The Naive And Sentimental Lover Coronet S English Edition:

The Naive and Sentimental Lover John Le Carré, 1990 Aldo Cassidy is the naive and sentimental lover A successful judicious man he is wrenched away from the ordered certainties of his life by a sudden encounter with Shamus a wild carousing artist and Helen his nakedly alluring wife Cassidy plunged into a whirlpool of recklessness and spontaneity becomes a man bewildered and agonised as he is torn between two poles of a nature more complex than he had ever imagined The Visible and the Invisible Wolfram Schommers, 1998 How do we get an idea from the physical world There is basically only one possibility namely the dialogue with nature i e we create a theoretical conception of the world by thinking and then we check this conception with the help of measuring instruments In this connection the following question arises Does there exist for each element of the theory an element specific deflection at the measuring instrument In other words has each element of the theory a counterpart in the actual reality If not then the theory contains metaphysical elements i e elements which have no counterpart in reality In this book it is argued that there are obviously no theoretical conceptions of the world which are free of metaphysical elements This is not only valid in connection with matter but also for the conceptions of space and time The consequences in connection with modern conceptions of the world are outlined
