The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History Ivor Goodson, Ari Antikainen, Pat Sikes, Molly Andrews, 2016-10-04 In recent decades there has been a substantial turn towards narrative and life history study. Written by leading international scholars from the main contributing perspectives and disciplines, The Routledge International Handbook on Narrative and Life History seeks to capture the range and scope as well as the considerable complexity of the field of narrative study and life history work by situating these fields of study within the historical and contemporary context. Topics covered include: The historical emergences of life history and narrative study; Techniques for conducting life history and narrative study; Identity and politics; Generational history; Social and psycho-social approaches to narrative history. With chapters from expert contributors, this volume will prove a comprehensive and authoritative resource to students, researchers and educators interested in narrative theory, analysis and interpretation.

European Police Forces and Law Enforcement in the First World War Jonas Campion, Laurent López, Guillaume Payen, 2019-11-08 This book offers a global history of civilian military and gendarmerie style policing around the First World War. Whilst many aspects of the Great War have been revisited in light of the centenary and in spite of the recent growth of modern policing history, the role and fate of police forces in the conflict has been largely forgotten. Yet the war affected all European and extra-European police forces. Despite their diversity, all were confronted with transnational factors and forms of disorder and suffered generally from mass conscription. During the conflict, societies and states were faced with a crisis situation of unprecedented magnitude with mass mechanised killing on the battle field and starvation, occupation, destruction and in some cases even revolution on the home front. Based on a wide geographical and chronological scope from the late nineteenth century to the interwar years, this collection of essays explores the policing of European belligerent countries alongside their empires and neutral countries. The book's approach crosses traditional boundaries between neutral and belligerent nations, centres and peripheries and frontline and rear areas. It focuses on the involvement and wartime transformations of these law enforcement forces, thus highlighting underlying changes in police organisation, identity and practices across this period.
