The Line Between The Line Between English Edition:

The Lines Between Us Lawrence Lanahan, 2019-05-21 A masterful narrative with echoes of Evicted and The Color of Law that brings to life the structures policies and beliefs that divide us Mark Lange and Nicole Smith have never met but if they make the moves they are contemplating Mark a white suburbanite to West Baltimore and Nicole a black woman from a poor city neighborhood to a prosperous suburb it will defy the way the Baltimore region has been programmed for a century It is one region but separate worlds And it was designed to be that way In this deeply reported revelatory story duPont Award winning journalist Lawrence Lanahan chronicles how the region became so highly segregated and why its fault lines persist today Mark and Nicole personify the enormous disparities in access to safe housing educational opportunities and decent jobs As they eventually pack up their lives and change places bold advocates and activists in the courts and in the streets struggle to figure out what it will take to save our cities and communities Put money into poor segregated neighborhoods Make it possible for families to move into areas with more opportunity The Lines Between Us is a riveting narrative that compels reflection on America's entrenched inequality and on where the rubber meets the road not in the abstract but in our own backyards Taking readers from church sermons to community meetings to public hearings to protests to the Supreme Court to the death of Freddie Gray Lanahan deftly exposes the intricacy of Baltimore's hypersegregation through the stories of ordinary people living it shaping it and fighting it day in and day out This eye opening account of how a city creates its black and white places its rich and poor spaces reveals that these problems are not intractable but they are designed to endure until each of us despite living in separate worlds understands we have something at stake

Memoirs From the Edge: Exploring the Line Between Life and Death Jeb Corliss, 2022-04-28 Jeb Corliss is one of the most iconic BASE jumpers and wingsuit pilots of our time and his autobiography is an odyssey into madness Corliss breaks and rebuilds himself time and again learning what only pain and daring can teach The tales he brings back offer insight into the darkness that exists within the mind as well as his own unique way of coping Many grapple with mental illness in one way or another and Corliss gives a glaringly honest view of his struggle while traversing the world's most dangerous sports

The Dividing Line Between Success and Failure Gerrit Voermann, 2006 Since the Second World War liberalism has been much stronger in the Netherlands than in Germany The present volume compares the development of liberalism in both countries which took place under quite different conditions and without much mutual interaction from the early beginnings in the nineteenth century down to the twenty first century It tries to explain why Dutch liberals are nowadays doing better than their German counterparts
