groups but none more ambitious than the 2000 production by MacMurray College a small school in Jacksonville Illinois Diane Brewer the new drama head at the college determined to add an extra element to the usual demands of putting on a show by having deaf students perform half of the parts Deaf Side Story presents a fascinating narrative of Brewer and the cast s efforts to mount this challenging play Brewer turned to the Illinois School for the Deaf ISD to cast the Sharks the Puerto Rican gang at odds with the Anglo Jets in this musical version of Romeo and Juliet set in the slums of New York Hearing performers auditioned to be the Jets and once Brewer had cast her hearing Tony and deaf Maria then came the challenge of teaching them all to sing sign and dance the riveting show numbers for which the musical is renowned She also had to manage a series of sensitive issues from ensuring the seamless incorporation of American Sign Language into the play to reassuring ISD administrators and students that the production would not be symbolic of any conflict between Deaf and hearing people Author Mark Rigney portrays superbly the progress of the production including the frustrations and triumphs of the leads the labyrinthine campus and community politics and the inevitable clashes between the deaf high school cast members and their hearing college counterparts His representations of the many individuals involved are real and distinguished The ultimate success of the MacMurray production reverberates in Deaf Side Story as a keen depiction of how several distinct individuals from as many cultures could cooperate to perform a classic American art form brilliantly together

Performance, Trauma and Puerto Rico in Musical Theatre Colleen Rua, 2023-08-11 This study positions four musicals and their associated artists as mobilizers of defiant joy in relation to trauma and healing in Puerto Rico This book argues that the historical trajectory of these musicals has formed a canon of works that have reiterated resisted or transformed experiences of trauma through linguistic ritual and geographic interventions These traumas may be disaster related migrant related colonial or patriarchal Bilingualism and translation ritual action and geographic space engage moments of trauma natural disaster incarceration death and healing community celebration grieving emancipation in these works The musicals considered are West Side Story 1957 2009 2019 The Capeman 1998 In the Heights 2008 and Hamilton 2015 Central to this argument is that each of the musicals discussed is tied to Puerto Rico either through the representation of Puerto Rican characters and stories or through the Puerto Rican positionality of its creators The author moves beyond the musicals to consider Lin Manuel Miranda as an embodied site of healing that has been met with controversy as well as post Hurricane Maria relief efforts led by Miranda on the island and from a distance In each of the works discussed acts of belonging shape notions of survivorship and witness This book also opens a dialogue between these musicals and the work of island based artists Y no hab a luz that has served as sites of first response to disaster This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Latinx Theatre Musical Theatre and Translation studies
