

25th Anniversary Event Welcoming Remarks

Good Afternoon everyone. I am Mohan Ramamurthy and I am Director of Unidata.

It is my distinct honor and high privilege to welcome you all to this 25th Anniversary event to celebrate an important milestone in Unidata's history.

I want thank you all for taking the time from your busy schedules (or retired life!) to join us for this occasion. It is so wonderful to see and be in the company of so many friends, colleagues, and the wise sages of the atmospheric science community.

We have planned an exciting program for you that includes reminiscences from founding fathers, early community activists, our sponsors, our partners in agencies and academia, and the leadership in UCAR and NCAR, along with reflections on what the community created a quarter of a century ago and what Unidata means to many of you.

Some of you know that I am fond of borrowing a phrase from Abraham Lincoln's historic Gettysburg address but applied in the Unidata context: Unidata, a program of the community, by the community, and for the community. Over the next two days you will come to understand and appreciate what I mean.

With all humility I would like to add that, what started as a modest project by a cadre of visionary academics, which they called the University Data Project, or Unidata for short, has today become a quintessential facility for the atmospheric and related sciences, one that embodies the community spirit and ownership in its purest form.
