*The Glories of Mary, Mother of God. Based on that of 1837, Etc. [Edited by J. Lynch.], 1874      The Month of Mary Conceived Without Sin. Translated from the French. With an Introduction by F. W. Faber Auguste Joseph Alphonse GRATRY, 1860      The Virgin mother of good counsel containing an account of the translation of the miraculous picture [at Genazzano] by the author of 'The penitent instructed'. Translation and Gender Luise Von Flotow, 2016-04-08 The last thirty years of intellectual and artistic creativity in the 20th century have been marked by gender issues Translation practice translation theory and translation criticism have also been powerfully affected by the focus on gender As a result of feminist praxis and criticism and the simultaneous emphasis on culture in translation studies translation has become an important site for the exploration of the cultural impact of gender and the gender specific influence of culture With the dismantling of universal meaning and the struggle for women's visibility in feminist work and with the interest in translation as a visible factor in cultural exchange the linking of gender and translation has created fertile ground for explorations of influence in writing rewriting and reading Translation and Gender places recent work in translation against the background of the women's movement and its critique of patriarchal language It explains translation practices derived from experimental feminist writing the development of openly interventionist translation strategies the initiative to retranslate fundamental texts such as the Bible translating as a way of recuperating writings lost in patriarchy and translation history as a means of focusing on women translators of the past
