof. A. Louth, 'St. Maximus the Confessor: Between East and West'. Others report the finding of unpublished texts, deal with particular points, or present broad interpretations, sometimes original in character. For the first time, a number of illustrations are included, reflecting the growing interest in iconography.

Racial Conflict and Healing Andrew Sung Park, 2009-12-01. A Korean theologian approaches the issue of racial conflict, including discrimination between minority communities, and constructs a theology of seeing that aims to heal the ruptures of racism. As ethnic tensions continue to simmer and occasionally erupt, immigration and affirmative action laws are hotly debated in every ethnic minority: African Americans, Hispanic Americans, Native Americans, even Asian Americans. The so-called model minority struggle in the racially charged atmosphere of contemporary America. In the aftermath of the Los Angeles riots of 1992 and the ensuing violence against Korean Americans, Andrew Sung Park seeks a theological model that will help transform a society of oppression, injustice, and violence into a community of equity, fairness, and mutual consideration. Park emphasizes that such a transformation does not and cannot begin only with good intentions but must be grounded in an understanding of all the socio-economic and cultural issues that lead to oppression and tension. Using the Korean term han to describe the deep-seated suffering of racial oppression, he then suggests resources for understanding and healing in both Christian and Asian traditions. Part I of Racial Conflict and Healing describes the status quo from a Korean American perspective, including discrimination against ethnic minorities and the discrimination they inflict on one another. In Parts II and III, Park suggests that American society as a whole needs a superordinate vision to form a unified community. Park argues that our profoundly individualistic society must learn to understand an idea of self that is formed through relationship with others. Finally, in Part IV, he presents a theological model, a theology of seeing, as a way to genuinely understand the other and to promote healing within our society.
