Her Neighbor's Wife Lauren Jae Gutterman,2019-11-01 At first glance Barbara Kalish fit the stereotype of a 1950s wife and mother Married at eighteen Barbara lived with her husband and two daughters in a California suburb where she was president of the Parent Teacher Association At a PTA training conference in San Francisco Barbara met Pearl another PTA president who also had two children and happened to live only a few blocks away from her To Barbara Pearl was the most gorgeous woman in the world and the two began an affair that lasted over a decade Through interviews diaries memoirs and letters Her Neighbor s Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women like Barbara Kalish who struggled to balance marriage and same sex desire in the postwar United States In doing so Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay bars and into the homes of married women who tended to engage in affairs with wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives through work at church or in their neighborhoods In the late 1960s and 1970s the lesbian feminist movement and the no fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives increasingly however these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination typically in legal battles over child custody Well into the 1980s many women remained ambivalent about divorce and resistant to labeling themselves as lesbian therefore complicating a simple interpretation of their lives and relationship choices By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives relationships with other women Her Neighbor s Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage

Relocations Karen Tongson,2011-08-01 What queer lives loves and possibilities teem within suburbia s little boxes Moving beyond the imbedded urban rural binary Relocations offers the first major queer cultural study of sexuality race and representation in the suburbs Focusing on the region humorists have referred to as Lesser Los Angeles a global prototype for sprawl Karen Tongson weaves through suburbia s nowhere spaces to survey our spatial imaginaries the aesthetic creative and popular materials of the new suburbia Across southern California s freeways beneath its overpasses and just beyond its winding cloverleaf interchanges Tongson explores the improvisational archives of queer suburban sociability from multimedia artist Lynne Chan's JJ Chinois projects and the amusement park night clubs of 1980s Orange County to the imperial legacies of the region known as the Inland Empire By taking a hard look at the cosmopolitanism historically considered de rigeur for queer subjects while engaging with the so called New Suburbanism that has captivated the national imaginary in everything from lifestyle trends to electoral politics Relocations radically revises our sense of where to see and feel queer of color sociability politics and desire
