

Catholic Social Teaching

5 pages | 1123 words

* is a body of doctrine developed by the Catholic Church on matters of poverty and wealth, economics, social organization and the role of the state. Its foundations are widely considered to have been laid by Pope Leo XIII's 1891 encyclical letter Rerum Novarum, which advocated economic Distributism and condemned both Capitalism and Socialism, although its roots can be traced to the writings of Catholic thinkers such as St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Augustine of Hippo, and is also derived from concepts present in the Bible.

* The Catholic Social Teaching has two basic characteristics, namely, being permanent and developing.

* Permanent

-Since the teachings are based on the Gospel, they offer a permanent complex idea to be pursued in the ever changing historical conditions and ways. These teachings can never go out of date in their fundamentals. Examples of these permanent teachings are exemplified in the following principles:

1. Human dignity and Solidarity 2. Social justice and Christian love 3. Active non-violence and peace 4. Preferential option for the poor 5. Value of human work 6. Universal destinations of all goods of the earth 7. Stewardship and the integrity of creation 8. People empowerment 9. Authentic and holistic (integral) human development

* Developing

-The fundamentals of Church Social Teaching make up the steadily growing collection of the Church's social principles that must be creatively applied to and renewed in ever changing concrete situations of various events, cultures, and human needs in the historical process. Deeper insights into permanent values develop as the Church reads the signs of the times.

* Methods and Sources

1. Scripture. The authoritative books which record the Jewish and Christian experiences of God's self-disclosure. Scripture reveals who God is and who we are called to be in response to God. Interpretation of Scripture requires attention to historical context and is best done in community.

2. Tradition: the ways of thinking and living that are "handed over" (traditio) from one generation to the next; an ongoing conversation across the ages about our most important questions. Also the body of theological reflection and the ways of putting this reflection into practice that are "handed over" (traditio) from one generation to the next. Magisterium: official teaching office of church and authoritative voice of tradition. While theologians, activists, and ordinary Catholics make contribute to this body of theological reflection in important ways, a privileged source of Catholic tradition is the magisterium or the official, authoritative teaching office of the church. This official teaching office is exercised by Catholic Bishops, and in particular the Bishop of Rome (the Pope), as well as groups appointed by the Pope. This teaching is expressed in the form of a) papal encyclicals;

b) encyclicals of Church Councils (such as Vatican II) or Synods of Bishops, c) statements by Vatican offices, congregations, and commissions; & d) Episcopal conferences (regional meetings of Bishops, such as the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in the United States).

Catholic Educational Review Edward Aloysius Pace, Thomas Edward Shields, 1921 Carrying Water to the Field Joyce Sutphen, 2019-10-01 Joyce Sutphen's evocations of life on a small farm coming of age in the late 1960s and traveling and searching for balance in a very modern world are both deeply personal and familiar Readers from Maine to Minnesota and beyond will recognize themselves their parents aunts and uncles and neighbors in these poems which move us from delight in keen description toward something like wisdom or solace in the things of this world In addition to poems selected from the last twenty five years Carrying Water to the Field includes more than forty new poems on the themes of luck hard work and the ravages of time erasures that Sutphen attempts to ameliorate with her careful attention to language and lyrical precision A Jesuit Education Reader George W. Traub, 2008 A Jesuit Education Reader is a collection of the best writing on the mission challenge and state of Jesuit education This anthology will prove especially valuable to those who work in Jesuit education and other Catholic and Christian schools Everyone Has an Everest Sandy Andrews, 2003 Everyone Has An Everest is a story of inspiration If you are looking to be revitalized and renewed you must read this book In it the author tells of her 12 year battle with Parkinson's disease She explains how the disease took her health her job her car her life's savings and her insurance Ms Andrews is also an educator with 31 years of experience The book graphically describes her experiences as an inner city elementary school principal and how she changed a school who had five principals in five years How she dealt with the debilitating disease and never missed a day of school It will be useful to Parkinson patients and care givers because it gives specific information on how to obtain social security disability status how to obtain food stamps how to get Medicaid how to deal with depression Parkinson's Advocates and lobbying legislators And most importantly it describes the operation that gave her a second chance at life Literary Education and Other Essays Joseph Epstein, 2014-06-01 Who invented the personal essay That is hard to say The ancient Roman philosopher and cynical power broker Seneca The 16th century French philosopher Montaigne certainly brought it to a peak of perfection There were many 19th century masters not so many after that Who is the greatest living essayist writing in English That requires no debate at all It is unquestionably Joseph Epstein He is not only the best living essayist he is right up there in the company of Seneca and Montaigne but one of our own living in our era and dealing with our pleasures and travails Epstein is penetrating He is witty He has a magic touch with words that hard to define but immediately recognizable quality called style Above all he is impossible to put down Epstein reads omnivorously and brings us the best of what he reads passages that we would never have found on our own How easy it is today in the digital age drowning in emails and other ephemera to forget the simple delight of reading for no intended purpose Like any master essayist however this one brings us more than the shared experience of a lifetime of reading He brings us himself alternately scolding and charming sparkling and deep buoyant and sad zany and wise rebellious and conservative bookworm and sports fan clever and everyman debunker and preservationist deep into high culture deep into low culture curious fresh and settled in his ways This is the friend we all wish we could have the ideal humane companion who is completely comfortable in his own human skin Like Plutarch he gives us life teaching by example but with a wry smile and such a sure hand that we hardly notice the instruction It is pure pleasure The Contemporary Catholic School Terence McLaughlin, Joseph O'Keefe, 2003-10-04 This collection of essays by American and British authors discusses how the methods and issues of Catholic schooling are becoming of increasing interest to non Catholic schools due to the Catholic method of schooling being perceived as more humane Essays in the History of Irish Education Brendan Walsh, 2016-09-29 This book provides a complete overview of the development of education in Ireland including the complex issue of how religion can coexist with education and how a national identity can be aided through Irish language teaching It also offers a comprehensive exploration of the development issues challenges and future of education in Ireland within the context of historical studies Faithful Reason John Haldane, 2004 In Faithful Reason the noted Catholic philosopher John Haldane explores various aspects of intellectual and practical life from a perspective inspired by Catholic thought and informed by his distinctive philosophical approach Analytical Thomism Haldane s discussions of ethics politics education art social philosophy and other themes explain why Catholic thought is still relevant in today s world and show how the legacy of Thomas Aquinas can benefit modern philosophy in its efforts to answer fundamental questions about humanity and its place within nature Drawing on a Catholic philosophical tradition that is committed to concepts of the world s intrinsic intelligibility and the objectivity of truth Faithful Reason s bold and insightful perspectives provide rich matter for debate and food for further thought Catholic Education Inside-out/outside-in James C. Conroy, 1999 A collection of essays that encourages educators to revisit their convictions and perceptions about what Catholic education has to offer a contemporary society Essays Arthur Penrhyn Stanley, 1884 The Longings and Limits of Global Citizenship Education Jeffrey S. Dill, 2013-07-18 As the world seemingly gets smaller and smaller schools around the globe are focusing their attention on expanding the consciousness and competencies of their students to prepare them for the conditions of globalization Global citizenship education is rapidly growing in popularity because it captures the longings of so many to help make a world of prosperity universal benevolence and human rights in the midst of globalization s varied processes of change This book offers an empirical account from the perspective of teachers and classrooms based on a qualitative study of ten secondary schools in the United States and Asia that explicitly focus on making global citizens Global citizenship in these schools has two main elements both global competencies economic skills and global consciousness ethical orientations that proponents hope will bring global prosperity and peace However many of the moral assumptions of global citizenship education are more complex and contradict these goals and are just as likely to have the unintended consequence of reinforcing a more particular Western individualism While not arguing against global citizenship education per se the book argues that in its current forms it has significant limits that proponents have not yet acknowledged which may very well undermine it in the long run Education, Leadership and Business Ethics Ronald F. Duska, 2007-08-28
