Islamic Entrepreneurship Rasem N. Kayed, M. Kabir Hassan, 2013-12-16 This book discusses the idea that there is a specific Islamic form of entrepreneurship Based on extensive original research amongst small and medium sized enterprises in Saudi Arabia it shows how businesses are started and how they grow in the context of an Islamic economy and society It argues that as specific Islamic approaches to a wide range of economic activities are being formulated and implemented there is indeed a particular Islamic approach to entrepreneurship Examining the relationship between Islamic values and entrepreneurial activity the book considers whether such values can be more effectively used in order to raise the profile of Islamic entrepreneurship and also to promote alternatives to development in the contemporary business environment The book analyses the nature of entrepreneurship and the special qualities of Islamic entrepreneurship and discusses how the Islamic approach to entrepreneurship can be encouraged and developed further still

Women Entrepreneurs and Business Empowerment in Muslim Countries Minako Sakai, Amelia Fauzia, 2022-09-26 This book analyzes women entrepreneurs in Muslim countries who are using Islamic values to develop and run small businesses As a core case study the authors are using Indonesia as it is the largest Muslim country in the world by population The project examines supportive policies and economic programs in detail and considers their effects on the businesses of several women entrepreneurs Additionally the authors argue that this work life balance is critical for the definition of a successful female Muslim entrepreneur The monograph considers whether this new phenomenon indicates a change in the conception of ideal Muslim womanhood or whether it is a limited phenomenon with few impacts beyond Indonesia The book will appeal to academic and practitioner audience interested in Islam gender studies Middle Eastern and South Asian politics development anthropology and social policy

Rebranding Islam James Bourk Hoesterey, 2015-11-11 Kyai Haji Abdullah Gymnastiar known affectionately by Indonesians as Aa Gym elder brother Gym rose to fame via nationally televised sermons best selling books and corporate training seminars In Rebranding Islam James B Hoesterey draws on two years study of this charismatic leader and his message of Sufi ideas blended with Western pop psychology and management theory to examine new trends in the religious and economic desires of an aspiring middle class the political predicaments bridging self and state and the broader themes of religious authority economic globalization and the end s of political Islam At Gymnastiar s Islamic school television studios and MQ Training complex Hoesterey observed this charismatic preacher developing a training regimen called Manajemen Qolbu into Indonesia s leading self help program via nationally televised sermons best selling books and corporate training seminars Hoesterey s analysis explains how Gymnastiar articulated and mobilized Islamic idioms of ethics and affect as a way to offer self help solutions for Indonesia s moral economic and political problems Hoesterey then shows how after Aa Gym s fall the former celebrity guru was eclipsed by other television preachers in what is the ever changing mosaic of Islam in Indonesia Although Rebranding Islam tells the story of one man it is also an anthropology of Islamic psychology Islam, Modernity and Entrepreneurship among the Malays P.

Sloane,1998-11-23 The book is based on original research on the entrepreneurial leaders in the Malay community and on the author s own participation in Malay business ventures Sloane draws on her experience of working in Wall Street to analyse the ironies and contradictions in both the prevailing Western Asian and Malay definitions of entrepreneurship and the heroes of competing styles of capitalism English For Specific Purposes: English For Muslim Entrepreneurs Henri

Muslim Belonging in Secular India Taylor C. Sherman, 2015-08-25 Muslim Belonging in Secular India surveys the experience of some of India's most prominent Muslim communities in the early postcolonial period Muslims who remained in India after the Partition of 1947

faced distrust and discrimination and were consequently compelled to seek new ways of defining their relationship with fellow citizens of India and its governments Using the forcible integration of the princely state of Hyderabad in 1948 as a case study Taylor C Sherman reveals the fragile and contested nature of Muslim belonging in the decade that followed independence In this context she demonstrates how Muslim claims to citizenship in Hyderabad contributed to intense debates over the nature of democracy and secularism in independent India Drawing on detailed new archival research Dr Sherman provides a thorough and compelling examination of the early governmental policies and popular strategies that have helped to shape the history of Muslims in India since 1947

African Entrepreneurship Alusine Jalloh, 1999 Between

1961 and 1978 Muslim Fula immigrants from different West African countries became one of the most successful mercantile groups in Freetown the capital city of Sierra Leone African Entrepreneurship published by Ohio University Press on December 31 1999 examines the commercial activities of Fula immigrants and their offspring in Sierra Leone Author Alusine Jalloh explores the role of Islam in Fula commercial organizations and social relationships as well as the connection between Fula merchants and politics Departing from the prevailing scholarship Jalloh characterizes the Fula businesses as independent rather than appendages of Western expatriate commerce In addition to establishing successful businesses Fula merchants established Islamic educational institutions for propagating the Muslim faith and promoting Islamic scholarship This study also examines the evolution of Fula chieftaincy from the colonial era to the postcolonial period and documents the importance of mercantile wealth and networks in the election of Fula chiefs in Freetown African Entrepreneurship makes an important contribution to the understudied role of African business in Sierra Leone Generation M Shelina

Aston,Catherine Bishop,2020-07-29 This volume challenges those who see gender inequalities invariably defining and constraining the lives of women But it also broadens the conversation about the degree to which business is a gender blind institution owned and managed by entrepreneurs whose gender identities shape and reflect economic and cultural change Mary A Yeager Professor Emerita University of California Los Angeles This is the first book to consider nineteenth century businesswomen from a global perspective moving beyond European and trans Atlantic frameworks to include many other corners of the world The women in these pages who made money and business decisions for themselves rather than as employees ran a wide variety of enterprises from micro businesses in the grey market to large factories with international reach They included publicans and farmers midwives and property developers milliners and plumbers pirates and shopkeepers Female Entrepreneurs in the Long Nineteenth Century A Global Perspective rejects the notion that nineteenth century women were restricted to the home Despite a variety of legal and structural restrictions they found ways to make important but largely unrecognised contributions to economies around the world many in business Their impact on the economy and the economy s impact on them challenge gender historians to think more about business and business historians to think more about gender and create a global history that is inclusive of multiple perspectives Chapter one of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com The Good Entrepreneur Cristina Santini,2020-12-20 This book explores the relationship between entrepreneurship and doing good As research into entrepreneurship has evolved so has the business environment and the society in which entrepreneurs work Now more than ever entrepreneurs are found to reflect on personal commitment ethical issues and more recently the influence they could have on society In short they have embraced the concept of the good entrepreneur Over time many different strands of good entrepreneurship have emerged from social green and sustainable entrepreneurship to ecopreneurship and so forth Indeed some strands of research have merged while others have registered a lack of field research and analysis In this book the author argues that this excessive fragmentation has created the need for a reflection on the role of niches in entrepreneurship Providing analysis from multiple perspectives the author provides an overview of the relationship between entrepreneurship and doing good as well as an exploration of the drivers that promote research in this field and an outline of research dynamics Contributing to the current debate around the field of entrepreneurship and its ability to drive responsible and sustainable business practices this book presents a comprehensive guide for students graduate master and PhD academics and institutions and offers the reader an enhanced understanding of the evolution and research challenges within good entrepreneurship

The Invention of Enterprise David S. Landes, Joel Mokyr, William J. Baumol, 2012-02-26 A sweeping global history of entrepreneurial innovation Whether hailed as heroes or cast as threats to social order entrepreneurs and their innovations have had an enormous influence on the growth and prosperity of nations The Invention of Enterprise gathers together for the first time leading economic historians to explore the entrepreneur's role in society from antiquity to the present Addressing social and institutional influences from a historical context each chapter examines entrepreneurship during a particular period and in an important geographic location The book chronicles the sweeping history of enterprise in Mesopotamia and Neo Babylon carries the reader through the Islamic Middle East offers insights into the entrepreneurial history of China Japan and Colonial India and describes the crucial role of the entrepreneur in innovative activity in Europe and the United States from the medieval period to today In considering the critical contributions of entrepreneurship the authors discuss why entrepreneurial activities are not always productive and may even sabotage prosperity They examine the institutions and restrictions that have enabled or impeded innovation and the incentives for the adoption and dissemination of inventions They also describe the wide variations in global entrepreneurial activity during different historical periods and the similarities in development as well as entrepreneurship's role in economic growth The book is filled with past examples and events that provide lessons for promoting and successfully pursuing contemporary entrepreneurship as a means of contributing to the welfare of society The Invention of Enterprise lays out a definitive picture for all who seek an understanding of innovation's central place in our world

Information Technology Entrepreneurship and Innovation Zhao, Fang, 2008-05-31 It has become a widely recognized fact that entrepreneurs and information technology have become the backbone of the world economy The increasing penetration of IT in society and in most of industries businesses as well as the joining forces of entrepreneurship and innovation in the economy reinforce the need for a leading and authoritative research handbook to disseminate leading edge findings about entrepreneurship and innovation in the context of IT from an international perspective Information Technology Entrepreneurship and Innovation presents current studies on the nature process and practice of entrepreneurship and innovation in the development implementation and application of information technology worldwide as well as providing academics entrepreneurs managers and practitioners with up to date comprehensive and rigorous research based articles on the formation and implementation of effective strategies and business plans Strategies and Applications of Islamic Entrepreneurship Rafiki, Ahmad, Pananjung, Alfatih Gessan, Nasution, Muhammad Dharma Tuah Putra, 2023-09-25 As many countries are now looking for alternative ways of doing business with a focus on preserving ethics morals and values it is important to understand and consider Islamic business Islamic business management and entrepreneurship are topics that are discussed by many scholars however researchers in some countries have yet to comprehensively understand and implement current models strategies and applications Strategies and Applications of Islamic Entrepreneurship considers all aspects of Islamic business management and entrepreneurship The book also provides the best practices and challenges of implementing Islamic business models Covering key topics such as Islamic marketing Islamic business environments and Muslim countries this premier reference source is ideal for managers business owners policymakers industry professionals researchers academicians scholars instructors and students Strategic Islamic Marketing Baker Ahmad Alserhan, Veland Ramadani, Jusuf Zeqiri, Léo-Paul Dana, 2022-06-28 Marketing in the emerging Islamic markets is a challenging business function since international companies must contend with unfamiliar customs cultural differences and legal challenges This book provides marketers who want to reach this emerging and very lucrative consumer base with essential research based insights on these aspects and how to deal with them This book redefines marketing practice and conduct and challenges conventional marketing wisdom by introducing a religious based ethical framework to the practice of marketing The framework opens a whole new array of marketing opportunities and describes the behavior of the consumer community and companies using a different approach than conventional marketing thought Ethnic Conflict and Protest in Tibet and Xinjiang Ben Hillman, Gray Tuttle, 2016-04-05 Despite more than a decade of rapid economic development rising living standards and large scale improvements in infrastructure and services China's western borderlands are awash in a wave of ethnic unrest not seen since the 1950s Through on the ground interviews and firsthand observations the international experts in this volume create an invaluable record of the conflicts and protests as they have unfolded the most extensive chronicle of events to date The authors examine the factors driving the unrest in Tibet and Xinjiang and the political strategies used to suppress them They also explain why certain areas have seen higher concentrations of ethnic based violence than others Essential reading for anyone struggling to understand the origins of unrest in contemporary Tibet and Xinjiang this volume considers the role of propaganda and education as generators and sources of conflict It links interethnic strife to economic growth and connects environmental degradation to increased instability It captures the subtle difference between violence in urban Xinjiang and conflict in rural Tibet with detailed portraits of everyday individuals caught among the pressures of politics history personal interest and global movements with local resonance
