Dealings with the Inquisition (Serapis Classics) Giacinto Achili, 2017-10-07 It was in the month of July 1842 that I was released by order of Pope Gregory from my first imprisonment in the dungeons of the Inquisition On this occasion one of the Dominican monks who serve the office of Inquisitor inquired of me with a malicious look whether I also intended one day to write an account of the Inquisition as a well known author had done before me with respect to Spielberg in his celebrated work Le mie prigioni Perceiving at once the object of this deceitful interrogation which was only to afford a pretext for renewing my incarceration at the very moment when liberty was before me I smiled at my interlocutor
