

Welcome Speech - Ms Eunice Watson

Good morning.

Senator the Hon. Amanda Vanstone, Minister for Justice and Customs;

The Hon. Tom Barton, Minister for Police and Corrective Services, and Minister for Racing, Queensland;

The Hon. Judy Spence, Minister for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Policy; Minister for Women's Policy; and Minister for Fair Trading;

Mr Jim O'Sullivan, Commissioner Queensland Police Service;

Ms Christine Nixon, NSW Police President, A.C.W.A.P;

Distinguished guests, our visitors from other places, and my fellow Australians: I am very pleased to be here this day. Although I was born not far from the banks of the Brisbane River, I am a woman of the Munnenjarl Dreaming, and my land is to the south of this city. A privilege has been bestowed upon me, that I, as a Murri woman, have been invited to welcome you to this conference; and I wish you well in your deliberations.

As it is customary law to do so, I acknowledge and pay my respects to the traditional people of this country, upon whose land we now stand.

The business of this conference is 'Women and Policing' and this is very important to my people and indeed, to all women. The access of women to justice has critical ramifications for every Australian family, and to families across the globe - so please remember that in the way of my people- words are important; but action is the only thing that will bring about real change.

So the decisions that are made here on the floor of this conference, must be translated down to street level and must deliver something real and something positive to women who are there at the coal face of life.

It is beyond dispute that at this time, women are the most vulnerable and most exposed sector of the community in matters of criminal violence and therefore, it is women who require the highest level of support and protection from the legal system.
