Encyclopedia of Hip Hop Literature Tarshia L. Stanley,2008-12-30 Hip Hop literature also known as urban fiction or street lit is a type of writing evocative of the harsh realities of life in the inner city Beginning with seminal works by such writers as Donald Goines and Iceberg Slim and culminating in contemporary fiction autobiography and poetry Hip Hop literature is exerting the same kind of influence as Hip Hop music fashion and culture Through more than 180 alphabetically arranged entries this encyclopedia surveys the world of Hip Hop literature and places it in its social and cultural contexts

Entries cite works for further reading and a bibliography concludes the volume Coverage includes authors genres and works as well as on the musical artists fashion designers directors and other figures who make up the context of Hip Hop literature Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia concludes with a selected general bibliography Students in literature classes will value this guide to an increasingly popular body of literature while students in social studies classes will welcome its illumination of American cultural diversity

Race and Secularism in America Jonathon S. Kahn, Vincent W. Lloyd, 2016-03-01 This anthology draws bold comparisons between secularist strategies to contain privatize and discipline religion and the treatment of racialized subjects by the American state Specializing in history literature anthropology theology religious studies and political theory contributors expose secularism s prohibitive practices in all facets of American society and suggest opportunities for change

Word, Image, and the New Negro Anne Elizabeth Carroll, 2005 This book focuses on the collaborative illustrated volumes published during the Harlem Renaissance in which African Americans used written and visual texts to shape ideas about themselves and to redefine African American identity Anne Elizabeth Carroll argues that these volumes show how participants in the movement engaged in the processes of representation and identity formation in sophisticated and largely successful ways Though they have received little scholarly attention these volumes constitute an important aspect of the cultural production of the Harlem Renaissance Word Image and the New Negro marks the beginning of a long overdue recovery of this legacy and points the way to a greater understanding of the potential of texts to influence social change Anne Elizabeth Carroll is Assistant Professor of English at Wichita State University

The Souls of Mixed Folk Michele Elam, 2011-02-21 The Souls of Mixed Folk examines representations of mixed race in literature and the arts that redefine new millennial aesthetics and politics Focusing on black white mixes Elam analyzes expressive works novels drama graphic narrative late night television art installations as artistic rejoinders to the perception that post Civil Rights politics are bereft and post Black art is apolitical Reorienting attention to the cultural invention of mixed race from the social sciences to the humanities Elam considers the creative work of Lezley Saar Aaron McGruder Nate Creekmore Danzy Senna Colson Whitehead Emily Raboteau Carl Hancock Rux and Dave Chappelle All these writers and artists address mixed race as both an aesthetic challenge and a social concern and together they gesture toward a poetics of social justice for the mulatto millennium The Souls of Mixed Folk seeks a middle way between competing hagiographic and apocalyptic impulses in mixed race scholarship between those who proselytize mixed race as the great hallelujah to the race problem and those who can only hear the alarmist bells of civil rights destruction Both approaches can obscure some of the more critically astute engagements with new millennial iterations of mixed race by the multi generic cohort of contemporary writers artists and performers discussed in this book The Souls of Mixed Folk offers case studies of their creative work in an effort to expand the contemporary idiom about mixed race in the so called post race moment asking how might new millennial expressive forms suggest an aesthetics of mixed race And how might such an aesthetics productively reimagine the relations between race art and social equity in the twenty first century The Bahá'í Faith and African American History Loni Bramson,2021-09-09 This book examines the intersection of African American history with that of the Bah Faith in the United States Since the turn of the twentieth century Bah s in America have actively worked to establish interracial harmony within its own ranks and to contribute to social justice in the wider community becoming in the process one of the country s most diverse religious bodies Spanning from the start of the twentieth century to the early twenty first the essays in this volume examine aspects of the phenomenon of this religion confronting America s original sin of racism and the significant roles African Americans came to play in the development of the Bah Faith s culture identity administrative structures and aspirations Chicago Frederik Byrn Køhlert,2021-09-23 Chicago occupies a central position in both the geography and literary history of the United States From its founding in 1833 through to its modern incarnation the city has served as both a thoroughfare for the nation s goods and a crossroads for its cultural energies The idea of Chicago as a crossroads of modern America is what guides this literary history which traces how writers have responded to a rapidly changing urban environment and labored to make sense of its place in and implications for the larger whole In writing that engages with the world s first skyscrapers and elevated railroads extreme economic and racial inequality a growing middle class ethnic and multiethnic neighborhoods the Great Migration of African Americans and the city s contemporary incarnation as a cosmopolitan urban center Chicago has been home to a diverse literature that has both captured and guided the themes of modern America Teaching with Digital Humanities Jennifer Travis,Jessica DeSpain,2018-11-15 Jennifer Travis and Jessica DeSpain present a long overdue collection of theoretical perspectives and case studies aimed at teaching nineteenth century American literature using digital humanities tools and methods Scholars foundational to the development of digital humanities join educators who have made digital methods central to their practices Together they discuss and illustrate how digital pedagogies deepen student learning The collection s innovative approach allows the works to be read in any order Travis and DeSpain curate conversations on the value of project based collaborative learning examples of real world assignments where students combine close collaborative and computational reading how digital humanities aids in the consideration of marginal texts the ways in which an ethics of care can help students organize artifacts and how an activist approach affects debates central to the study of difference in the nineteenth century A supplemental companion website with substantial appendixes of syllabi and assignments is now available for readers of Teaching with Digital Humanities Seen & Not Heard Samantha Griffiths,2001 African American Culture Omari L. Dyson,Judson L. Jeffries Ph.D.,Kevin L.
