

Thatcher's choice in the big Tory split

THATCHER, Threatened

By TERENCE LANCASTER
THE Tory Party is split on Falklands Islands policy with Premier Margaret Thatcher and Foreign Secretary Francis Pym on an opposite collision course.

A cry of "Sell-out" by a Conservative MP summed up the anguish of right-wingers when Mr Pym was speaking in the Commons last night.

His speech contrasted with a robust performance by Mrs Thatcher earlier in the day.

Her words to her Government's original guns accompanied when Argentina invaded the island, six weeks ago today.

But Mr Pym was in a more conciliatory mood. He set down as the end of his speech to almost total silence from the Tories—and cheers from Labour.

What is obvious is that in the negotiations at the United Nations, Britain is prepared to make more concessions than Mrs Thatcher admitted.

If these concessions are enough to buy off the Argentines for the time being then Mrs Thatcher will be accused of a sell-out.

But there is only one alternative to a sell-out. It is rejection of the UN. And that is a dead end.

There was a Westminster last night. Conservative MPs were told that if they were asked about how far Britain should go in the search for peace.

Former Premier Edward Heath, asked to sit on the Falklands, suggested last night that a settlement from now.

He indicated his former opponents for suggesting that the Islanders could not vote any possible settlement.

Then he advised Mr Pym to ignore newspapers and a which said that the UN would not have a role to play.

A growing number of Tory MPs believe that the Government is moving for a Falklands settlement.

Mrs Thatcher said last night: "We are working for a peaceful settlement—a peaceful settlement."

FORMER Olympic gymnast Suzanne Shorrocks is to be a task force mascot.

Masters of 7 Troop Zulu company chose Suzanne "for her beauty and fitness" and asked the Mirror to put on their attention to the 21-year-old blonde.

Suzanne, now a model and TV presenter, said in London: "I'd be very pleased to be their mascot. It is nice of them to ask me."

TARGET: THE HERMES

ARGENTINE pilots have been ordered to make an all-out attempt to sink the British task force flagship, the carrier Hermes.

It was disclosed yesterday that 10 Argentine fighters were ordered to attack the group protecting the Hermes in the South.

They were brought down by several missiles and a third parachuted into the sea.

While trying to avoid the British ships.

The second wave, armed with bombs and missiles, managed to put a hole in the carrier's hull of oil. The third wave was turned away by a continuous barrage of anti-aircraft missiles.

United Nations in New York yesterday.

British ambassador Sir Anthony Parsons told after Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher: "We're still in trouble."

Mr James Allen, President of the British Shipbuilders' Association, said: "We are in a very difficult position. We are in a very difficult position. We are in a very difficult position."

The Old Timers English Edition:

The Old Timers Craig L. Barr, 2015-07-27 Carl Mosley awakens from a very realistic and bothersome dream which he shares immediately with his older brother Roy. Due to the detailed emotional nature of the dream, though Carl begins to wonder if somehow his memory has been altered. Is it possible the dream he had was his real life and he now lives a waking lie? Soon the brothers cross the path of a time traveler. He is hell bent on manipulating the past to further his self-righteous agenda, but to do so he requires the help of Carl and Roy. The brothers agree to travel into the recent past where they meet strange and zany characters with much to offer in the realm of self-reflection. For the Mosley brothers, their lives become unrecognizable overnight due to alterations in the past. Their fellow time traveler just might be a madman. Still, the fault is not all his. Messing with the past in order to change the future has the potential for good, but for Carl and Roy, they must learn the hard way the past is better left alone.

First Timers and Old Timers Kenneth L. Untiedt, 2012 The Texas Folklore Society has been alive and kicking for over one hundred years now, and I don't really think there's any mystery as to what keeps the organization going strong. The secret to our longevity is simply the constant replenishment of our body of contributors. We are especially fortunate in recent years to have had papers given at our annual meetings by new members, young members, many of whom are college or even high school students. These presentations are oftentimes given during sessions right alongside some of our oldest members. We've also had long-time members who've been around for years but had never yet given papers; thankfully, they finally took the opportunity to present their research, fulfilling the mission of the TFS to collect, preserve, and present the lore of Texas and the Southwest. You'll find in this book some of the best articles from those presentations. The first fruits of our youngest or newest members include Acayla Haile on the folklore of plants. Familiar and well-respected names like J. Rhett Rushing and Kenneth W. Davis discuss folklore about monsters and the classic widow's revenge tale. These works and the people who produced them represent the secret behind the history of the Texas Folklore Society as well as its future Kenneth L Untiedt Educating Asian Americans Russell Endo,Xue Lan Rong,2013-03-01 The achievement schooling and the ethnic identities of Asian American students are among the core areas in the field of Asian American education yet there is much that remains to be uncovered verified contradicted and learned through sound research especially as the Asian American population rapidly increases in size and in the diversification of its characteristics The chapters in this book deal present cutting edge work in these three areas and contain innovative perspectives new qualitative quantitative data and discussions of the implications of findings for educational policies practices and programs These chapters cover such specific topics as academic achievement gaps between Asian American and White students contemporary school experiences of Southeast Asians and of undocumented Asian American students perspectives on teaching immigrant and refugee students and the development of ethnic identities This work is authored by well known higher education faculty as well as emerging scholars Overall this material represents a valuable timely and useful contribution to the literature on Asian Americans that will be of interest to faculty administrators policymakers researchers and students The Function of Song in Contemporary British Drama Elizabeth Hale Winkler,1990 This comprehensive study formulates an original theory that dramatic song must be perceived as a separate genre situated between poetry music and theater It focuses on John Arden Margaretta D Arcy Edward Bond Peter Barnes John Osborne Peter Nichols Harold Pinter Tom Stoppard Peter Shaffer and John McGrath The Encyclopedia of Country Living, 50th Anniversary Edition Carla Emery,2025-08-05 OVER 1 MILLION COPIES SOLD The 50th anniversary edition of the classic manual for sustainable living with 900 pages covering basic country skills and wisdom for living off the land Whether you re homesteading prepping or living off grid keep your family healthy safe and self sufficient no matter what s going on in the world From homesteaders to urban farmers and everyone in between there is a desire for a simpler way of life a healthier and self sufficient natural lifestyle that allows you to survive and thrive even in uncertain times Carla Emery s classic guide will teach you how to live off the grid be prepared and do it yourself Can dry and preserve food Plan your garden with a beginner s guide to gardening Grow your own food Make 20 minute cheese Make your own natural skincare products Bake bread Cook on a wood stove Learn beekeeping Raise chickens goats and pigs Create natural skincare products Make organic bug spray Treat your family with homemade natural remedies Make fruit leather Forage for wild food Spin wool into yarn Mill your own flour Tap a maple tree And so much more The Encyclopedia of Country Living has been guiding readers for more than 50 years teaching you all the skills necessary for living independently off the land Whether you live in the city the country or anywhere in between this is the essential guide to living well and living simply Popular Music in Japan Toru Mitsui,2020-07-09 Popular music in Japan has been under the overwhelming influence of American Latin American and European popular music remarkably since 1945 when Japan was defeated in World War II Beginning with gunka and enka at Old-Time Music Makers of New York State Simon J. Bronner,1988-01-01 Ask an old timer what life was like in rural upstate New York during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and you will hear about the dances and bees that brought villagers and farmers together You will hear of favorite fiddlers who held center stage with dance tunes taken from early British and American sources You will hear of old time music and its significance to a people making the transition from a rural agricultural life to an urban industrial one Old Time Music Makers of New York State is the first book published on this rich legacy of traditional Anglo American music and dance It traces the development of old time music beginning with its movement into New York State from New England in the early nineteenth century and to its combination with commercial country music in the twentieth century Exploring the regional character of the music and its meaning to the people who enjoy it Bronner introduces memorable figures from the major periods in the development of old time music and he places their stories their lives and their music in the context of the region's cultural and historical changes This is much more than a regional study however Bronner brings to the fore issues of national scope and interest He discusses the relationship of old time music to the commercial country music with which it has been closely aligned and he challenges the prevailing wisdom that the origins of country music are in the South Musician fan folklorist and historian alike will benefit from and enjoy this book The many musical transcriptions annotations photographs and appendixes provide a valuable reference to be used again and again Cities in Translation Sherry Simon,2013-03-01 All cities are multilingual but there are some where language relations have a special importance These are cities where more than one historically rooted language community lays claim to the territory of the city This book focuses on four such linguistically divided cities Calcutta Trieste Barcelona and Montreal Though living with the ever present threat of conflict these cities offer the possibility of creative interaction across competing languages and this book examines the dynamics of translation in its many forms By focusing on a category of cities which has received little attention this study contributes to our understanding of the kinds of language relations that sustain the diversity of urban life Illustrated with photos and maps Cities in Translation is both an engaging read for a wide ranging audience and an important text in advancing theory and methodology in translation studies

Migration and Transformation: Pirkko Pitkänen,Ahmet İçduygu,Deniz Sert,2012-04-14 People's transnational ties and activities are acquiring ever greater importance and topicality in today's world The focus of this book lies in the complex and multi level processes of migrant transnationalism in four transnational spaces India UK Morocco France and

Turkey Germany and Estonia Finland The main question is how people's activities across national borders emerge function and change and how are they related to the processes of governance in increasingly complex and interconnected world The book is based on the findings of a three year research project TRANS NET which brought together internationally acknowledged experts from Europe Asia and Africa As no single discipline could investigate all the components of the topic in question the project adopted a multi disciplinary approach among the contributors there are sociologists policy analysts political scientists social and cultural anthropologists educational scientists and economists The chapters show that people's transnational linkages and migration across national boundaries entail manifold political economic social cultural and educational implications Although political social economic educational transformations fostered by migrant transnationalism constitute the main topic of the book the starting assumption is that the large scale institutional and actor centred patterns of transformation come about through a constellation of parallel processes
