Staying In Touch A Fieldwork Manual Of Tracking Procedures:

Staying in Touch ,1996 Conducting Substance Use Research Audrey L. Begun,Thomas K. Gregoire,Tom Gregoire,2014 This book assists scholars in conducting studies about substance use Organized around a translational science framework this practical guide takes readers step by step through issues specific to substance use research in study design participant recruitment and retention measurement and analysis and the processes involved in the implementation of evidence informed innovations Encountering Correctional Populations Kathleen A. Fox,Jodi Lane,Susan F.

Turner,2018-01-05 While many researchers study offenders and offending few actually journey into the correctional world to meet offenders face to face This book offers researchers practitioners and students a step by step guide to effectively research correctional populations providing field tested advice for those studying youth and adults on probation on parole and in jails and prisons The book addresses topics such as how to build rapport with offenders and those who monitor them how to select from the many types of correctional data that can be collected how to navigate the informed consent process and maintain research ethics and how to manage the logistics of doing research With personal stories what if scenarios case studies and real world tools like checklists and sample forms the authors share methods of negotiating the complexities that researchers often face as they work with those behind bars Handbook on Moving Corrections and Sentencing

Forward Pamela K. Lattimore,Beth M. Huebner,Faye S. Taxman,2020-11-10 This volume addresses major issues and research in corrections and sentencing with the goal of using previous research and findings as a platform for recommendations about future research evaluation and policy The last several decades witnessed major policy changes in sentencing and corrections in the United States as well as considerable research to identify the most effective strategies for addressing criminal behavior These efforts included changes in sentencing that eliminated parole and imposed draconian sentences for violent and drug crimes The federal government followed by most states implemented sentencing guidelines that greatly reduced the discretion of the courts to impose sentences The results were a multifold increase in the numbers of individuals in jails and prisons and on community supervision increases that have only recently crested There were also efforts to engage prosecutors and the courts in diversion and oversight including the development of prosecutorial diversion programs as well as a variety of specialty courts Penal reform has included efforts to understand the transitions from prison to the community including federal led efforts focused on reentry programming Community corrections reforms have ranged from increased surveillance through drug testing electronic monitoring and in some cases judicial oversight to rehabilitative efforts driven by risk and needs assessment More recently the focus has included pretrial reform to reduce the number of people held in jail pending trial efforts that have brought attention to the use of bail and its disproportionate impact on people of color and the poor This collection of chapters from leading researchers addresses a wide array of the latest research in the field A unique approach featuring responses to the original essays by active researchers spurs discussion and provides a foundation for developing directions for future research and policymaking

Disasters in Field Research

Gillian H. Ice, Darna L. Dufour, Nancy J. Stevens, 2015-01-22 From ravenous ants and temperamental gear to debilitating illness and unpredictable politics field research can be fraught with challenges and opportunities for mishap Disasters in Field Research is your guide to what can go wrong while conducting fieldwork and what you can do to avoid or minimize the impact of unexpected events Ice Dufour and Stevens address the issues confronting both students and professional researchers as they embark on field research For example permits may be difficult to obtain or even revoked at the last minute Cultural differences and misunderstandings can disrupt data collection Equipment can be held up by customs or fail to work as expected The authors offer practical advice on preparing for such possibilities while active researchers from a wide array of disciplines relate in brief first person narratives their own encounters with disaster how they solved or failed to solve the problem and their recommendations for avoiding similar issues in the future Each thematic chapter concludes with strategies and suggestions for making the most of your preparations recovering from missteps and coping with calamity The result is an excellent companion book for field methods courses in a variety of disciplines and an excellent companion to carry with you into the field
