The Motherless Child Project:

The Motherless Child in the Novels of Pauline Hopkins Jill Bergman, 2012-12-17 Well known in her day as a singer playwright author and editor of the Colored American Magazine Pauline Hopkins 1859-1930 has been the subject of considerable scholarly attention over the last twenty years. Academic review of her many accomplishments however largely overlooks Hopkins's contributions as novelist. The Motherless Child in the Novels of Pauline Hopkins the first book length study of Hopkins's major fiction fills this gap offering a sustained analysis of motherlessness in Contending Forces, Hagar's Daughter, Winona and Of One Blood. Motherlessness appears in all of Hopkins's novels. The motif Jill Bergman asserts resonated profoundly for African Americans living with the legacy of abduction from a motherland and familial fragmentation under slavery. In her novels motherlessness serves as a trope for the national alienation of post Reconstruction African Americans. The longing and search for a maternal figure then represents an effort to reconnect with the absent mother a missing parent and a lost African history and heritage. In Hopkins's oeuvre the image of the mother of African heritage a source of both identity and persecution becomes a source of power and possibility. Bergman shows how historical events such as Bleeding Kansas the execution of John Brown and the Middle Passage gave rise to a sense of motherlessness and how Hopkins's work engages with that of other contemporaneous race activists. This illuminating study opens new terrain not only in Hopkins scholarship but also in the complex interchanges between literary African American psychoanalytic feminist and postcolonial studies.

The Blue Star is the harbinger. Between now and somewhere in 2013-2014 when the Red Star appears, great shifts in human consciousness will continue. With the fulfillment of the Mayan Long Count calendar in 2012 and the appearance of the Red Star, many are predicting that human consciousness will rise to the next level. Although there may be catastrophic events associated with this period and life as we know it will surely change if we do the work, this will not be the Apocalypse. In The Astrology of 2012 and Beyond Garrison explores the changing sky starting with the movement of Pluto into Capricorn, a region it hasn't inhabited since 1733. It's revolutionary times coming for individuals, governments and the planet. Garrison draws on traditional astrology and her understanding of the Hopi prophecies and their relationship to the Mayan 2012 predictions as well as the ending of the 13,000 year masculine kundalini cycle to offer practical advice and information that will help us evolve through the next four years, including what to expect during the nearly inevitable polar shift. The Monthly Packet of Evening Readings for Members of the English Church, 1866
