

STANFORD ESSAY SAMPLE

Prompt: Discuss an accomplishment or event, formal or informal, that marked your transition from childhood to adulthood within your culture, community, or family.

When I take a look at a picture of my younger self, I always comment on how I have changed and grown, not just physically, but also emotionally and mentally as an individual. About a month after the recent photo I was looking at was taken, I entered AA College without any knowledge as to what I should expect. I was a young lady who was several thousand miles away from home.

Surrounding me is a complete picture of things that are different from what I used to know. However, I see my priorities really well. I love studying different kinds of planes and cars. If there is one special occurrence that can happen to a person is the diversity of our student body, which proves us a big help for us new students there. I am not really sure whether or not the speed up of my maturing process is good for me or not, but I know that I have benefitted well.

The classroom environment has become an entirely different world for me. Before, the students and teachers were preaching the importance of knowledge and learning. It was also obvious that students were concerned of the grades. However, I believe that effort should come from us, the students.

I particularly liked one teacher who always assigned us to prepare everyday in order to discuss a book. What makes it unique is that she made the requirements clear we should be able to maximize the sources we have, but not allowed to look at the book. We can ask from other people in the school. Because of that teaching strategy, I learned the importance of 'thinking'. I believe this is very important as I continue with my education further.

Guide to College Admission in the USA Ragina Singh, PhD, 2016-11-30 Top tier colleges concentrated in U S A are continuously looking for students with a strong academic record good leadership skills and the potential to innovate In this comprehensive seven step guide learn how to create a compelling resume that stands out Stanley Cavell and Literary Studies Richard Eldridge, Bernard Rhie, 2011-09-22 Arguably no other living philosopher has done as much as Stanley Cavell to show the common cause shared by literature and philosophy Stanley Cavell and Literary Studies is not only timely but indeed long past due As the discipline of literary studies struggles to move beyond the suspicious skepticisms and anti humanisms that have dominated the field but without lapsing into sentimentality and na vet Cavell s writings and ideas will only become more pertinent The Learned Ones Kelly S. McDonough, 2014-09-18 In The Learned Ones Kelly S McDonough gives sustained attention to the complex nature of Nahua intellectualism and writing from the colonial period through the present day This collaborative ethnography shows the heterogeneity of Nahua knowledge and writing as well as indigenous experiences in Mexico Winds of Change Magazine's Annual College Guide for American Indians , 1994

Reading with John Clare Sara Guyer, 2015-05-01 Reading with John Clare argues that at the heart of contemporary biopolitical thinking is an insistent repression of poetry By returning to the moment at which biopolitics is said to emerge simultaneously with romanticism this project renews our understanding of the operations of contemporary politics and its relation to aesthetics across two centuries Guyer focuses on a single exemplary case the poetry and autobiographical writing of the British poet John Clare 1793 1864 Reading Clare in combination with contemporary theories of biopolitics Guyer reinterprets romanticism s political legacies specifically the belief that romanticism is a direct precursor to the violent nationalisms and redemptive environmentalisms of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Guyer offers an alternative account of many of romanticism s foundational concepts like home genius creativity and organicism She shows that contemporary critical theories of biopolitics despite repeatedly dismissing the aesthetic or poetic dimensions of power as a culpable ideology emerge within the same rhetorical tradition as the romanticism they denounce The book thus compels a rethinking of the biopolitical critique of poetry and an attendant reconsideration of romanticism and its concepts

Bulletin , 1960 Chinese Femininities/Chinese Masculinities Susan Brownell, Jeffrey N. Wasserstrom, 2002-01-07 Chinese Literature Lydia H Liu Jewish Virtue Ethics Geoffrey D. Claussen, Alexander Green, Alan L. Mittleman, 2023-08-01 What is good character What are the traits of a good person How should virtues be cultivated How should vices be avoided The history of Jewish literature is filled with reflection on questions of character and virtue such as these reflecting a wide range of contexts and influences Beginning with the Bible and culminating with twenty first century feminism and environmentalism Jewish Virtue Ethics explores thirty five influential Jewish approaches to character and virtue Virtue ethics has been a burgeoning field of moral inquiry among academic philosophers in the postwar period Although Jewish ethics has also flourished as an academic and practical field attention to the role of virtue in Jewish thought has been underdeveloped This volume seeks to illuminate its centrality not only for readers primarily interested in Jewish ethics but also for readers who take other approaches to virtue ethics including within the Western virtue ethics tradition The original essays written for this volume provide valuable sources for philosophical reflection

Involuntary Confessions of the Flesh in Early Modern France Nora Martin Peterson, 2016-09-14 Involuntary Confessions of the Flesh in Early Modern France was inspired by the observation that small slips of the flesh involuntary confessions of the flesh are omnipresent in early modern texts of many kinds These slips which bear similarities to what we would today call the Freudian slip disrupt and destabilize readings of body self and text three categories whose mutual boundaries this book seeks to soften but also in their very messiness participate in defining them Involuntary Confessions capitalizes on the uncertainty of such volatile moments arguing that it is instability itself that provides the tools to navigate and understand the complexity of the early modern world Rather than locate the body within any one discourse Foucauldian psychoanalytic this book argues that slips of the flesh create a liminal space not exactly outside of discourse but not necessarily subject to it either Involuntary confessions of the flesh reveal the perpetual and urgent challenge of early modern thinkers to textually confront and define the often tenuous relationship between the body and the self By eluding and frustrating attempts to contain it the early modern body reveals that truth is as much about surfaces as it is about interior depth and that the self is fruitfully perpetuated by the conflict that proceeds from seemingly irreconcilable narratives Interdisciplinary in its scope Involuntary Confessions of the Flesh in Early Modern France pairs major French literary works of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries by Marguerite de Navarre Montaigne Madame de Lafayette with cultural documents confession manuals legal documents about the application of torture and courtly handbooks It is the first study of its kind to bring these discourses into thematic rather than linear or chronological dialog In so doing it emphasizes the shared struggle of many different early modern conversations to come to terms with the body's volatility

The Art of Teaching Music Estelle R. Jorgensen, 2024-06-06 The Art of Teaching Music takes up important aspects of the art of music teaching ranging from organization to serving as conductor to dealing with the disconnect between the ideal of university teaching and the reality in the classroom Writing for both established teachers and instructors on the rise Estelle R Jorgensen opens a conversation about the life and work of the music teacher The author regards music teaching as interrelated with the rest of lived life and her themes encompass pedagogical skills as well as matters of character disposition value personality and musicality She reflects on musicianship and practical aspects of teaching while drawing on a broad base of theory research and personal experience Although grounded in the practical realities of music teaching Jorgensen urges music teachers to think and act artfully imaginatively hopefully and courageously toward creating a better world
