Pauline Johnson,2014-11-11 an Indian he could see George s family indignant and hurt to the core at his marriage with a white girl he could see how impossible it would be for Lydia s people to ever understand the fierce resentment of the Indian parents that the family title could never continue under the family name He could see how little George s people would ever understand the white prejudice against them But the good man kept his own counsel determining only that when the war did break out he would stand shoulder to shoulder with these young lovers and be their friend and helper when even their own blood and kin should cut them off It was two years before this shy and taciturn man fully realized what the young chief and the English girl really were to him for affliction had laid a heavy hand on his heart First his gentle and angel natured wife said her long last good night to him Then an unrelenting scourge of scarlet fever swept three of his children into graves Then the eldest just on the threshold of sweet young maidenhood faded like a flower until she too said good night and slept beside her mother Wifeless childless the stricken missionary hugged to his heart these two George and Lydia and they who had labored weeks and months night and day nursing and tending these loved ones who had helped fight and grapple with death five times within two years only to be driven back heartsore and conquered by the enemy these two put away the thought of marriage for the time Joy would have been ill fitting in that household Youth was theirs health was theirs and duty also was theirs duty to this man of God whose house was their home whose hand had brought them together So the marriage did not take place at once but the young chief began making preparations on the estate he had The Moccasin Maker E. The Woman's Page Janice Anne Fiamengo, 2008-01-01 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries journalism politics and social advocacy were largely male preserves Six women however did manage to come to prominence through their writing and public performance Agnes Maule Machar Sara Jeannette Duncan E Pauline Johnson Kathleen Blake Coleman Flora MacDonald Denison and Nellie L McClung The Woman's Page is a detailed study of these six women and their respective works Focusing on the diverse sources of their rhetorical power Janice Fiamengo assesses how popular poetry journalism essays and public speeches enabled these women to play major roles in the central debates of their day A few of their names particularly those of McClung and Johnson are still well known today although studies of their writings and speeches are limited Others are almost entirely unknown an unfortunate fact given the wit intelligence and passion of their writing and self presentation Seeking to return their words to public attention The Woman's Page demonstrates how these women influenced readers and listeners regarding their society's most controversial issues

Contact Zones Myra Rutherdale, Katie Pickles, 2011-11-01 Contact Zones locates Canadian women's history within colonial and imperial systems As both colonizer and colonized sometimes even simultaneously women were uniquely positioned at the axis of the colonial encounter the so called contact zone between Aboriginals and newcomers Some women were able to transgress the bounds of social expectation while others reluctantly conformed to them Aboriginal women such as E Pauline Johnson Bernice Loft and Ethel Brant Monture shaped identities for themselves in both worlds By recognizing the necessity to perform they enchanted and educated white audiences across Canada On the other side of the coin newcomers imposed increasing regulation on Aboriginal women's bodies Missionaries for example preached the virtues of Christian conjugality over mixed race and polygamous marriages especially those that hadn't been ratified by the church The Department of Indian Affairs agents withheld treaty payments or removed the children of Aboriginal women who did not properly perform their duties as wives and mothers In short Aboriginal women were expected to consent to moral sexual and marital rules that white women were already beginning to contest Contact Zones draws upon a vast array of primary sources to provide insight into the ubiquity and persistence of colonial discourse and to demonstrate how it ultimately was an embodied experience Above all it shows how the colonial enterprise was about embodied contacts What bodies belonged inside the nation who were outsiders and who transgressed the rules these are the questions at the heart of this provocative book Jean Barman's chapter from Contact Zones Aboriginal Women on the Streets of Victoria Rethinking Transgressive Sexuality during the Colonial Encounter won the award from the Canadian Committee on the History of Sexuality Cecilia Morgan's Performing for Imperial Eyes Bernice Loft and Ethel Brant Monture Ontario 1930s 60s from Contact Zones was awarded the Hilda Neatby Prize in Canadian Women's History
