The ABCs of Classic Hollywood Robert B. Ray, 2008-04-30 Speaking about the kind of filmmaking now known as Classic Hollywood the most popular and influential cinema ever invented Vincente Minnelli once gave away its secret I feel that a picture that stays with you is made up of a hundred or more hidden things They're things that the audience is not conscious of but that accumulate What are those hidden things Can we invent a method that will enable us to discover them Robert Ray attempts to answer those questions by looking closely at four movies from the 1930 1945 period when the American studio system reached the peak of its economic and cultural power Grand Hotel The Philadelphia Story The Maltese Falcon and Meet Me in

St Louis To avoid the predictable generalizations that have plagued film studies Ray works with the movies details Grand Hotel s room assignments or Meet Me in St Louis s ketchup which are treated as mysterious but promising clues By producing at least one entry for every letter of the alphabet Ray demonstrates that a movie s details have much to tell us The ABCs of Classic Hollywood is a movie primer a deceptively simple book that spells out a fascinating account of the most powerful storytelling system ever designed Godard Colin MacCabe,2014-02-18 An intimate portrait of the turmoil that spawned the New Wave in French Cinema and the story of its greatest director Jean Luc Godard Godard s early films revolutionized the language of cinema Hugely prolific in his first decade Breathless Contempt Pierrot le Fou Alphaville and Made in USA are just a handful of the seminal works he directed Godard introduced filmgoers to the generation of stars associated with the trumpeted sexuality of postwar movies and culture Brigitte Bardot Jean Seberg Jean Paul Belmondo and Anna Karina As the sixties wore on however Godard s life was transformed The Hollywood he had idolized began to disgust him and in the midst of the socialist ferment in France his second wife introduced him to the activist student left From 1968 to 1972 Europe s greatest director worked in the service of Maoist politics and continued thereafter to experiment on the far peripheries of the medium he had transformed His extraordinary later works are little seen or appreciated yet he remains one of Europe s most influential artists Drawing on his own working experience with Godard and his coterie Colin MacCabe in this first biography of the director has written a thrilling account of the French cinema s transformation in the hands of Truffaut Rohmer Rivette and Chabrol critics who toppled the old aesthetics by becoming legendarily directors themselves and Godard s determination to make cinema the greatest of the arts Information Literacy Instruction that Works Patrick Ragains,2013-06-27 Information literacy and library instruction are at the heart of the academic library s mission But how do you bring that instruction to an increasingly diverse student body and an increasingly varied spectrum of majors In this updated expanded new second edition featuring more than 75% new content Ragains and 16 other library instructors share their best practices for reaching out to today s unique users Readers will find strategies and techniques for teaching college and university freshmen community college students students with disabilities and those in distance learning programs Alongside sample lesson plans presentations brochures worksheets handouts and evaluation forms Ragains and his contributors offer proven approaches to teaching students in the most popular programs of study including English Literature Art and Art History Film Studies History Psychology Science Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources Hospitality Business Music Anthropology Engineering Coverage of additional special topics including legal information for non law students government information and patent searching make this a complete guide to information literacy instruction A Companion to Jean Renoir Alastair Phillips,Ginette Vincendeau,2013-04-11 A Companion to Jean Renoir An extraordinary collection of essays that more than fulfills the aims of its editors Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau The essays offer exciting original work from younger scholars as well as long established authorities all of which offer
