The Merry Adventures of ROBIN HOOD Howard Pyle, 2014-08-16 IN MERRY ENGLAND in the time of old when good King Henry the Second ruled the land there lived within the green glades of Sherwood Forest near Nottingham Town a famous outlaw whose name was Robin Hood No archer ever lived that could speed a gray goose shaft with such skill and cunning as his nor were there ever such yeomen as the sevenscore merry men that roamed with him through the greenwood shades Right merrily they dwelled within the depths of Sherwood Forest suffering neither care nor want but passing the time in merry games of archery or bouts of cudgel play living upon the King s venison washed down with draughts of ale of October brewing Not only Robin himself but all the band were outlaws and dwelled apart from other men yet they were beloved by the country people round about for no one ever came to jolly Robin for help in time of need and went away again with an empty fist And now I will tell how it came about that Robin Hood fell afoul of the law When Robin was a youth of eighteen stout of sinew and bold of heart the Sheriff of Nottingham proclaimed a shooting match and offered a prize of a butt of ale to whosoever should shoot the best shaft in Nottinghamshire Now quoth Robin will I go too for fain would I draw a string for the bright eyes of my lass and a butt of good October brewing So up he got and took his good stout yew bow and a score or more of broad clothyard arrows and started off from Locksley Town through Sherwood Forest to Nottingham It was at the dawn of day in the merry Maytime when hedgerows are green and flowers bedeck the meadows daisies pied and yellow cuckoo buds and fair primroses all along the briery hedges when apple buds blossom and sweet birds sing the lark at dawn of day the throstle cock and cuckoo when lads and lasses look upon each other with sweet thoughts when busy housewives spread their linen to bleach upon the bright green grass Sweet was the greenwood as he walked along its paths and bright the green and rustling leaves amid which the little birds sang with might and main and blithely Robin whistled as he trudged along thinking of Maid Marian and her bright eyes for at such times a youth s thoughts are wont to turn pleasantly upon the lass that he loves the best As thus he walked along with a brisk step and a merry whistle he came suddenly upon some foresters seated beneath a great oak tree Fifteen there were in all making themselves merry with feasting and drinking as they sat around a huge pasty to which each man helped himself thrusting his hands into the pie and washing down that which they ate with great horns of ale which they drew all foaming from a barrel that stood nigh Each man was clad in Lincoln green and a fine show they made seated upon the sward beneath that fair spreading tree Then one of them with his mouth full called out to Robin Hulloa where goest thou little lad with thy one penny bow and thy farthing shafts Then Robin grew angry for no stripling likes to be taunted with his green years Now quoth he my bow and eke mine arrows are as good as shine and moreover I go to the shooting match at Nottingham Town which same has been proclaimed by our good Sheriff of Nottinghamshire there I will shoot with other stout yeomen for a prize has been offered of a fine butt of ale Then one who held a horn of ale in his hand said Ho listen to the lad Why boy thy mother s milk is yet scarce dry upon thy lips and yet thou pratest of standing up with good stout men at Nottingham butts thou who art scarce able to draw one string of a two stone bow I ll hold the best of you twenty marks quoth bold Robin that I hit the clout at threescore rods by the good help of Our Lady fair At this all laughed aloud and one said Well boasted thou fair infant well boasted And well thou knowest that no target is nigh to make good thy wager      The Merry Adventures of Robin Hood Illustrated Howard

He was an indifferent student but his parents particularly his mother encouraged him to study art. The shaft flew straight the archer fell forward with a cry and lay on his face upon the ground his arrows rattling about him from out of his quiver the gray goose shaft wet with his heart's blood. Then before the others could gather their wits about them Robin Hood was gone into the depths of the greenwood. Some started after him but not with much heart for each feared to suffer the death of his fellow so presently they all came and lifted the dead man up and bore him away to Nottingham Town. Meanwhile Robin Hood ran through the greenwood. Gone was all the joy and brightness from everything for his heart was sick within him and it was borne in upon his soul that he had slain a man. Alas cried he thou hast found me an archer that will make thy wife to wring I would that thou hadst never said one word to me or that I had never passed thy way or even that my right forefinger had been stricken off ere that this had happened. In haste I smote but grieve I sore at leisure. And then even in his trouble he remembered the old saw that What is done is done and the egg cracked cannot be cured. The Merry
