A Glasgow Trilogy George Friel,2009-05-01 Distinguished by irony compassion and the author's own dry wit these three novels paint a memorable picture of life in the streets schools and tenements of Glasgow in the 1950s and 60s With a unique vision of loneliness old age sexual longing hot young blood and youth's casual cruelty George Friel's books explore a dark comedy of tangled communication human need and fading community All these elements come together in the humorous parable of greed religion and slum youth that is The Boy Who Wanted Peace in the fate of old and disturbed Miss Partridge who is obsessed with the innocence of young Grace and in the mental collapse of Mr Alfred a middle aged school teacher who is in love with one of his pupils The humour realism and moral concern of Friel's work clearly anticipate and stand alongside the novels of Alan Spence Alasdair Gray William McIlvanney and James Kelman

Kirk,Iseabail Macleod,2013-10-01 The skillful use of the Scots language has long been a distinguishing feature of the literatures of Scotland The essays in this volume make a major contribution to our understanding of the Scots language past and present and its written dissemination in poetry fiction and drama and in non literary texts such as personal letters They cover aspects of the development of a national literature in the Scots language and they also give due weight to its international dimension by focusing on translations into Scots from languages as diverse as Greek Latin and Chinese and by considering the spread of written Scots to Northern Ireland the United States of America and Australia Many of the essays respond to and extend the scholarship of J Derrick McClure whose considerable impact on Scottish literary and linguistic studies is surveyed and assessed in this volume

Mr Alfred, M.A. George Friel,2009-08-01 Mr Alfred is an elderly schoolteacher dogged by a sense of failure The rejection of his poetry and his nightly escape to the pub all contribute to his malaise Perhaps most harrowing is his innocent but obsessive love for Rose one of his pupils This affair is maliciously reported and he is torn from his familiar job and transferred to an even rougher school Against a nightmarish background of gang warfare and public desecration the story reaches a frightening climax This novel provides significant observation of a critical period in the saga of modern urban youth But its most striking achievement is in its portrait of Mr Alfred whose values and sensitive nature are so tragically at odds with his environment
