The Criminal Alphabet Noel 'Razor' Smith, 2015-08-20 I have spent almost 33 of the last 53 years in and out of prison but mainly in I was a juvenile offender back in the mid 1970s and went on to become an adult prisoner in the 1980s and beyond My shortest prison sentence was 7 days for criminal damage and my longest sentence was life for bank robbery and possession of firearms I have 58 criminal convictions for everything from attempted theft to armed robbery and prison escape and I was a career criminal for most of my life What I do not know about criminal and prison slang could be written on the back of a postage stamp and still leave room for The Lord s Prayer From ex professional bank robber and bestselling author Noel Smith this is the most authoritative dictionary of criminal slang out there and an unmissable journey through words into the heart of the criminal world Coleridge's Laws Barry Hough, Howard Davis, Lydia Davis, 2010-01-01 Samuel Taylor Coleridge is best known as a great poet and literary theorist but for one quite short period of his life he held real political power acting as Public Secretary to the British Civil Commissioner in Malta in 1805 This was a formative experience for Coleridge which he later identified as being one of the most instructive in his entire life In this volume Barry Hough and Howard Davis show how Coleridge s actions whilst in a position of power differ markedly from the idealism he had advocated before taking office shedding new light on Coleridge s sense of political and legal morality Toward a Prosecutor for the European Union Volume 1 Katalin Ligeti, 2012-12-17 In an era in which the EU s influence in criminal law matters has expanded rapidly attention has recently turned to the possible creation of a European Public Prosecutor s Office This two volume work presents the results of a study carried out by a group of European criminal law experts in 2010 2012 with the financial support of the EU Commission whose aims were to examine in detail current public prosecution systems in the Member States and to scrutinise proposals for a new European office Volume 1 begins with thorough descriptions of 20 different national legal systems of investigation and prosecution addressing a range of evidential and procedural safeguards. These will serve as a point of reference for all future research on public prosecutors. Volume 1 also contains a series of cross-cutting studies of the key issues that will inform debates about the creation of a European Public Prosecutor's Office, including studies of vertical cooperation in administrative investigations in subsidy and competition cases, the accession of the EU to the ECHR, judicial control in cooperation in criminal matters, mutual recognition and decentralised enforcement of European competition law. Volume 2, which will be published in 2013, presents a draft set of model rules for the procedure of the European Public Prosecutor's Office and continues with a set of comparative studies of the national legal systems that cover the gathering of evidence, seizure of assets, arrests, tracking and tracing, prosecution measures, procedural safeguards, the presumption of innocence and the right to silence, access to the file and victim reconciliation. Volume 2 concludes with the final report written by Professor Ligeti summarising the findings of the group and reporting on the prospects for the proposed reform.

Missing and Sexually Exploited Children in the Enlarged EU Gert Vermeulen, 2005. The book comprises country reports of the 10 new EU Member States. Each country report provides essential definitional information regarding the various forms of sexual exploitation of children and types of missing children, outlines the way data collection on sexual exploited and missing children by various governmental, police, judicial, other and nongovernmental actors is organised and delivers available data on the phenomena concerned. A final comparative report bridges the country report information into a first epidemiological state of the art for the 10 new Member States and for the entire enlarged EU, comparing the newly gathered information with information collected in the initial 15 Member States during a previous study, the report of which has been published in January 2004 as the first book in the Childscope series.

The Criminal History of the English Government Elias Regnault, 1843. The Global Prosecution of Core Crimes under International Law

Christopher Soler, 2019-09-18. This book deals with the prosecution of core crimes and constitutes the first comprehensive analysis of the horizontal and vertical systems of enforcement of international criminal law and of their inter-relationship. It provides a global jurisprudential exposition in assessing the grounds for refusal of surrender to the International Criminal Court and of extradition to another State. It also offers insights into legal perspectives which improve the prevailing enforcement regimes of various models of criminal justice, including hybrid criminal tribunals, special criminal courts, judicial panels and partnerships, and other budding sui generis judicial and/or prosecutorial institutions. The book espouses a human rights law-oriented critique to the enforcement of domestic, regional and international criminal justice and is aimed at legal practitioners, prosecutors, defence lawyers, magistrates and judges, jurists, criminal justice experts, penologists, legal researchers, human rights activists and law students. Christopher Soler lectures Maltese criminal law, international criminal law and public international law at the University of Malta. He obtained his Ph.D. from the University of Amsterdam in The Netherlands.
