The Mirror At Midnight A South African Journey:

The Mirror at Midnight Adam Hochschild, 2007 Publisher Description The Mirror at Midnight Adam Hochschild, 1991 The Mirror at Midnight Adam Hochschild, 2007-04-24 A stunning blend of reportage travelogue history and meditation by the New York Times bestselling author of King Leopold's Ghost Publishers Weekly National Book Award finalist Adam Hochschild brings a lifetime's familiarity with South Africa to bear in this eye-opening examination of a critical turning point in that nation's history the Great Trek of 1836-39 during which Dutch-speaking white settlers known as Boers journeyed deep into the country's interior to escape the British colonial administration The mass migration culminated with the massacre of indigenous Zulus in the 1838 Battle of Blood River Looking at the tensions of modern South Africa through the dramatic prism of the nineteenth century Hochschild vividly recreates the battle and its contentious commemoration by rival groups 150 years later In his epilogue Hochschild extends his view to the astonishing political changes that have occurred in the country in recent decades and the changes yet to be made Hochschild's incisive take on these events noted Nadine Gordimer is far more than an outsider's perception of the drama of our country Read him in particular to understand the rise of white extremism which is threatening the democratic vision of the African National Congress and its allied progressive constituency among people of all colors A good book for anyone who wants a succinct and precise account of how this fascinating country has got where it is This is a book I recommend warmly Archbishop Desmond Tutu One of the most illuminating books ever written on contemporary South Africa Publishers Weekly Thoroughly researched immensely readable A work of vivid reportage and astute political analysis San Francisco Chronicle New York Magazine, 1990-12-03 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The In-Between People Girma Bekele, 2011-03-29 In the midst of partial competing and often hostile forms of human solidarity David Bosch challenged the church to be the Alternative Community called to live in the in-between of various opposing socio-political economic and ecclesiastical polarities Girma Bekele explores and renews that call in the context of Ethiopia Acute poverty and the lingering question of the balance between ethnic distinctiveness and national unity together constitute a two-edged challenge to Christian identity Constructive dialogue that fosters unity is intrinsic to effective response to the plight of the poor This means a turning away from institutional self-preservation towards a contextually relevant mission that crosses all human-made frontiers Taking Ethiopia as the immediate context Dr Bekele offers important insight to the church in the majority world and beyond Sanctuary Christa Kuljian, 2013 Bishop Paul Verryn knew he had a problem when xenophobic violence erupted in May 2008 and the threat of it spreading to Central Methodist Church in downtown Johannesburg became very real There were over a thousand migrants living in the church Verryn's open door policy had plenty of critics both from within and outside the Church Back cover AF Press Clips United States Department of State. Bureau of African Affairs,1990 Politics By Other Means Richard Abel,2015-12-22 Politics by Other Means explores the fundamental question of how law can constrain political power by offering a pathbreaking account of the triumphant final decade of the struggle against apartheid Richard Abel presents case studies of ten major legal campaigns including challenges to pass laws black trade union demands for recognition state terror censorship resistance to the independent homelands and treason trials AF Press Clips ,1990 Shades of Difference Padraig O'Malley,2025-05-05 Mac Maharaj played a pivotal role in the liberation movement for nearly four decades suffering brutal tortures and twelve years imprisonment on Robben Island with Nelson Mandela It was Maharaj who smuggled out the manuscript of Mandela's autobiography and later re-entered South Africa to establish a political and military underground on a mission so secret that only those at the highest levels were even aware of its existence Drawing from extensive interviews with Maharaj over eleven years and hitherto unavailable documents Padraig O'Malley vividly renders a true tale of heroism and a gripping insider's look at the struggle for freedom in South Africa Transcultural English Studies Frank Schulze-Engler,Sissy Helff,2009 What is most strikingly new about the transcultural is its sudden ubiquity Following in the wake of previous concepts in cultural and literary studies such as creolization hybridity and syncretism and signalling a family relationship to terms such as transnationality translocality and transmigration transcultural terminology has unobtrusively but powerfully edged its way into contemporary theoretical and critical discourse The four sections of this volume denote major areas where transcultural questions and problematics have come to the fore theories of culture and literature that have sought to account for the complexity of culture in a world increasingly characterized by globalization transnationalization and interdependence realities of individual and collective life worlds shaped by the ubiquity of phenomena and experiences relating to transnational connections and the blurring of cultural boundaries fictions in literature and other media that explore these realities negotiate the fuzzy edges of ethnic or national cultures and participate in the creation of transnational public spheres as well as transcultural imaginations and memories and finally pedagogy and didactics where earlier models of teaching other cultures are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with cultural complexity both in what is being taught and in the people it is taught to and where target cultures have become elusive The idea of locating culture and literature exclusively in the context of ethnicities or nations is rapidly losing plausibility throughout an English speaking world that has long since been multi rather than monolingual Exploring the prospects and contours of Transcultural English Studies thus reflects a set of common challenges and predicaments that in recent years have increasingly moved centre stage not only in the New Literatures in English but also in British and American studies Rebel Cinderella Adam Hochschild,2020 Prologue Tumult at Carnegie Hall Tsar and queen Magic land City of the world Missionary to the slums Cinderella of the sweatshops

Finding the Trapdoor Adam Hochschild, 2017-01-30 For some 30 years Adam Hochschild's voice has been one of the most distinctive in American journalism With grace and wit he has brought to a startling variety of subjects a combination of adventurous reporting and personal honesty Hochschild's readers can count on an unobtrusive erudition a sense of justice and an irrepressible curiosity about life Admirers of Hochschild's Half the Way Home A Memoir of Father and Son will find in these articles the same warm autobiographical voice that made that book so memorable He revisits his time as a civil rights worker in Mississippi as a New England prep school student and as a teenager seeing apartheid firsthand in South Africa But readers will find much more as well profiles of an adoptive Gypsy and of a governor general's son turned revolutionary essays about Ernest Hemingway and John F Kennedy a journey to one of the most remote corners of the Amazon rain forest and a remarkable evocation of two of Hochschild's personal heroes who in hillside trenches at the height of the Russian Civil War faced each other across a battlefield

Bury the Chains Adam Hochschild, 2006-02-10 From the author of King Leopold's Ghost a narrative history of the social justice campaign formed in the fight to free the slaves of the British Empire In early 1787 twelve men a printer a lawyer a clergyman and others united by their hatred of slavery came together in a London printing shop and began the world's first grass roots movement battling for the rights of people on another continent Masterfully stoking public opinion the movement's leaders pioneered a variety of techniques that have been adopted by citizens movements ever since from consumer boycotts to wall posters and lapel buttons to celebrity endorsements A deft chronicle of this groundbreaking antislavery crusade and its powerful enemies Bury the Chains gives a little celebrated human rights watershed its due A San Francisco Chronicle Bestseller A Book Sense Selection By far the most readable and rounded account we have of British antislavery a campaign that as the author rightly claims helped to change the world and can be seen as a prototype of the modern social justice movement Robin Blackburn Los Angeles Times Book Review A thrilling substantive and oftentimes raw work of narrative history In its own fashion it furthers the abolitionists crucial work of lifting our moral blindness Maureen Corrigan National Public Radio's Fresh Air

Revolutionary Armies in the Modern Era S.P. Mackenzie, 2013-01-11 This presents a major re evaluation of the standard view of revolutionary armies the range of attitudes towards the role of heroic individuals the formation and leadership of armies and the differences and similarities between such armies Beginning with an exploration of the New Model Army of the 1640s a force whose name itself seems to denote its revolutionary credentials the author presents ten case studies from around the globe including the American War of Independence The French Revolution The Zulu Boer War the Waffen SS and the Viet Cong Through a detailed analysis of source material he examines the images connected with these armies both historical and recent and assesses these images in their socio political and nationalist contexts

Writing to Change the World Mary Pipher, PhD, 2007-05-01 From the 1 New York Times bestselling author of Reviving Ophelia Another Country and The Shelter of Each Other comes an inspirational book that shows how words can change the world Words are the most powerful tools at our disposal With them writers have saved lives and taken them brought justice and confounded it started wars and ended them Writers can change the way we think and transform our definitions of right and wrong Writing to Change the World is a beautiful paean to the transformative power of words Encapsulating Mary Pipher's years as a writer and therapist it features rousing commentary personal anecdotes memorable quotations and stories of writers who have helped reshape society It is a book that will shake up readers beliefs expand their minds and possibly even inspire them to make their own mark on the world

Half the Way Home Adam Hochschild, 2005 From the author of the best selling King Leopold's Ghost this haunting and deeply honest memoir tells of Adam Hochschild's conflicted relationship with his father the head of a multinational mining corporation The author lyrically evokes his privileged childhood on an Adirondack estate a colorful uncle who was a pioneer aviator and fighter ace and his first explorations of the larger world he encountered as he came of age in the tumultuous 1960s But above all this is a story of a father and his only son and of the unexpected peace finally made between them

Lessons from a Dark Time and Other

Essays Adam Hochschild, 2018-10-02 In this rich collection bestselling author Adam Hochschild has selected and updated over two dozen essays and pieces of reporting from his long career Threaded through them all is his concern for social justice and the people who have fought for it The articles here range from a California gun show to a Finnish prison from a Congolese center for rape victims to the ruins of gulag camps in the Soviet Arctic from a stroll through construction sites with an ecologically pioneering architect in India to a day on the campaign trail with Nelson Mandela Hochschild also talks about the writers he loves from Mark Twain to John McPhee and explores such far reaching topics as why so much history is badly written what bookshelves tell us about their owners and his front row seat for the shocking revelation in the 1960s that the CIA had been secretly controlling dozens of supposedly independent organizations With the skills of a journalist the knowledge of a historian and the heart of an activist Hochschild shares the stories of people who took a stand against despotism spoke out against unjust wars and government surveillance and dared to dream of a better and more just world
