A Handbook of Philippine Folklore Mellie Leandicho Lopez,2006 The voluminous book provides a range of international theories and methodologies in analytical folklore investigations and a classification scheme based on genre is offered as the system of taxonomy for Philippine traditional materials Lopez counts on the regional folklorists to refine the classification according to the texts of their respective areas The different genres too are explained and examined in another part of Lopez s study The reader will definitely find interesting and useful the illustrative examples for each genre American First

Sign of Jonas Thomas Merton,2002-11-18 This diary of a monastic life is a continuation of The Seven Storey Mountain Astonishing Commonweal Chronicling six years of Thomas Merton s life in a Trappist monastery The Sign of Jonas takes us through his day to day experiences at the Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemani where he lived in silence and prayer for much of his life Concluding with the account of Merton s ordination as a priest this diary documents his growing acceptance of his vocation and the greater meaning he found within his private world of contemplation This book is made unmistakably real and almost at times unbearably poignant by the fact that the exuberance of youth so often wells up through it with rapture impatience and even bluster The New York Times A stirring book the most readable and on the whole most illuminating of the author s writings Catholic World The Annual American Catalogue 1886-1900 ,1898 The Shadow-Line Joseph

Conrad,2013-10-10 Joseph Conrad s short novel The Shadow Line A Confession 1917 is one of the key works of early twentieth century fiction This edition established through modern textual scholarship and published as part of the Cambridge Edition of the Works of Joseph Conrad presents Conrad s only major work written during the First World War and its 1920 preface in forms more authoritative than any so far printed Correspondence reveals that the part and chapter divisions present in the historical editions lack authorial sanction and this edition of The Shadow Line offers a continuous text for the first time restoring to the narrative a fluency and dramatic intensity not hitherto found in any printing An Introduction and Explanatory Notes as well as maps and illustrations enrich this volume The Appendices publish materials relevant to Conrad s maritime career and to the publishing of the American serial and the Apparatus allows the reader to follow the creative process Evolution of Desire Cynthia L Haven,2018-04-01 Ren Girard 1923 2015 was one of the leading thinkers of our era a provocative sage who bypassed prevailing orthodoxies to offer a bold sweeping vision of human nature human history and human destiny His oeuvre offering a mimetic theory of cultural origins and human behavior inspired such writers as Milan Kundera and J M Coetzee and earned him a place among the forty immortals of the Acad mie Fran aise Too often however his work is considered only within various academic specializations This first ever biographical study takes a wider view Cynthia L Haven traces the evolution of Girard s thought in parallel with his life and times She recounts his formative years in France and his arrival in a country torn by racial division and reveals his insights into the collective delusions of our technological world and the changing nature of warfare Drawing on interviews with Girard and his colleagues Evolution of Desire A Life of Ren Girard provides an essential introduction to one of the twentieth century s most controversial and original minds Taiwan (Formosa). United States. Office of the Chief of Naval Operations,1944 The Waves Virginia Woolf,1998 One of Woolf s most experimental novels The Waves presents six characters in monologue from morning until night from childhood into old age against a background of the sea The result is a glorious chorus of voices that exists not to remark on the passing of events but to celebrate the connection between its various individual parts Radio Talks University of Michigan. Extension Service. Bureau of broadcasting,1929 Le Corbusier Le Corbusier,Arts Council of Great Britain,1987 A detailed biography and analysis of the work of Le Corbusier one of the most influential architects of the 20th century USSR ,1961 Civil Affairs Handbook United States. Office of the Chief of Naval Operations,United States. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. Far Eastern Unit,1944 Escape from the Pit Renia Kukielka,2023-11-01 At the end of 1944 while World War II was still raging nineteen year old Renia Kukielka published her Hebrew language memoir about the Holocaust The account may well be the first of its kind In her powerful and raw story she portrays life in the ghettos and her three years of wandering in disguise as a Polish Catholic trying to escape from the German onslaught She also recounts how she served for almost a year as a courier between ghettos for the Zionist youth movement s underground cell in Bendzin carrying weapons money and messages until she was arrested by the Gestapo in 1943 She was tortured in a high security prison but after a daring escape she was able to flee to British Mandate Palestine with other members of the resistance Kukielka s memoir manages to combine both immediacy and hindsight It stands out for its descriptions of life and activities outside of the ghettos and concentration camps in wartime Poland and for its focus on Zionist youth resistance to the Holocaust It also provides a somewhat rare female perspective on the Holocaust and offers insight into how much was known about the scale of the Nazi atrocities during the war Following the book s initial publication in Hebrew in 1944 an unauthorized English language edition was published in the United States in 1947 The present expanded text includes a scholarly introduction notes and a historical afterword which help to explain and contextualize Kukielka s personal account School ,1923 Culinary Landmarks Elizabeth Driver,2008-04-05 Culinary Landmarks is a definitive history and bibliography of Canadian cookbooks from the beginning when La cuisini re bourgeoise was published in Quebec City in 1825 to the mid twentieth century Over the course of more than ten years Elizabeth Driver researched every cookbook published within the borders of present day Canada whether a locally authored text or a Canadian edition of a foreign work Every type of recipe collection is included from trade publishers bestsellers and advertising cookbooks to home economics textbooks and fund raisers from church women s groups The entries for over 2 200 individual titles are arranged chronologically by their province or territory of publication revealing cooking and dining customs in each part of the country over 125 years Full bibliographical descriptions of first and subsequent editions are augmented by author biographies and corporate histories of the food producers and kitchen equipment manufacturers who often published the books Driver s excellent general introduction sets out the evolution of the cookbook genre in Canada while brief introductions for each province identify regional differences in developments and trends Four indexes and a Chronology of Canadian Cookbook History provide other points of access to the wealth of material in this impressive reference book
