Common Core Meets Education Reform Frederick M. Hess, Michael Q. McShane, 2014 How can the Common Core complement and not conflict with school improvement efforts already at work across the United States How can it be seamlessly integrated into accountability systems teacher preparation and development charter schools and educational technology This timely volume brings together prominent scholars and policy analysts to examine the pressing issues that will mark Common Core implementation Whether or not you agree with the standards the Common Core is coming and this book will help policymakers practitioners and other stakeholders anticipate the challenges and take steps to address them Common Core Meets Education Reform raises the hard questions about implementing and sustaining the Common Core State Standards so they don t end up in the dustbin of abandoned public education reforms These new standards can help students enormously in becoming problem solvers and critical thinkers which is essential in the 21st century but only if teachers become engaged in the rollout get the support they need and the fixation on high stakes testing gives way to a fixation on learning Randi

Weingarten president American Federation of Teachers Adopting the Common Core in a mad dash for federal gold policymakers across the country blew right past critical questions about how they'd implement the thing This volume in stark contrast meticulously studies the road ahead seeking out tripwires pitfalls and boulders making it a must read for anyone who hopes to avoid total Common Core disaster Neal McCluskey associate director Center for Educational Freedom Cato Institute Washington DC This balanced wide ranging and deeply informed book is certain to guide educators and reformers through a complex time of transition for U S education But it also turns out to be timely and clarifying as politicians battle over ambitious new academic standards with plenty of heat and smoke but appallingly little illumination Thanks to the authors for turning on some lights Chester E Finn Jr senior fellow Hoover Institution Stanford University and president Thomas B Fordham Institute Frederick M Hess is director of education policy studies at the American Enterprise Institute AEI and serves as executive editor of Education Next Michael Q McShane is a research fellow in education policy studies at AEI

New Literacies and Teacher Learning Michele Knobel,Judy Kalman,2016-03-30 New Literacies and Teacher Learning examines the complexities of teacher professional development today in relation to new literacies and digital technologies set within the wider context of strong demands for teachers to be innovative and to improve students learning outcomes Contributors hail from Argentina Australia Canada Finland Mexico Norway and the U S and work in a broad range of situations grade levels activities scales and even national contexts Projects include early year education through to adult literacy education and university contexts describing a range of approaches to taking up new literacies and digital technologies within diverse learning practices While the authors present detailed descriptions of using various digital resources like movie editing software wikis video conferencing Twitter and YouTube they all agree that digital stuff while important is not the central concern. Instead, what they foreground in their discussions are theory-informed pedagogical orientations, collaborative learning theories, the complexities of teachers' workplaces, and young people's interests. Thus, a key premise in this collection is that teaching and learning are about deep engagement, representing meanings in a range of ways. These include acknowledging relationships and knowledge, thinking critically about events, phenomena, and processes, and participating in valued social and cultural activities. The book shows how this kind of learning doesn't simply occur in a one-off session but takes time, commitment, and multiple opportunities to interact with others to explore, play, make mistakes, and get it right.

Adolescent Literacy in the Era of the Common Core Jacy Ippolito, Joshua Fahey Lawrence, Colleen Zaller, 2013. Adolescent Literacy in the Era of the Common Core provides school leaders, teachers, and others with strategies and best practices for advancing adolescent literacy in the classroom. Exceptionally clear and accessible, the book addresses a full range of topics in this vitally important field, including disciplinary literacy, vocabulary instruction, classroom discussion, motivation, and engagement related to digital literacy, the use of multiple texts, and writing to learn. This book presents usable knowledge of the highest order and of immediate value to school leaders and teachers. It will be required reading for all educators concerned with promoting and furthering adolescent literacy today. This volume is packed with new and useful ideas for educators working to promote adolescent literacy. Six essential and critical domains are discussed, providing instructional examples and frameworks for classroom use. This is the right book at the right time, describing instruction aligned with the Common Core State Standards. Rita M. Bean, professor emerita, University of Pittsburgh. A must read for middle and high school content teachers, instructional literacy coaches, and administrators. This book quickly brings newcomers up to date and both affirms and builds upon what others already know. Teachers and administrators alike will leave the book fully prepared for implementation of the Common Core State Standards and new technologies. This is a resource that won't just sit on a shelf. Nancy L. Shanklin, literacy language and culturally responsive teaching program, School of Education and Human Development, University of Colorado Denver. The editors present research and practice that address six essential domains of adolescent literacy instruction. Readers will find instructional strategies that they can do now, as well as guiding principles for ongoing professional development. Pamela A. Mason, director, Language and Literacy Program, and Jeanne Chall, Reading Lab, Harvard Graduate School of Education. Jacy Ippolito is an assistant professor in the School of Education at Salem State University. Joshua Fahey Lawrence is an assistant professor of Language, Literacy, and Technology in the Department of Education at University of California, Irvine. Colleen Zaller has a master's degree in applied linguistics with a focus on adolescent literacy and language development among English language learners.
