The Moon At Midnight The Bexham Trilogy Book:

The Moon At Midnight Charlotte Bingham, 2010-12-15 Set in the small fishing village of Bexham this follows the fortunes of the characters we met in The Chestnut Tree and The Wind off the Sea Million copy and Sunday Times bestselling author Charlotte Bingham has penned a novel so engaging and captivating you won't be able to put it down Fans of Louise Douglas Dinah Jefferies and Kristin Hannah will not be disappointed Charlotte Bingham portrays the characters with great sympathy and sets them firmly in the sixties There is tragedy humour and warmth If you like a good realistic story you will enjoy this HISTORICAL NOVELS REVIEW I couldn't wait to go to bed each night to continue reading the story Reader review Comfortable and stylish Reader review Just wonderful Reader review I found I couldn't put it down FANTASTIC Reader review WAR IS LONG OVER BUT NEW BATTLES ARE JUST BEGINNING 1962 times feel bleak again The threat of atomic warfare feels real and for many life seems all the more bewildering as they struggle to understand the new generation of the Sixties a generation for whom they made so many wartime sacrifices for whom they had such high hopes No sooner has the threat of nuclear war seemed to have passed than Judy Mathilda and Rusty are facing a new personal crisis brought about by their teenage children Still grieving for his lost wife Waldo Astley tries his best to help his three friends only to find himself falling in love with one of them Meanwhile the younger generation have their own problems all of which involve their families That all the generations find themselves once more united in a battle this time to save the village they love is both an irony and finally a saving grace Once more an enemy has to be defeated once more they must arm themselves but this time for a war of a very different kind

The Moon at Midnight Charlotte Bingham, 2003 It is late autumn 1962 and darkness is falling but not just over the idyllic fishing port of Bexham The threat of atomic warfare is so real that people are taking their children to work or staying home with their families as they face what they think might be the end of the world For some the threat is all the more bewildering as they struggle to understand the new generation of the Sixties a generation for whom they made so many wartime sacrifices for whom they had such high hopes No sooner has the threat of nuclear war seemed to have passed than Judy Mathilda and Rusty are facing a new personal crisis brought about by their teenage children Much as Waldo Astley would like to remain on the sidelines he finds it impossible and this too brings about bitter opposition from those caught up in the near tragedy Still grieving for his lost wife he tries his best to help his three friends only to find himself falling in love with one of them Meanwhile the younger generation have their own problems all of which involve their families That all the generations find themselves once more united in a battle this time to save the village they love is both an irony and finally a saving grace Once more an enemy has to be defeated once more they must arm themselves but this time for a war of a very different kind

In Distant Fields Charlotte Bingham, 2010-10-31 In Distant Fields by million copy and Sunday Times bestselling author Charlotte Bingham is a wonderfully heart wrenching and heart warming novel of love heartbreak and most importantly of all the remarkable nature of female friendship Fans of Louise Douglas Dinah Jefferies and Kristin Hannah will not be disappointed An engaging romantic and nostalgic read Daily Mail A rip roaring combination of high romance and breathless excitement Mail on Sunday As compelling as ever Woman Home Just wonderful Reader review I found I couldn't put it down FANTASTIC Reader review There has been a lot written about the Great War then and now and this should join the list of must be read books So forget WAR HORSE This is the one Reader review ALL ARE EQUAL IN LOVE AND WAR Christmas 1913 Kitty and Lady Partita are best friends despite vastly different backgrounds Partita has invited her friend Kitty to stay at her ancestral home Borders Castle The grandeur of Partita's family seat is in stark contrast to Kitty's home in London where she and her mother Violet struggle to maintain appearances despite Kitty's father gambling away the family money Kitty is introduced to the aristocracy a fascinating decorative and theatrical world and is enthralled desperately wanting to be part of this way of life But war breaks out not only irrevocably changing society but also the lives of these two beautiful young women The headstrong Partita and down to earth Kitty become nurses and selflessly care for the men horrifically injured in the trenches of WWI Will world events put a strain on their friendship or will the strength of their bond shine through

The House Of Flowers Charlotte Bingham, 2010-10-31 Fans of Louise Douglas Dinah Jefferies and Kristin Hannah will love this uplifting and moving wartime saga by the million copy and Sunday Times bestselling author Charlotte Bingham The author perfectly evokes the atmosphere of a bygone era WOMAN'S OWN As comforting and nourishing as a hot milky drink on a stormy night DAILY EXPRESS A rip roaring combination of high romance and breathless excitement MAIL ON SUNDAY These are characters you will really care about Reader review Very enjoyable and hard to put down Reader review Incredibly well written and engrossing Reader review EVERYONE IS DOING THEIR BIT FOR THE WAR EFFORT BUT WHAT SIDE ARE THEY ON 1941 England is at its lowest ebb undernourished and terrified of imminent invasion Even at Eden Park the beautiful country estate where Poppy Lily Kate Marjorie and her adopted brother Billy are working in espionage confidence is at an all time low and that is before the authorities discover there is a double agent operating from its MI5 unit As agents are gradually wiped out by the informant at Eden Park Poppy leaves to train as a pilot But as she closes the wooden shutters at the House of Flowers the old folly where she and her husband Scott began their married life she realises that they were made over a century before to keep out another invader England survived then will it survive again Have you read Daughters of Eden the first in the series

The Wind Off the Sea Charlotte Bingham, 2003 It is 1947 the worst winter in England since records began and even the sea is frozen For the women living in the little fishing port of Bexham the chronic lack of everything from fuel to food has left them reeling When Waldo Astley drives through thick Sussex snow into the village in his large American Buick it is to find Bexham filled not just with grumbling residents but frustrated wives and mothers forced back behind their stoves after the joy of the victory for which they fought so hard on the home front Government directives have ensured that the returning men resumed the jobs their women managed so brilliantly through the gruelling years of war But Waldo is no ordinary character and while he has come to Bexham on a personal mission his effect on all the residents is as warming as the electricity of which there is still such a shortage For Judy whose marriage to Walter has been badly affected by long years of separation for Rusty whose miscarriage has been mind shattering for Mathilda whose single motherhood has put her eligibility in jeopardy and for Meggie still not recovered from her alter ego as a secret agent No matter what the age or circumstances of the person Waldo Astley is not just a breath of fresh air but the wind off the sea      The Chestnut Tree Charlotte Bingham,2010-12-15 A compelling and touching evocation of the wartime spirit by the million copy and Sunday Times bestselling author Charlotte Bingham for fans of Louise Douglas and Dinah Jefferies A perfect escapist cocktail for summertime romantics MAIL ON SUNDAY As compelling as ever WOMAN HOME A holiday read that will keep you glued to your sun lounger SAFEWAY MAGAZINE The author perfectly evokes the atmosphere of a bygone era WOMAN S OWN A compulsive read with the attitudes mores and conditions of the 1940s accurately portrayed THE HISTORICAL NOVELS REVIEW I can t tear myself away from this trilogy Reader review WAR LOOMS BUT WHAT WILL BE THEIR GREATEST SACRIFICE It is the summer of 1939 and like the rest of Europe the residents of the little idyllic Sussex fishing port of Bexham are preparing for war The women of Bexham are all in their very individual ways determined to play an active part in the defence of their country In this manner the little Sussex village facing as it does the coastline of Nazi invaded France finds its closely sewn social fabric gradually unstitch inch by little inch as traditional roles are radically changed None of them are the same and yet with the men returning from war they are expected to slip back into their simple roles of mother daughter grandmother This more than anything perhaps is their greatest sacrifice Having been freed by war they have now to relinquish that very independence that gave them the liberty for which they once fought Only the chestnut tree planted by Corrie at the edge of the village flourishes in the accepted manner finally becoming the uniting symbol of all that has passed forever      The Chestnut Tree Charlotte Bingham,2002 It is 1939 and the residents of the idyllic fishing village of Bexham are preparing for war Judy Melton Meggie Gore Stewart Mathilda Eastcott and Rusty Todd are all determined to play an active role while the men are away fighting      The Wind Off The Sea Charlotte Bingham,2010-12-15 The war might be over but the hardship remains in this setting and story expertly portrayed by the million copy and Sunday Times bestselling author Charlotte Bingham for fans of Louise Douglas and Dinah Jefferies Heartwarming and full of period charm One of Britain s most bankable novelists DAILY EXPRESS A fitting sequel to the Chestnut Tree GOOD BOOK GUIDE Bingham writes with her usual flair HISTORICAL NOVELS REVIEW WILL A NEW ARRIVAL MEAN A BRIGHTER FUTURE It is 1947 the worst winter in England since records began For the women living in the little fishing port of Bexham the lack of everything from fuel to food has left them reeling When Waldo Astley drives through thick Sussex snow into the village in his large American Buick it is to find Bexham filled with frustrated wives and mothers forced back behind their stoves after the joy of the victory for which they fought so hard on the home front But Waldo is no ordinary character his effect on all the residents is as warming as the electricity of which there is still such a shortage For Judy whose marriage to Walter has been badly affected by long years of separation for Rusty whose miscarriage has been mind shattering for Mathilda whose single motherhood has put her eligibility in jeopardy and for Meggie still not recovered from her ordeal as a secret agent No matter what the age or circumstances of the person Waldo Astley is not just a breath of fresh air but the wind off the sea      The Moon at Midnight Dick Sullivan,2006-01-01 Melanie both this book and The Moon at Midnight please see above is a continuing story of the love between a man and a woman separated by circumstances and late in life love in age in fact Underlying both is the belief explained in prefaces that poetry is in essence spiritual that at its best it can induce a sense of the Divine and that the Divine is human love writ large
